GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

HAROLD KINDEN

(To the Editor)

Dear Sir,—Death has again visited this place and taken Harold Kinden, son of Samuel and Leah Kinden, on May 31st, 1920, at the early age of 15 years. He was ill but a few months, of consumption. The funeral took place on Wednesday, June 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. Kinden were grief-stricken over the death of their son and will have the sympathy of their many friends. He was laid to rest in the Methodist cemetery, the burial service being performed by the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson. A large number assembled. He leaves to mourn him a father, mother, three brothers and one sister and a large number of friends.

Indeed they can't help crying.
But it cheers them some to know
In Paradise he is at rest,
Beyond this land of woe.

Another link is broken,
In their household band,
Another chain is forming
In a better land.

Hoping I have not taken up too much space in your paper, and wishing Mr. Coaker every success,
We remain,
E.M.C. and M.C.

OBITUARY

R. G. RANDELL

We learn with much regret of the decease of Robert G. Randell, which occurred at his residence in Catalina on Thursday, the 24th inst., at 8 a.m. The late Mr. Randell, who was in his 51st year, for several years had been engaged in mercantile pursuits, from which quite recently he retired, being somewhat in failing health. It was hoped, however, that he would speedily recover convalescence, which hope alas! was doomed to disappointment, for upon Tuesday last he was suddenly seized with cerebral and cardiac trouble, which rendered him at once impotent and unconscious, and from which, to the skilled and observant physician, it was evident that not the faintest hope of recovery could be cherished. This forecast was verified, as indicated above, when the dissolution of the earthly tabernacle was effected.

The interment, which took place at St. Peter's Cemetery, Friday afternoon was largely attended, not only by the S. U. F. in full regalia, of which the

The late Mr. Henderson was born in Moncton, December 12th, 1848, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Henderson, who were pioneer residents of this city.

J. W. Henderson Found Dead in Bed

Well Known Monctonian and Former Railway Conductor

(Moncton Paper)

Many friends will regret to learn of the death of Mr. James W. Henderson, which occurred at an early hour this morning. The deceased had been on a fishing trip to Kouchibouguac yesterday together with Capt. H. W. Bernier, Chas. E. Henderson and Mr. John O'Neill, and although not enjoying the best of health for the past few weeks, he was particularly well yesterday, and in excellent spirits, he seemed to enjoy the day. He returned home about six o'clock last evening, and after supper and a walk about the city, he retired as usual. Not coming to breakfast at his usual time this morning, his friends thought he was sleeping a little later than usual, and therefore did not disturb him until about ten o'clock, when his sister, Mrs. Forbes, went to call him and found he had passed away during the early morning.

The deceased was a well known I. C. R. conductor and retired about seven years ago, since which time he has resided in the city, and since the death of his wife has been residing with his sister, Mrs. Temple Forbes, Main Street, east.

The late Mr. Henderson leaves one son, G. Fred, of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Frank E. Freeze, of Somerville, Mass. He was an employee of the I. C. R. for many years, and was well known throughout the city, and over the road, and leaves many friends to mourn his death. Besides the sister, Mrs. Forbes, above referred to, he has one brother, William, merchant of Moncton, also several nieces and nephews, and a large family connection.

The deceased was about seventy-one years of age; his wife predeceased him about ten years ago. The late Mr. Henderson was a member of the Central Methodist Church and had been connected with the above church for many years.

departed had been a member, but by the most prominent in town, as well as by the public generally, testifying as to the general respect and esteem by which the deceased was held by those amongst whom he has so long lived. The casket containing the remains, loaded with floral emblems and wreaths, was met at the entrance of the Sacred Edifice by the Rev. G. S. Chamberlain, the incumbent, who conducted the service, and the Rev. Canon A. G. Bayly, M. C. R. D. Rector of Bonaville, who assisted.

A widow, five children and an aged mother are left to deplore their inevitable loss, and to whom in a very unfeeling measure, the sympathy of the whole community is tendered.
