daily happened that [illegible] was blowing, and there raised the Church and other buildings, presently waxed fully four cubits high, and were only on the eve of being finished and their roofs on, when the Chief Engineer, Captain Bedford, ordered the whole force of [illegible] to [illegible] ...

DISTRESS.—Sarah Fennell, wife of Mr. Fennell, postmaster of the 20th Regiment, committed herself to the care of Almighty God, by throwing herself in a well in rear of her house. Inquest found that the evidence before the Coroner proved, that the deceased had been labouring under an idea that something dreadful was going to happen. She said that something would happen to her or her daughter watched her closely, and on the day above mentioned she made an attempt to enter her bed-room, which she found had been locked; she then went round the house to get in by a window which looks to the rear, and found it open. Anticipating what had taken place, she ran to the well, and found her anticipations too awfully realized. An inquest sat on the body, and the usual verdict in such cases returned.—Herald.

DROWNED.—On Sunday last, two young lads were playing on the ice in rear of the Military Hospital—the ice gave way, and both fell into the water. A gentleman seeing this, ran to the spot and succeeded in saving one of the lads, the other, named Flood, was carried by the current under the ice and drowned—his body has not yet been discovered.—Herald.

Electioneering Movements.

In several Counties preparations have begun to be made for the General Election, which cannot be delayed beyond January, 1852, and may take place sooner if the Cabinet should see any reasons, personal or political, for precipitating the contest. The local journals supply intelligence of election movements in the following Counties, viz.:—

DUNDAS.—In the little County of Dundas, the Cornwall Freeholder states that several candidates are engaged in active canvass. Our contemporary, however, for some reason, suppresses all the names but that of Jesse W. Ross, Esq., who has addressed the electors through the Prescott Telegraph on several topics of political interest. He declares himself an advocate for retrenchment in all official salaries that are disproportioned to the duties; a law reformer, who desires simplicity in the practice, and reduction of costs. In Church matters, says Mr. Ross, "my principles are well-known in this County, for I have never hesitated to declare that I ask nothing more, nor will I accept anything less, than equal rights, so far as it respects the administration of the laws, as well as government patronage." From this it is not clear whether he be in favor of the State dividing public funds among all sects, or whether he simply means to say that a man's creed should be no bar to his receiving government patronage. It is important that this should be understood. He promises that he would not be a thick and thin supporter of any government when he disapproved of its measures.

PRINCE EDWARD.—The Picton Sun states that Roger B. Conger, Esq., has acceded to the prayer of the requisition presented to him by a deputation appointed for that purpose by the late meeting of Delegates, to allow himself to be put in nomination as the Reform candidate for this County at the next General Election. We do not find from Mr. Conger any opinion on the present position of affairs.

WELLAND.—Thos. C. Street has stated his intention of becoming a candidate for this County at the General Election; but on what ticket does not appear.

LEEDS.—The canvass continues active in this County between the present Member and Mr. Gowan.

COUNTY OF YORK.—Some time ago the Globe announced that both Mr. Price and Mr. Baldwin would ask from their present constituents a renewed lease of confidence. Mr. Price will probably do so; but we must confess to a doubt that Mr. Baldwin will.—Examiner.

ONTARIO, SIMCOE AND HURON RAILROAD.—The party engaged in the Survey of this line of Railroad, returned to their domiciles, the North American Hotel, in this city, soon after midnight on Saturday last. During their absence of fifteen days, they have prosecuted their labours east of the city and over the ridges as far as Bradford, and their report of the route is highly favourable to the success of the enterprise. They express a decided conviction of the value of the property, taking into account the fertile soil over which the line may pass, which they describe as equal, if not superior, to the lands of America, through which they have previously had many opportunities of passing in their many surveys of lines of Railroad in that country. What is equally gratifying to all the well-wishers of this undertaking, is the fact, that during the progress of their survey on the Eastern Route, they have not met with a single opposition to their passing over any lands by any farmers or landholders with whom they have come in contact, and that they express themselves highly gratified by the hospitable attentions they have received in the different sections of the country. Some gentlemen of standing in different Townships, who are now more than ever convinced of the impropriety of any opposition to a work so full of promise to this Province. On Tuesday morning next, they propose to commence a survey of the Huron Route, to the same point (Bradford,) which they have already made, and shortly after this has been completed, a Special Report by the Chief Engineer will be made for the Government and directors of the Company, which is now in a position not less commanding than that to which it is justly entitled from perseverance and exertion in overcoming the many and unjustifiable obstacles which have been so industriously attempted to prevent its success; but we are nevertheless glad to find that a change has come over the spirit of the people, and that a goodly result may be expected. The gentlemen engaged in the survey will be able to make an extremely favourable representation of the people and Province of Canada to their brethren across the lines, if on their survey of the Western Route they shall experience the same urbanity, information and attention which they have enjoyed on their present eastward.—Colonist.

