WOLFVILLE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION

Successful School Function in Which Teachers and Pupils Participate

The exercises in connection with the High School graduation, held at the Orpheum Theatre last Friday afternoon, were of an exceedingly interesting character. Weather conditions were unfavorable but the large number of parents and friends present indicated the interest which is maintained in this important institution of community life.

At the appointed hour to the music of the Bugle Boy March rendered by the school orchestra under the efficient direction of Miss Newcombe, the pupils marched in and took their places, the members of the graduating class occupying the front seat.

Principal Silver was in the chair and with him on the platform were Miss Langley, of the Seminary staff, who as Mr. Silver explained is conducting a large class in violin at the school, Miss Rosamond Archibald, Miss Grace Porter, Miss Ella Warren, Miss G. MacDonald, Dr. J. H. Macdonald, Dr. Rhodenizer and Mrs. C. A. Patriquin.

The program opened with the class history, cleverly written by Dorothy Dakin and read by Virginia MacLean, which gave an interesting account of the school life of the class of '25. A well executed violin solo by Helen Grant was followed by the reading of Act I, Scene 1, of "Julius Caesar" by Frances Sanford, Jean Shaw, William Gue and Gordon Munro, pupils of Grade XI.

An interesting address was given by Principal Silver, in which he reviewed the school activities and gave the audience a good idea of conditions.

H. Macdonald, who was called upon to address the graduates, congratulated the High School upon the completion of another successful year's work. It was most unusual to see so large a proportion of High School graduates continuing their education. No less than nineteen of the twenty-one pupils, who successfully passed the Provincial Government examinations and secured eleventh grade certificates, were now in college—sixteen at Acadia, two at Dalhousie and one at the Provincial Normal College.

The future success of the graduates will depend upon their conception of education, the purpose of which, he pointed out, was the development of personality. The greatest gift one possesses is himself. His own personality is the best contribution any man can make to his country and to mankind. One of the criticisms made against modern secondary and higher schools of learning is that they do not develop personality. The students are put into a hopper and in the process of the education, they are made to conform to a standard. This may not be a fair criticism, but it is certain that, as a result of this education, he becomes a mere imitation and has no worthy contribution to make to his fellow men.

Another danger of modern education is that we permit our scientific knowledge to outstrip our moral development. The fact is, we have become possessed of great forces which we are not fit to use. It requires self-control, good will and strong moral fibre to use aright the forces which modern discoveries have brought to us. Educational efficiency alone may become as dangerous to us as TNT and quite as immoral.

The speaker concluded by expressing the hope that in the field of education the Wolfville High School graduates of the Class of 1925 would go far, but urged upon its members to make sure that their moral education keep pace with their intellectual development.

The following prizes were presented by Principal Silver: $5 to Jack Williams, for highest mark in English at Provincial Government examinations (85.5); donor, Dr. Rhodenizer; $5 to Jack Williams, for highest mark in Chemistry in the same examinations, donor, Principal Silver; $5 to Elizabeth Corey, for highest mark in English in '24, donor, Prof. Rhodenizer; $5 to Alfred Cox, Grade X, for highest mark in English at Provincial examinations; $5 to Alan Pick, for highest aggregate on English, Algebra and Physics (83); $1.50 to Bertha Warren, for greatest improvement in Latin, donor, Miss Warren; $1.50 to Victor Gould, for same improvement; Silver trophy for hockey championships, given by J. O. D. E. to the graduating class; Silver trophy for basketball, won by Grade IX; book prize to Edythe Forsythe, for highest mark in Arithmetic, donor, Mrs. D. G. Whidden; $5 to Jack Williams, who led Grade XI and the school (aggregate of 710), donor, the Sons of Temperance, presented by Charles Patriquin; $12.50 to Donald Munroe, from the Sons of Temperance. Honors in Mathematics and Languages, Marjorie Warren; honors in Mathematics, Edythe Forsythe; honors in languages, Victor Gould.

