EXPENSES IN CRIMINAL CASES.

The costs saddled on the county in the Stevens case disclose a weakness in our law which should be remedied.

Warden Ogden in his communication of last week quoted the statute governing the costs of the trial and indictment in criminal cases. The statute is as follows:—

"Whenever an indictment shall be presented before any Grand Jury in this province for felony or misdemeanor or for the trial of any person for felony or misdemeanor shall be had, it shall and may be lawful for the court before which such indictment shall be presented, or such trial be had as the case may be, to order the prosecutor and with fees for the prosecution such as may be deemed sufficient to meet any reasonable expenses, and also to order the constable to be paid for his services in serving subpoenas and getting witnesses and wind for such prosecutions; and an order for the payment of such amount shall be forthwith drawn in favor of such prosecutor, witness, and constable, or other officers respectively upon the Clerk of the County, by the Clerk of the Court, and the same shall be paid out of any moneys belonging to such County in the Treasurer's hands."

The provisions of this statute are tyrannical. They do not become the spur of a free people. If any one constitutional principle is settled in England speaking countries it is that financial burdens should be imposed by law and not arbitrarily by the rate-payers to pay whether right or wrong.

It is time the legislature took hold of this matter of orders of our municipal councils and payments out of county funds and adopted some such legislation as they have in England. Or if it is felt that our municipalities are in competition with the municipalities in the province, by the amendment passed in 1887 to the public health act of 1887 power was given to the local board of health to make up any bills they saw fit and the County Council was bound to assess the amount upon the county.

Not satisfied with this arbitrary measure, Mr. Blair has undertaken to twist the rope that he has round the neck of the counties by passing the act of last winter which practically means himself to make out an order for the payment of the amount and the treasurer of the county is bound to pay it out of the county moneys. This legislation is bad legislation, it is tyrannical legislation.

The Liberal Rally.

Enthusiasm and Attendance Limited—Speeches Good.

Moncton did not by any means go wild over the liberal rally. Members of the decorating committee bustled about with bundles of bunting under their arms; an exhortation or request to the people to welcome Davies Fielding and attend the meeting in the breeze; an organ posted near the opera house laboriously ground out the mild and plaintive strains of Annie Rooney; but otherwise the town seemed quiet and unmoved, apparently unconcerned of the fact that the National Policy, the foundation of Moncton's prosperity was soon to be attacked and that the government which formulated that policy and inaugurated that prosperity was to be weighed on the balance by Messrs. Fielding, Blair and Davies and found wanting.

The elements, however, displayed no lack of enthusiasm. The prevailing features of the afternoon and evening were water and wind. The Liberal rally did not only against the force of public opinion but also against that of the elements. The rain which began early in the afternoon and continued with increasing violence till long after the meeting was over, gave visitors an opportunity of testing the sticking qualities of Moncton's far-famed mud and was also doubtless responsible to some extent for the depression which brooded over the liberal meeting.

Mr. Blair, the first speaker, referred incidentally to the Woodstock bridge which had been suggested by the Sun as a fitting subject for his eloquence. He said that at the present occasion was not a fitting one for this subject and referred the Sun to the matter of the Curran bridge. Passing on to more important matters than the Woodstock bridge he would make some criticisms of the speeches of Hon. Geo. E. Foster lately delivered in Charlottetown, St. John and other places in which the government was referred to as prudent and economical and as having curtailed public expenditure and debt.

reason. This argument met with cries of "wrong and right" from the audience. If excess of imports over exports impoverished the country, we should be $321,000,000 poorer since Canada became a Dominion. ("I rock on we are," and "By Jove that's a good one," from the audience). Such a statement was ludicrous. The balance of trade was always against England while in India the poorest country in the world it was the other way. The liberals wished to buy where they could get things to the best advantage. Ontario's industries were fostered by the disadvantages of the Maritime Provinces. Thanking the audience for their kind attention Mr. Blair took his seat amid applause.

Mr. Davies was introduced by a few words from the chairman. He was some time since in his speech, commenting on an alleged editorial that was supposed to have appeared in the press. He was under the impression that the Editor of the Transcript would do the courteous and proper thing and attempt to establish the fact that such editorial did appear or else withdraw his statements in toto, but he was disappointed. We ask him to perform what no gentleman, finding himself mistaken would hesitate to do.

One of our New Brunswick papers a short time ago gave an account of a lynching affair under the heading Lynched—Rightly Served. The victim was suspected of having started the fire which destroyed the St. Martin's. It is thirty-five years ago that such an incident occurred in a place in any province under British rule. Such hasty and ill advised actions as lynchings will appeal to the minds of mobs too strongly even without the sanction of the Press. The dark spot on the fame of that great republic the United States is the insecurity of the lives of her citizens especially the negro population on account of this same Lynch law. The fact that our fellow-citizens in Canada have been wrongfully condemned and executed on the slightest circumstantial evidence by an infuriated mob and without an opportunity of proving their innocence is sufficient to condemn the horrible practice. Nothing was so favorable to Canada in a comparison with her Southern neighbor is the fact that no such system obtains here.

Mr. Nelson Goodwin and family returned from Boston last Friday. He says that times are very dull in the city now. Mrs. Edward Chappel formerly of this place and who has some time been residing in Sackville, is now visiting her good friends here. The marriage of Mr. W. J. Moran, of the firm of Messrs. Moran and Bent, of this town, to Miss Lewis of Ontario, took place on the 21st with Mr. Thomas for Moncton her home.

great is the bearing of the combined people at large. If you want tariff reform you will have to come to the Liberal party for it. The Liberal party is the only party that will break down the barriers and let the storm of commerce flow over and then never at all these Maritime Provinces will become a great and prosperous country.

After Mr. Fielding had taken his seat the chairman requested the meeting to wait and hear a few words from Mr. W. T. Pipes of Amherst. Mr. Pipes excused himself however as his hour was late and the meeting adjourned with three cheers each for the Queen, Laurier, and the speakers of the evening.

The gold mine at Gouldville, Monmouth, in presenting many encouraging features. The company have driven their level 75 feet, cutting the seams. They have crossed several leads, some of them between one and two feet, carrying galena copper and gold. Assays are being made. One that has been completed shows gold in paying quantities.
