Mrs. Rheiner, of Detroit, Formerly of This City.

Now on Trial for Killing Her Two Children—Prosecution and Defence Agree on the Facts.

Detroit News, Jan. 16.

There will be no contest in the case of Mrs. Theo. Rheiner, for murder, now in progress before Judge Murphy. The facts of the killing of the children are not disputed, and the contention that Mrs. Rheiner's mind is deranged is not questioned by the prosecution. Hence, the present proceedings are more in the nature of an official investigation than an actual murder trial.

"We will bring before you testimony," Assistant Prosecutor Mandell said to the jury in his opening statement, "which I am frank to admit, to a certain degree bears out the contention of the defence that the accused was mentally deranged."

"A horrible tragedy was enacted in this city on Sept. 27 last. A mother poisoned two of her own children. This mother is Mrs. Rheiner, who is now before you. In the trial of this case I want to appear not merely as a public prosecutor, but to join hands with you, gentlemen of the jury, in investigating the facts. Of course, every person is presumed to be sane till the contrary is proven. Therefore I must, at this time, assume that the defendant is sane until the evidence forces me to a different conclusion."

Mr. Mandell then gave a very brief history of the case.

Attorney Pound followed with an opening statement for the defence.

"Mr. Mandell's statement to you, gentlemen of the jury," Mr. Pound said, "anticipating the defence, is a credit to the prosecutor's fairness and experience."

"We will show to you that this case is one of the strangest that ever came into a court of justice. It is indeed a horrible catastrophe, for which this woman now must stand trial; and there is no other explanation for it than insanity."

Mr. Pound then gave a sketch of the life of Mrs. Rheiner; how she came to this country when a mere child, attended school in Detroit, remained at the convent at Chatham; how, when 20 years of age she met and married Theodore Rheiner.

"The marital relations were not happy," Mr. Pound said. "Perhaps he did not understand his wife. Perhaps he was too cold, too practical."

The attorney then recited an instance when Rheiner, in the middle of the night, arose from his bed and left his wife and children. "And that was not the first instance of this kind," Mr. Pound closed.

He then pointed out that the children of the couple showed the same symptoms, and signs that had been observed in the family. All of her children had convulsions in their infancy; one, a boy, died in spasms.

"The heart strings of this mother were touched by the sufferings of her offspring and the growing fear upon her mind that they might be mentally afflicted," said Mr. Pound.

The attorney dwelt at further length upon the mental deficiency of his client and closed with the words: "Neither God nor man can, after considering all the facts, say that this poor, unfortunate woman can be held responsible of any willful and intended crime."

Dr. Carl Bonning was the first witness. He was called to the Rheiner home by a brother of the woman on the night of the murder. When he got there at 12:30 o'clock at night, he found the two youngest children dead in bed, the oldest unconscious, and Mrs. Rheiner herself partly unconscious in the same room with the children. She had a wound in the left wrist, taken carbolic acid, and was suffering from gas poisoning.

"I want to die, because I have killed my children," she said to witness. When the trial was taken up before Judge Murphy yesterday afternoon, Theodore Rheiner, the husband, was present. Not since Sept. 27 last, when the crime was committed, has he seen his wife, and even while in the court room he was careful to keep out of his wife's sight. The only surviving child, Elsie, for whose presence the poor woman has been craving, was not in the court room. Mrs. Rheiner's brothers were with her.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

James S. Fullerton, corporation counsel, of Toronto, has resigned his office.

Sir Charles Tupper, leader of the Conservative in the House of Commons, has returned to Ottawa from a western trip. Since September 27 he has addressed fifty-six political meetings.

A Toronto dispatch says it will be some little time before the smallpox outbreak in Essex county will be cleaned up. Dr. Bryce, provincial medical health officer, has received a report from three stating that the disease has occurred in four houses in Rochester township, since December 23. No deaths have yet been recorded, and in all the districts except Rochester township, the smallpox has about been stamped out.

THEORIES ABOUT FOOD.

Also a Few Facts on the Same Subject.

We hear so much nowadays about health foods and hygienic living, about vegetarianism and many other fads along the same line.

Restaurants that are found in the larger cities where no meat, pastry or coffee is served and the food cranked in his glory, and arguments and theories galore advanced to prove that meat was never intended for human stomachs, and almost make us believe that our sturdy ancestors who lived four score years in robust health on roast beef, pork and mutton must have been grossly ignorant of the laws of health.

Our forefathers had other things to do than formulate theories about the food they ate. A warm welcome was extended to any kind from bacon to acorns.

A healthy appetite and common sense are excellent guides to follow in matters of diet, and a mixed diet of grains, fruits and meats is undoubtedly the best.