Mr. Silver announced that this year for the first time a certificate showing the standing of the members of the class was being presented. This certificate is artistically printed in purple and gold, and Mr. Silver complimented those who received these certificates at the hands of the principal were: Virginia MacLean, Maxine Williams, Bernice Porter, Sara Wallace, Maud Melvin, Mary Chase, Gertrude Phinney, Ruth Forsythe, Dorothy Dakin, Evelyn Raegh, Helen Ingraham, Alice Hand, Jack Williams, Clayton Tedford, Ronald Prescott, John Johnson, Ronald Shaw, Karl Eaton, Ira Gerald, Harold Phinney and Fred Regan.

The singing of the national anthem brought to a close the exercises which were of a character which reflected the greatest credit upon teachers and pupils alike.

INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY

Acadia Put One Over on the Tigers and Win by 9-0

The Acadia-Dalhousie football game, always an important event in the athletic life of the University, was played on Monday and resulted to the entire satisfaction of the local college men. Unfortunately THE ACADIAN was not able to be represented at the game and in the absence of our own report present the following from the Halifax Chronicle, which we believe to be on the whole fairly accurate:

The Acadia University Rugby team sprang a surprise on Dalhousie yesterday and defeated them by the score of 9 to 0 on the Studley campus.

The Acadia fifteen were full of vim, tackled hard, and made the most of their opportunities, whilst Dalhousie played listlessly and made countless bad passes. Although Dalhousie had the better of the territory all through, they were not able to cross their opponents' line.

The field was very slippery and a strong wind blew during the game.

Dalhousie had the western end of the field during the first half, with the ball almost continuously in the Red and Blue territory. Many attempts were made to score, and the Tigers carried the ball to the line quite often, but did not have the required punch to penetrate the Dalhousie line.

Quarter line well, and proved themselves good on defensive work. Dalhousie was in position to drop kick several times, but it was never attempted and the period ended with no score.

In the second half Acadia had the wind with them and punted far into Dalhousie territory. After a scrimmage near the Tigers' line McLatchy secured the piskin and broke through the opposing players for a try, which Davidson easily converted.

The Gold and Black warriors endeavored to gain the other end of the field, but it was useless to punt as the high wind would carry the ball in the wrong direction. After several runs by both sides, a scrimmage took place near the 40 yard line, and when Davidson received a pass out he made a neat drop kick which passed cleanly between the bars for four more points.

This startled Dalhousie and they commenced to wake up. By dint of hard work they got the ball up the field in short stages and reached a scoring position, where Acadia were forced to touch for safety twice. The situation was relieved by the 25 yard drop out and play went to centre field. The local's scrum now had complete control of the ball and heeled out nine times out of ten, but it availed little as the Acadia men were fast workers and nailed them before they could get away, or else Dalhousie missed the pass.

The whistle blew for the end of the contest, with the visitors victorious by nine points. Murphy was the best of the Tigers, followed by Moore, Harrington, Baird and Tupper.

Noble, in the backfield, played a splendid game for Acadia. Davidson, McLatchy, Elderkin and Hamilton played well. Norman Ralston refereed.

The line-up:

Dalhousie—Fullback—Rockingham; Halves—Langstroth, A. Smith, Wickwire; Three-quarters—Moore, McInnes, Murphy, D. Smith; Forwards—Baird, McLean, Livingstone, Cox, Tupper, Harrington, Sutherland.

Acadia—Fullback—Noble; Halves—H. Elderkin, Davidson, McLatchy; Three-quarters—Hamilton, Wilson, Barthe, B. Elderkin; Forwards—Creelman, Miller, A. Noble, Eatey, Shaffner, Kierstead, Lane; Subs.—White, Morse, Crossman.

DEATH OF FORMER WOLFVILLE LADY

Word has been received from Nelson, B. C., of the death of Mrs. Maria Armstrong Currie, a former highly esteemed resident of Wolfville. She was born and brought up in this town, where her grandfather, the late Father Harding, was for many years pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church. She went to India as a missionary in 1873, among the first seven from the Maritime Provinces, and was married in India to Rev. G. F. Currie. Later they returned to Wolfville, where her two children graduated from Acadia.

