the city corporation for the poor manner in which the Maple Leaf cemetery is kept.

"There should be a better showing of public respect for the last resting places of our honored dead," said he in the course of his remarks.

"The corporation of Chatham should be censured for the way that the Maple Leaf cemetery is allowed to grow wild. Naturally, it is well located and with a little care and attention it could be made a very beautiful spot. The matter should be attended to."

WEARS A SMILE

Dr. A. W. Thornton, dentist, has returned from a trip to Toronto. The doctor attended the convention of the doctor attended the convention of the Canadian National Dentists Association, which was held in Toronto, and reports having had a pleasant and profitable time. There were prominent dentists present from all over Canada and the United States, and two from Paris, France. The assocation meets every two years and the next meeting will be held in Montreal. In conversation with The Planet the doctor said:

Mrs Green and Mrs Abraham both Ask Courts for the Guardianship of Little Grace Betcone.

Grace Kathleen Betcone is an orphan. Her mother died in Detroit last May and her father some time previous. The father left $1,000, which is deposited in a Windsor bank. The mother left some personal property. Now the aunt and a Detroit neighbor of the little girl's mother are furthing for possession of the troit neighbor of the little girl's mo-ther are fighting for possession of the child and the property. On the death of her mother the child came to re-side with her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Green, of Dante, Zone Township. Letters of guardianship were granted to Mrs. Green by the Surrogate Court. In the meantime Mrs. Abraham, of De-troit, with whom the child had been living during the mother's absence a short time prior to death made ambitroit, with whom the child had been living during the mother's absence a short time prior to death, made application for letters of guardianship in Detroit and got them. She then endeavored to secure possession of the girl and procured a writ of habeas corpus for the production of Grace Betcone before Mr. Justice Britton at the assizes at Sandwich. Mr. Britton heard the evidence and sent the child back to Mrs. Green without finally determining judgment and has never given judgment. Mrs. Abraham comes forward and asks the Court to cancel the grant of letters of guardianship to Mrs. Green. Application will be made to the judge on Thursday for the cancellation of the grant of letters of guardianship. Application has also been made by Mrs. Green to the Surrogate Court of Essex. Mrs. Abraham has filed a caveat and the question of granting it is still pending. W. E. Gundy, of the firm of Wilson, Pike & Gundy, is acting for the plaintiff; Fred.