OPEN.—We hear of open questions in politics, but give us open weather and open navigation, in preference. A clear run across the noble Ontario, is the first open question in the world; for those who are resident on her shores, or within a reasonable distance of them. There are three steamers now plying from our harbour, which is at best indicative of the opening of the season. The ——— the Chief Justice, sailed, as usual, plied regularly during the whole winter, between Toronto and the only open harbour on the north shore of Lake Ontario—and the Niagara River; the Eclipse, now plying between Toronto and Wellington Square, Burlington Bay not being yet open, to admit of the steamer proceeding to Hamilton; and the Admiral which left Toronto, on Saturday, on her first trip for the season, for Rochester. We hope the coming season will be a profitable one to all concerned in the navigation of our inland waters.—Toronto Colonist.

UNIVERSITY OF TRINITY COLLEGE.—Yesterday, at noon, the Council of Trinity College, Church University, met on the site of the proposed buildings, for the purpose of breaking ground, soon after twelve o'clock. The Lord Bishop made a short address to the people who had assembled on the ground; after which, his Lordship took a spadeful of earth, and putting it into the barrow, said, "We begin this work, in the name of The Father, and The Son, and The Holy Ghost." Each member of the Council present then assisted in filling the barrow, which was wheeled by the Sheriff to the place which will form the termen to the building. After the ceremony, the people present gave three cheers for the Queen, three cheers for the Bishop, and three cheers for Trinity College. The site chosen is a most admirable one—not too far from the city, and yet possessing all the advantages of being in the country. The ground is a beautiful level, slightly above Queen Street, and is very generally known as Miss Cameron's property.—Toronto Patriot.

MATTHEW INGRAM, Miller of Churchville, was brought up at the Police Office yesterday, on a charge of forging the indorsement of one James Foster, on a note for £500. The note was produced by Mr. Thomas Smith, to whom the note had been paid by Ingram. In consequence of the non-appearance of Foster, the prisoner was remanded, and instructions were given to the Chief Constable, to procure the attendance of Mr. Foster as early a day as possible. An application for bail to Ingram, was refused by the Magistrate, on the ground that the charge was of too grave a nature.—Toronto Globe.

An awful and extraordinary accident occurred [illegible] Tuesday of March, a day of two ago, by which a steady and industrious young man was suddenly hurried into eternity. He was cutting a circular saw mill, and in passing over the saw it caught a great coat which he had on, threw him violently to the log, and in an instant cut him completely in two. We have several times during the past year recorded accidents which occurred in the same way, viz., by the machinery catching the clothing of the sufferer; in these instances, we will have the effect of causing more caution on the part of persons employed in mills and factories.—Quebec Star.

BUFFALO, March 24.—Ferdinand Snyder, late of the Firm of Snyder, Sage & Co., died here yesterday.

OSWEGO, March 24, 8, A. M.—Destructive Fire.—About 4 o'clock on Sunday morning, a fire broke out in a building, known as the Washington Mills, situated on Carrington and Pardee Canal, which, with all the contents, was entirely consumed. The building had been recently converted into a vast workshop, and at the time of the fire was filled with an immense amount of machinery of different kinds, operated by numerous mechanics; with lumber and other articles. It was all owned by Messrs. Carrington and Pardee, and was valued at $20,000. Insured at $13,000. Total Loss, $30,000.
