National Service means that we are to get into the frame of minu which will cause us to think of the needs of the country, to realize that the interests of the State have a greater claim on us than our selfinterest. This applies to everyone, from the highest in the land to the lowest. The Prince of Wales' motto "I serve" may well be the motto of every citizen of the British Empire this time.

The man on the farm and the life chanic in a workshop may be serving the nation as usefully as the man in the trenches. Every man should be doing the work which represents his most efficient service to little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through the country.

war is teaching us, or should be teaching us, great lessons. Terrible as are its effects, those who have faith in Canadian manhood tope and believe that the nation wil emerge from this experience a stronger and a better people. If the meaning of National Srvice is thoroughly grasped and properly under right spirit, the coming year will be the banner year in Canada's history.
