CULLED FROM THE PRESS
 Somewhere perhaps is a hurling without a grievance.

It sometimes occurs to us that rising generation is too fond ting.

After you have climbed to the top don't forget the fellow who held the ladder.

Whatever a man soweth probably won't come up. But gardening is good exercise, anyhow.

The proof of the pudding is in eating, but many men demand something ovproof in the drinking.

A man's salad days are the period when he's green in his judgement and particular over his dressing.

Despite the alleged shortage of money, there is no let up in the business of buying and selling gold bricks.

Many people seem to have lost faith in everybody except the fellow who promises to make them rich quick.

A convention of henpecked husbands is in session near Brantford, England. We hope Mr. Jiggs is among the delegates from overseas.

B. C. League of Moral Reform "would bar the one-piece bathing suit at all provincial beaches." Let's see—one from one leaves nothing.
 We object.—Ex.

Funny isn't it, but as soon as a man gets a few rows of Dutch sets stuck in the ground, he thinks he's entitled to have the government crop bulletins mailed to him.

"I hear you've signed up as a skipper of the good ship matrimony?"
 "No, my wife's the skipper, I married a widow. I am her second mate."

"Mamma," said the little girl, her eyes wide with excitement, "I do believe the minister told a story!"
 "Why, the idea!" said her mother "You don't know what you are saying."

"But I do, mamma. I heard papa ask him how long he had worn chin whiskers, and he said he had worn them all his life."

Don't forget when passing another car, and particularly when passing a horse and buggy, to use your dimmers. That is what they are for, and the non-glare lenses do not excuse you. Don't keep on your lights while the horse is jumping.
 Remember that the horse and buggy have rights. Be a gentleman!
 Thank goodness most of car drivers are, but there are a few who need a little reminder.

common as mosquitos in a swamp, to-day they are as scarce as hen's teeth. What has brought about this change? Should one year of adversity knock the bottom out of six years of prosperity? That is just what seems to have taken place.
 How can it? Were people but living from hand to mouth when hogs sold at $24 per cwt., when wages were $4 per day and up, and logs sold at $60 per M.? Did these people put nothing by for a "rainy day"? It is true that money flowed gently like "Sweet Afton", but where is it today? "Gone, but not forgotten," and the lesson is as plain as the nose on the face. Save!
 Save! Save! Be odd, if necessary.

What has knocked the wind out of the sails of seventy-five per cent. of the people during the past year?
 Not two years ago $10 bills were as

By Hansard we notice that the first question asked in Parliament by J. W. Findlay, M.P., was in regard to the number of convictions of British Columbia Indians for potlatching. It appears, from the answer of the Premier, that of the 58 informations against the redskins for this serious offence, 9 were dismissed, 23 were given suspended sentences, 22 were sentenced to two months' imprisonment and 4 to six months' imprisonment. Waiter's constituents will rest easier when they learn that potlatching is not making disloyal speeches nor engaging in nude war dances, but a big banquet at the home of some big injun, when they proceed to eat him out of house and home, taking home with them whatever catches their eye. The banquettes bring back presents later to their host but the larder of the tepee remains empty for a long time. If the pale faces of South Bruce are contemplating parties of that kind we hope they wait till their member comes back to the old home in Brant and begin with him when his supply of grub is at its best.—Chesley Enterprise.

THE WESTERN FAIR
 Sept. 9th to 16th, 1922.

A large amount of work is in progress at Queens Park, London, Ont., in preparation for the big Exhibition in September. A new floor will be laid on the Amusement platform. The roofs of practically all the buildings on the grounds will be repaired and relaid where necessary. A contract has been let for the construction of a subway (for foot passengers only) under the track at the north end of the Grand Stand. This will afford easy access to the Automobiles that are parked inside the horse ring. Several other important improvements will be made on the grounds, as the board is anxious that everything possible may be done for the safety and convenience of all visitors and exhibitors. All information about the Exhibition will be furnished on Application to the Secretary, A. M.
 Hunt, General Offices, London, Ont.

LIFT YOUR FEET

Quit blaming Providence, your friends or your enemies for what is due to your own carelessness or stupidity. There are a lot of barked shins and broken noses due to shuffling or not looking far enough ahead. The wonder is how so many escape without broken necks. Pleasure is just now floundering in the mire of business difficulty who morose of business difficulty who might have avoided the mess if they had put on the brakes a little sooner.
 "The prudent looketh well to his going."—Where are your feet landing you outside your business affairs, young man? These are days when the god of pleasure is luring many to destruction. If ever there was need of a warning against the menace of emptiness and selfishness it is today. You can't serve business and pleasure any more than God and Mammon. Get your eye on the course and lift your feet—

EVEN MILLIONAIRES TIRE OF LIFE

There were nearly 20,000 suicides in 1921 in the United States, and amongst the number were 10 editors, 22 clergymen, 39 brokers, 51 school teachers, 57 judges and lawyers, 76 millionaires, 86 physicians, and 93 bankers, says the Christian Guardian. What will strike some of our readers as most peculiar will be the suicide of the 76 millionaires, and yet probably that is easily explained. Great wealth is no guarantee of happiness or peace of mind and only too often it is but an added burden and an incentive to lower living.

The average man firmly believes that, when a woman promises to love and honor him, she should go right on doing it, automatically, no matter what he may do to discourage her.

There are a good many people who arrive at ridiculous conclusions without taking into account all the facts. They sometimes are surprised at their own achievements when really they had little or nothing to do with them. They are like the Irishman, who was to return to his native land by a certain steamer, arrived on the pier just as the vessel was starting—in fact, she was already on the move. Taking a flying leap, he covered the intervening space of six feet at a bound, but tripped on alighting and hit his head stunning himself. When he recovered his senses, the vessel was a couple of hundred yards out at sea. "Be jabbers!" he exclaimed, "not realizing what had happened,
 'what a jump!'"

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU SIGN

An elderly farmer up in Arran township came very nearly being put out of house and home recently, because he signed a document which he did not understand. It appears that a Tara implement dealer was asked by the firm he represented to have some responsible person recommend him as a trustworthy person to handle their business. The prospective agent suggested the farmer in question and the general ar-gent, going out to call on the farmer, secured his signature to a document which he (the farmer) thought was only a recommendation but which in reality was a guarantee. All went well the first year, and the farmer readily signed again the second year.
 This time, however, the Tara agent got away behind and the company came forward with a claim of $5000 against the innocent and ignorant farmer. The farmer engaged the services of Barrister C. J. Mickle of Chesley, who arranged to meet representatives of the implement company at Walkerton. To these, Mr.
 Mickle pointed out that the farmer was an old man and that to take $5,000 from him would put him on the road. The company, it appears, could have compelled the farmer to come across with the full amount, if it took his last cent, but Mr.
 Mickle's line of argument influenced them to halve up with the farmer, and they accepted payment of $2, 500 which was the amount the unfortunate man paid for his experience.
