

Subjects who may hereafter come into this Province, to make certain declarations, if they have resided in France.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all and every subject so described as aforesaid, who may come into this Province, after the passing of this Act, and is bound to declare his or her rank, occupation and description, shall also at the same time, and by the same declaration, deliver his or her reasons for, and the cause of going into and residing in France, and for what period, and where resided, and what business followed, together with his or her reasons for coming into this Province, under and upon the pains and penalties in this Act declared against Aliens aforesaid, who come into this Province and neglect or refuse obedience to this Act.

Application of the fines, forfeitures and penalties.

XXIX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the fines, forfeitures, and penalties by this Act imposed, except the part granted to Informers, shall be paid into the hands of his Majesty's Receiver General for this Province, by the person or persons receiving the same, to be applied by warrant under the hand and seal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government, to the purposes herein limited, and shall be accounted for to the Crown through the Commissioners of his Majesty's treasury for the time being, as the Crown shall direct.

An abstract of this Act to be printed, and affixed at places of public resort.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that an abstract of the several regulations herein contained, relative to Aliens and persons who have resided or purchased property in France, as described in this Act, shall be printed in the English and French languages, and shall be publicly affixed in such places, as strangers usually pass through on entering in this Province, and shall be notified by the Custom-house Officers, to the master or commander of every ship or vessel, and to all Foreigners who are on board the same, (sailors excepted,) on their arrival in this Province; but that it shall not be necessary for the conviction of any Alien or other Person offending against this Act, to prove such personal notification.

Continuance of this Act.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Act shall have continuance, until the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and four, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of the Provincial Parliament and no longer.

C A P. III.

AN ACT for the relief of Pierre Joseph Chevreuls.