For fifteen years she had resided in British Columbia. For many years, both at home and abroad, she devoted her life to the furtherance of the cause of foreign missions. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Neil Houston; a son, Herbert H., Editor of the Daily News, Nelson, B. C.; and a sister, Mrs. G. O. Gates, of Wolfville.

FEDERAL CONTEST ENDED

Returns Indicate Continued Unstability in Canadian Government Affairs—King Government Defeated with Many Outstanding Casualties.

THE ACADIAN defers publication until today (Friday) in order to give its readers the result so far as is obtainable of the Federal contest.

While as yet the outcome is considered in doubt enough is known to indicate that the Conservatives will have the largest group in the new parliament, and that the Progressives are no longer a force to be seriously considered in Canadian politics.

As we go to press the figures given out by the Canadian Press at 3:30 o'clock this morning are: Conservatives, 118; Liberals, including two Independent Liberals, 89; Progressives, 10; Independents, Mr. Bourassa, 1; Labor, 2; in doubt, 25.

That the King government is defeated is beyond question. Hon. Mr. King, himself, had an adverse majority of 500 and eight cabinet ministers, including Hon. Geo. P. Graham, Hon. G. W. Gordon, Hon. W. E. Foster, Hon. James Murdoch, Hon. T. A. Lowe, Hon. Vincent Massey, Hon. Herbert Marler, Hon. John E. Sinclair, are reported among the defeated.

The Maritimes have spoken with no uncertain sound. Nova Scotia elects 11 Conservatives and 3 Liberals; New Brunswick, 10 Conservatives and 1 Liberal; Prince Edward Island, 2 Conservatives and 2 Liberals. Liberals elected in Nova Scotia are: Hon. E. M. MacDonald in Antigonish-Guysboro; William Duff, in Lunenburg-Quebec; and Paul Hatfield in Yarmouth-Sheburne.

In Kings-Hants, because of unusual conditions owing to the union of the two counties, the outcome of the contest was difficult to estimate from the first. Both parties professed to be confident up to the end and if the counting of the ballot must have been a source of surprise to many. Both counties gave a substantial majority to Foster, who wins by a margin of over a thousand. In Kings the majority was 551 and in Hants 458. These figures are, of course, subject to change, but are approximately correct. The returns for the different polling places, which are given below, indicates that Mr. Foster received a great vote in some of the pools:

NATIONAL APPLE WEEK

An Institution Which Ought to Interest All our Readers

While apparently not engaging the attention of the fruit-growers of this Valley to any great degree, the announcement that the week from Oct. 31st to Nov. 5th has been set apart as National Apple Week in Canada ought to be a matter of public interest. In some parts of the Dominion, particularly in British Columbia, the plan to stimulate the home consumption of Canadian fruit has been for weeks a centre for practical consideration. The Canadian Horticultural Council, under whose auspices the campaign is being waged, has adopted as its slogan "Eat More Fruit". The aim is to induce people to cultivate the habit of eating Canadian grown fruits and vegetables—to persuade them individually to eat more—and to convince housewives of the health value of these products of our orchards and farms.

It can safely be said that practically every man, woman and child in Canada thoroughly enjoys and needs fruit, but they simply have not got the fruit-eating habit. The main policy of the campaign, then, is to take full advantage of this national fondness for fruit, and to persuade them to eat more fruit, and vegetables, to induce everybody to get the habit of eating more.

For the purpose of educating the public, the most effective means known to expert advertisers—newspapers and periodicals—will be used. Throughout the campaign also every opportunity of using other media, such as hotels, clubs, dining cars, organizations, etc., will be seized to increase the selling power of the advertisements and to intensify the cumulative effects of the campaign.

