Aug. 4.-A large number of friends attended the funeral of the late Mr. Mc-Fawn, Wed. morning. Mr. McFawn was for many years deacon of the F. B. Church here and will be much missed by the community. He was in his eightythird year and leaves two sons and four daughters. The funeral was held from the F. B. Church and among those in the procession were members of the Orange Lodge. Rev. O. N. Mott preached an appropriate sermon from the words

"For me to live is Christ, to die is gain." Mrs. Hennesey of Boston is spending the summer at Henry Knorrs. Miss Amelia Whaler of Boston is the guest of Miss Ada Shanks. The blueberries are quite plentiful in this section and some of the people are doing a rushing business.

Miss Nellie Shannon is spending a few weeks at F. Byers's. Miss Effie Fowler, of Cambridge Mass is spending the summer at her home. Rev. W. H. Perry will occupy the pulpit here on Sunday.

Robbed the Grave

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oli.er of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. Leavisually the first bottle made a decided improvement. improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim."
