Italian Freedom.

Wonderful is the progress of events in the Italian Peninsula. Whatever may be the designs of sovereigns and diplomats, an era of freedom appears to be opening up a bright future for Italy.

Dipsomania, or Inane Drunkenness.

On our first page will be found the substance of a paper read by Dr. Peddie, an eminent physician, at the recent meeting of the Social Science Congress in Glasgow.

The Rev. G. Chiniqny's Mission to the French Canadians.

A public meeting convened in the large hall of the Religious Institute Rooms yesterday, to hear a statement from the Rev. G. Chiniqny about his projected mission to his French Canadian brethren.

which were never large enough to contain the number coming to hear the words from his lips, though they have been a Protestant, and enthusiastically, and with a full heart.

THE BIBLE IN NAPLES.—The following extract from a letter in the Standard, dated "Naples, 2nd October," is worthy of notice.

Mr. Chiniqny has been the subject of a report of having visited the Roman Catholic clergy, by humbly desiring a public controversy with them.

A CARD TO THE SUFFERING.—The Rev. Wm. Cogrove, while laboring a missionary in the West Indies, was afflicted with a grievous ailment.

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.—The quality of this medicine has placed it upon an honorable position in the medical profession, and it is a valuable remedy.

Mr. Chiniqny pronounced the benediction and the meeting dispersed.

Mr. Editor:—Probably from my early connection with the operations of our Foreign Mission, my habits intimacy with Mr. Geddie, and my present relation to his children, I have had many inquiries.

BURNETT'S KALLISTON.—This is one of the best remedies for skin eruptions, and is a most valuable medicine.

PURIFY THE BLOOD.—With corrupt, diseased or vitiated blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active form.
