e Amion Advocate

VOL. LIII.

NEWCASTLE, NEW BRUNSWICK, TUESDAY, JANUARY 6, 1920

Remnant Sale

A Quantity of Remnants and Short Ends of all kinds are being placed on Sale this week at special CLEARING PRICES

A. H. MACKAY

Watch Our Windows For Special Offers

H. WILLISTON & CO.

J&W&L&RS

NEWCASTLE, N. B

HAPPY HOUR, THURS'Y, JAN. 8th

YES!

Eric Temple took the Big Chance to win the name and fame that destiny decreed.

But there were invisible difficulties that only brave outh and devoted love could overcome. How a simple melody changed the World and won happiness for two is damatically unfolded in this newest Tom Moore photoplay.

Samuel Goldwyn Presents

TOM MOORE

"Heartsease"

By Charles E. Klein Directed by Harry Beaumont

Coming Thursday, January 15th

Annual Sunday School Christmas Treat

annual Sunday school Christ-Tree and Treat, of St. James' yterian Church, was held in the and resulted as follows: Kirk Hall, on Friday evening from 7.30 p m. to 9.30 p m. Upwards of two hundred pupils including the pupls of the Bule Sunday School were present, as well as a large number of relatives and friends of the children each and every pupil was presented with a present and a bag of candy and from the tree, and the following mme was carried out. Hymn-Who is he in Yonder

Reditation—"Hazel and argaret Stables

Recitation-"The Spider's Christ -by Elizabeth Stothart Song-"Won't you buy my ers" by 'Marion Stothart.

8. Recitation — "Christmas in Swed-by Ethelwynne Ferguson. 6. Recitation—"Noah's Ark"
Wills Taylor.

7. Hymn-No. 165

Readings Selected by Miss othy Nicholson.

mach number was well rendered d heartily encored by the audience. Rev. L. H. MacLean, pastor of St. ames' Church, presided and with the and stance of Mr. Blanchard McCur-dy distributed the gifts from the tree Mesdames L. H. MacLean and C. C.

subbard were in charge of the enestalament and treat, and are deserring of much praise in their untiring forts to make the annual treat success which it proved to be. children were deligated with their nts and the entertainment prorided for them, and returned to their s in a joyful and happy mood.

Report Of Doaktown School

Following is the standing of the upils making highest marks in both departments of the Doaktown Superior and December.

Grade IX.-Annie McNaughton. Grade VIII.-Grace Murray 1; Helen Holmes 2: Winston Amos 3 Grade VII.-Annie Olilvie 1: Eldon

Betts 2; Wallace Betts 3. Grade VI-Jessie Murray 1; Charotte Carr 2: Paul Swim 3. Grade V.-Carrie Amos 1; Norris

Chalmers 2; Daisy Morehouse 3. Grade IV -Perley Holmes and Leon Mitchell 1: Hilda Miner 2: Dwight

Grade III.-Gerald Mitchell 1; Freda ohnsten 2; Byron Amos 3.

Grade IL-Russell Dixon 1; Kathrine Bamford 2; Mildred Robinson 3 Grade I.-Muriel Patstone 1; Isabella Holmes and Verna Brown 2;

The half yearly public examinations ora, etc after which both departments ed themselves well pleased with the progress of the scholars.

TOM MOORE ACTS REALIS

mulate hunger, says Tom Moore, portations for personal use of liquor The widow and family have the the Goldwyn star, but it is an entiroly different matter to portray that degree of poverty which suggests the lack of food rather than actual starvation. In fact, he goes on to say, the art of acting as it is found in its st estate, is dependent altogether box the power of suggestion. And proved a snare to most players. For

I.O.F. Officers Elected Sudden Death of

The annual election of officers of Court Blackville No. 1965, Independent Order of Foresters, was held at the Hall on Saturday Eve. Dec. 27th,

- C. R. -W. A. K Underhill
- P. C. R.-John Corney
- C. P.-Dr John Beaton V. C. R.-Lawrence Underhill
- F. S.-Wilbert Connors R. S-Burtis O. Lounder
- Orator -Roy Dickison S. W. -W. Arnold McLaggan
- J. W.-Thomas A. Vickers S. B. -James Smith
- J. B.-Fred Underhill Ct. Deputy-Robt. R. McLaggan

Organist-Figh M. Dickisch These officers will be installed at the next regular meeting on Jan. 9th at which a full attendance is request ed. The installation ceremonies will be in charge of the Deputy Supreme Chief Rangor Joseph H. O'Beirne.

This court has added over one hundred members, during the past two months, and expects to do still better during 1920

Local Baptists Organize

An organisation meeting of the local Baptists on behalf of the Inter church Forward Movement was held in the Newcastle Baptist Church on Monday afternoon Dec. 29th 1919 Rev. E. A. Kinley presiding.

Rev S S Poole of St John addres sed the meeting, and all present joined in the resulting discussion.