The observance of the National Apple Week in the New England States and in Canada, was started two years ago, the idea being to emphasize in the public mind the superior quality of apples grown in each respective territory, and stimulating the growers to a more general adoption of scientific methods of growing, grading and packing. It is believed that a general adoption of these proper methods will enable orchardists in our vicinity to demand uniform price, and that the merchants will benefit directly by the improved purchasing power which good prices for apples gives throughout the fall months. We all know that there is room for improvement in packing Nova Scotia apples, while it is generally admitted that the methods adopted by our fruit growers as to cultivation, spraying, pruning, etc., leaves little room for improvement.

New England historians claim that apples were grown in that region as early as 1650. Nova Scotia has the record of having apples of delicious kinds in her orchards in 1635. Having been first in introducing apples in this continent, can we not now be in the lead in producing the best fruit on the continent? Our apples have an international name for good flavor, and apparently the most pressing need is that their merits be made better known.

With the increasing production in this Valley it is evident that too much attention cannot be given to the development of the home markets, which may be regarded as including the larger centres in the Maritime Provinces and the province of Quebec, which has always been and still is a large consumer of our fruit.

It is surprising that the various fruit organizations heretofore have not given evidence of a greater interest in the National Apple Week than is yet apparent.

ACADIA NOTES

The Acadia Dramatic Society met on Tuesday evening in the Club Room of the College Women's residence. The program for the evening was a one-act play written by C. R. Gould, of Aylesford, a Senior at the University; directed by Miss Olive Archibald, of Warren, Pa., the parts taken by Miss Mary Bishop, Miss Ardis Whitman, Lloyd Jenkins and W. K. Elliott. The play, "The Red Shawl", written in the course of the one-act play which is now being published in the April number of the Acadia Athenaeum this spring, but its presentation by the members of the Dramatic Society was its first appearance on the stage.

On Monday evening in Room 4 of the new College building, the Junior class held a very enjoyable class party. The refreshments brought to its close a "real good time".

The S. C. A. of Acadia held its first meeting of the year on Wednesday evening in the College Hall. The meeting took the form of a song service over which Harry Mollins presided. Following the singing Elbert Paul gave a talk on the purpose of the organization.

The first-year students had a get-together on last Wednesday evening for the purpose of learning the College yell and songs. The meeting was behind closed doors but the "Freshies" report progress.

The regular weekly meeting of the Student's Union was held Thursday afternoon. The chief matter brought before the meeting was that of the budget for the ensuing year, which had been laid on the table from the last meeting. After some discussion the budget as brought in by the treasurer, Mr. Israel, was adopted.

Tuesday was Nomination Day for the election to fill the vacancy in the Council caused by the resignation of Mr. J. A. Macpherson. There was only one nomination, that of Mr. Royal W. DeWolfe, who is thus elected by acclamation. An effort was made last February to secure the nomination of Mr. DeWolfe, who at that time declined the honor.

Eight Institutes were represented at this meeting, which was considered one of the most successful yet held.

A tourist sends in a news item for Town Topics under this title. The news item follows:

"While picnicking Saturday, August 29th, our boat was looted and knives and forks thrown overboard. The looters—boys—had been seen sitting on a bank eating one bag of Moirs Chocolates while numerous other good things, while tossed about, had been left unattended."

"I wish to complain," said the bride haughtily, "of the tough flour you sold me."

"Tough flour, Madame?"

"Yes, tough flour! I made a pie with it and my husband couldn't cut it."

Preaching service Nov. 1st at Greenfield by the Mr. J. A. Beye at 3 o'clock, S. S. at 2 o'clock.

Miss M. H. Fritz, Mt. Hapley, is at present visiting her sister, Mrs. V. A. Card, of this place.

Miss Hazel M. Heffer has resigned her position as teacher of the Davison Street School, and has gone to her home in Bedford.

Those from here who attended the political meeting at Wolfville Tuesday evening were well pleased with the discourse of the speakers, also very grateful to Mr. Cecil Caldwell who took them in his truck. Mr. Caldwell also took a large crowd to Black River on Saturday evening, Oct. 24, where they listened with interest to Mr. A. deWitt Foster.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Levy and family spent Oct. 24th at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Levy, of Greenfield.