As compared with grains and vegetables, meat furnishes the most nutriment in a highly concentrated form and is digested and assimilated more quickly than vegetables and grains.

Dr. Julius Remmonson on this subject says: "Nervous persons, people run down in health and low vitality should eat meat and plenty of it. If the digestion is too feeble at first it may be easily corrected by the regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal. Two of these excellent tablets taken after dinner will digest several thousand grains of meat, eggs or other animal food in three hours, and no matter how weak the stomach may be, no trouble will be experienced if a regular practice is made of using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply the pepsin and diastase necessary to perfect digestion, and every form of indigestion will be overcome by their use."

That large class of people who come under the head of nervous dyspeptics should eat plenty of meat and insure their proper digestion by the daily use of a safe, harmless digestive medicine like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, composed of the natural digestive principles, pepsin, diastase, fruit acids and salts, which actually perform the work of digestion. Cheap cathartics, purgatives, and other remedies under the name of dyspepsia cures are useless for indigestion, as they have absolutely no effect upon the actual digestion of food.

Dyspepsia in all its many forms is simply a failure of the stomach to digest food, and the sensible way to solve the riddle and cure the dyspepsia is to make daily use at meal time of a preparation like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which is indorsed by the medical profession and known to contain active digestive principles.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50c. for full treatment. A little booklet on cause and cure of stomach trouble mailed free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

DEADLY BAYONET.

Boers Charge a British Position
at Rensburg

And Were Met by a Counter Charge—
Enemy Routed With Loss—
The N. W. Zealanders Were in It.

Rensburg, Cape Colony, Monday, Jan. 15.—The Boers this morning attempted to rush a hill held by a company of the Yorkshires and the New Zealanders, but were repulsed at the point of the bayonet. The Boers had 21 men killed about 50 wounded.

The bill commands a tract of country east of the main position of the Boers, and they determined to make an attempt to seize the height. They advanced cautiously, directing their fire at a small wall held by the Yorkshires, and compelling the latter to keep close under cover. When the Boers rushed the wall, the British faced bayonets and charged. Just at that moment Capt. Maddocks, with a small party of New Zealanders, came up, and the combined forces leaped over the wall and charged straight for the Boers' line at close range. The Boers literally tumbled over each other in their hurry to escape, but the persistent fire of the British inflicted a heavy loss. Desultory firing continued for some time, but the attack was an utter failure, and the Boers retreated to the shelter of the small kopjes at the base of the hill.

AT MODDER RIVER.
London, Jan. 17.—There was a brisk exchange of shells yesterday at Modder River, the Boers returning our fire for the first time in several days. The Boers' entrenchments are being continually strengthened and extended. Stories still reach camp that the Free Staters desire to end the war. The latest report is that a council was held recently at Bloemfontein, at which President Steyn and Gen. Cronje were present. It was then stated that unless the British began the attack upon their home, the Free Staters would rejoin the Boer army, which is far from the railway head, is very evident.

The Durban correspondent of the Daily Standard deals with the numerous reports that the Free Staters have tired of the war and will abandon the struggle as soon as the British cross the border. He mentions an extraordinary story with reference to a journey of President Kruger's son-in-law, Eloff, to Delagoa Bay in a German warship. According to this Eloff has been making arrangements for President Kruger's escape in the event of the capture of Pretoria.

WAUCHOPE'S LAST LETTER.
Evidence accumulates that General Methuen has lost the confidence of his entire force to such an extent that it is declared it is doubtful if the troops would follow him in another attack on the Boers. The war office is understood to be in possession of a letter written by Gen. Wauchope the night before the battle, saying it would be the last letter he would ever write, as he had been asked to perform an impossible task and he had either to obey or surrender his sword. An immediate change in the command of the force may therefore be expected. It is anticipated in some quarters that Lieut.-Gen. Tucker will succeed Gen. Methuen.

President Shaughnessy, of the C. P. R., has sent a check for $15,000 to the patriotic fund in connection with the South African war.

In Manitoba, six protests against Conservatives and four against Liberals have been filed.

The police magistrate of Toronto is putting down the tough element with a strong hand. Monday he sentenced Timothy Sheehan, who struck his wife over the head with a beer bottle and seriously hurt her, to two and one-half years in the penitentiary.

Miss Clementina Hensworth was quietly married at the rectory here to-day by the Rev. T. Dobson, to Mr. George, a prominent merchant of Lis-tovet.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Edith Walker, of Windfall, which President Steyn and Gen. Cronje were present. It was then stated that unless the British began the attack upon their home, the Free Staters would rejoin the Boer army, which is far from the railway head, is very evident.