Organization was effected for the group of churches including Newcas tle, Lower Derby, Whitneyville and the Little South West Miramichi, the following committee being chosen: Chairman-Chester C. Hayward, Newcastle: Secretary-Treasurer- Mrs. T. A. .ibner, Newcastle.

Additional members-A. McN Astle Mrs. John McCormack, Newcastle; C. Spurgeon Amos, Lower Derby; Rev G. Stanley Weaver, Miss Agatha For sythe, Whitneyville; Edward Tozer, Lyttleton; and Wallace Johnston Halcomb.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Poole, ad ressed an open meeting of the local B. Y. P. U

War Time Prohibition

(Canadian Press)

Ottawa Dec. 21-With the first of January Canada practically comes to peace basis. War time restrictions imposed by order-in-qouncil under the War Measurers Act will with sion of parliament.

pon the power of suggestion. And proved a snare to most players. For negestion comes from a mental protage rather than from the actor's shysical aspect.

This is demonstrated in Tom miserable livelihood by the occasiondoores "Heartsease," newest of his boldwayn Pictures, which is at the Happy Hour theatre Thursday and sale of a ballad. Dramis, difficult ties, triumphs both artistic and of the shift ties, triumphs to the triumph of the world's real wealth.

The power of suggestion. And proved a snare to most players. For now to slig money constructing locom tives freight trucks, sgricultural machinery and moving pierure apparatus; but they are adding vastly more to the world's real wealth.

The proved a snare to most players. For now to slig money constructing locom tives, treather triumps out was missing money constructing locom tives, treight trucks, sgricultural moving pierure apparatus; but they are adding vastly more to the world's real wealth.

Mrs. Sutherland

A profound feeling of sadness was cast over the community Saturday morning when it was learned that Mrs. R. A. Sutherland, wife of the manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Chatham, had passed away at an early hour in the Hotel Dieu Hospital after a few days illness

Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland have been residents of Chatham for little over a year, but in that time they made a wide circle of friends from whom the deepest sympathy will be extended to the bereaved husband and family. The deceased is surviv ed by her husband and two children Gordon and Billy, and also by her parents Mr. and Mrs. William Van blarcom of Digby N. S., who were also present at her bedside when death ensued. Mrs. Sutherland was but thirty years of ago.

The remains were taken from Chatham to St. John yesterday and thence by the Digby boat today to her

OBITUARY

Newcastle Dec. 28-The death of Mrs. Ernest Robinson occurred of bronchial pneumonia at the Miram ichi Hospital. She was nineteer years of age, and was formerly Miss Catherine A. Hartt, daughter of Albert and the late Mrs. Hartt, of Millerton. She leaves her husband, a son a few months old, her father, one brother, Gordon, in the United States and one sister, Mrs. John Hackett, of Campbellton.

MRS. BARBARA CRAIG. Newcastle, Jan. 3-The funeral of Mrs. Barbara Craig, widow of John Craig, who died at her home in Douglastown at midnight, on December 30. was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock to St. Samuel's church, where services were conducted by Rev. Jos eph G. Cormier. Interment was made in the family lot in St. Mary's cemetery, Newcastle. The late Mrs. Craig was a native of Dougla town, and was seventy-seven years of age. She had been in failing health for several years. She leaves three sons-Michael and John, at home and James, of Removed First of Year Douglastown; and two daughters-Mrs. Michael Breen of Douglastown and Miss Alice, at home. She leaves also, eleven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

WILLIAM JOHNSTON

Mr. Wm. Johnson a well known and respected citizen of Halcomb, died some exceptions, be removed and last Tuesday at his home, in his sev these exceptions the order-in-council enty fifth year. Deceased was born terminate at the end of the next ses- on the Little South-West Miramichi and lived there all his life. He was The war time restrictions which one of our most prosperous lumber ras held on the afternoon of Dec. 18th will cease to be operative on New operators, and for many years carried The children were examined in read. Year's Day include those on race on large lumber operations for the ing, spelling, arithmetic, grammar, track betting and on importation firm of D. & J. Ritchie & Co. He geography, history, geometry algemanufacture and inter-provincial was the only son of a family of five, trade in alcoholic liquors. The or the other members of his family being ombined to hold a short programme ders-incouncil remaining in force Mrs. Lige Tozer, Mrs. H. Matchest of recitations, dialogues and readings include, pulp and paper control, coal Mrs. R. Holmes and Mrs. Peter Ruswhich were effectively rendered by and sugar control, silver coinage; sell. Deceased, first married Miss the children. About twenty visitors trading with the enemy, operations; Eliza Sutherland to whom no child-were present, several of whom exserves; ocnsorship. Abrogation of married Miss Mary Hamilton who the federal orders-in-council regu- with six children survive him. For sting liquors does not affect the rest the past six or seven years, deceased trictions of the sale imposed on the had been in poor health, and suffered TICALLY AS COMPOSER of the present year there will appar all was held from his late residence to eatly be no restrictions on the im-

The Krupps, who made great fortunes turning out war munitions, are