

Household Hints.

To beat the white of eggs quickly add a pinch of salt.

A ladder hair brush is the best for dusting fine china.

Vinegar in the rinsing water for pink or green caresses will brighten them; soda answers the same end for both purple and blue.

Old cotton flannel is the best cloth for wiping gilt or bronze picture frames. A small quantity of salt or tartar dissolved in water is good solution for cleaning frames.

One may utilize old matting which is no longer fresh enough to look well by putting it under carpets. It can be cleaned perfectly by washing it on both sides with hot salt and water; hang it on a line outdoors to dry.

Grate the yellow rind of one lemon; add the juice, one tablespoonful of water, one half cup of sugar, one egg, and a lump of butter the size of a walnut. Let it boil two minutes.

Russ—Three cups new milk, one cup of sugar, one half cup of yeast. Make a stiff batter at night, and let it rise until morning, then add one-half cup of currants, and flour sufficient to roll out. A little cinnamon may be added, if liked. Cut out like biscuit, and let rise very light before baking.

FOR THE GIRLS.

Gratulations Advice Tendered Them by a Male Adviser.

Plain and fancy leather belts promise to be quite as popular for wear with light summer dresses this season at least. They will be worn somewhat narrower than the immense broad bands of leather worn last summer, which made a girls form look all out of proportion, and the distance from her neck to her waist about six inches. Buckles of leather will be looked upon with scorn by the advanced young lady, who will recognize nothing in belts that has not a silver buckle. Silver is the metal, and as her glove buttoner, perfume case, chatelaine purse, and the dozen and one articles which she suspends from her belt are of silver, the buckle on the same must harmonize as a matter of finished taste.

Very broad ribbon sashes will be worn extensively with dresses of every material. To be extensively stylish the ribbon must be extraordinarily wide, an entire width of silk being looked upon as only "a pretty fair width." "Moire" ribbon is the most fashionable; the sash is made separately from the belt, the latter being made of a narrower width of ribbon, to go around the waist, and the large sash is pinned to it at the back. A large quantity of pins is required to do the fastening, to insure its security, or the embarrassing predicament of losing one's sash at the most inopportune time will be the result. Large pins with fanciful heads, designed especially for fastening a sash securely to the belt, are seen, but being somewhat larger than an ordinary every-day pin, they are death to the ribbon.

A Fair Offer.

For many years the proprietors of Hazard's Yellow Oil have offered to refund the money to all purchasers of that medicine where it failed to give relief in case of pain or painful affections, such as rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, deafness, burns, bruises, sprains, stiff joints and cords, and internal or external inflammation.

A Highland Echo.

In the course of last summer some strangers of distinction were induced to visit a wild and unfrequented retreat in a distant part of the Highlands, chiefly from the report they heard of an echo, remarkable for the clear and distinct nature of its reverberation. On reaching the spot from whence the trial of its powers is usually made their guide put his hand to the side of his mouth and bawled out with the lungs of a Stentor a salutation in Gaelic, which was repeated with a precision that seemed beyond the expectations of the party.

One of the gentlemen, by way of trying the strength of his voice, put his hand to the side of his mouth in the same manner as his guide, and called out:—

"How far are we from home?" These words, much to the surprise of their guide, were also repeated, when poor Donald with a simplicity which brought a smile over the faces of all present, exclaimed:—

"You may think it strange, gentlemen, but this is the first time I ever heard our echo speak English."

"I have no doubt," said the gentlemen, but it can repeat other languages if you put it to the test," and instantly bawled out some brief questions in French, Spanish and Italian.

"Well, I must say that's very queer: my own father and my own self have known that echo for more than seventy years, and we never knew it use no language but Gaelic before."

"Your echo is more learned, then, than you supposed?" said the gentleman, laughing, though at a loss whether to impute Donald's remarks to archness or simplicity.

"You may say that, but we can tell you, sir," said the poor fellow, with an expression of earnestness that was highly amusing to those present, "as the echo has never been out of the country; where can she have got all her education?"

CAMPBELL'S TONIC ELIXIR

This agreeable yet potent preparation is especially adapted for the relief and cure of that class of disorders attendant upon a low or reduced state of the system, and usually accompanied by Pallor, Weakness and Palpitation of the Heart. Prompt results will follow its use in cases of Sudden Exhaustion arising from Loss of Blood, Acute or Chronic Diseases, and in the weakness that invariably accompanies the recovery from Wasting Fevers. No remedy will give more speedy relief in Dyspepsia or Indigestion, its action on the stomach being that of a gentle and harmless tonic, exciting the organs of digestion to action, and thus affording immediate and permanent relief. The curative properties of the different aromatics which the Elixir contains render it useful in Flatulent Dyspepsia. It is a valuable remedy for Atonic Dyspepsia, which is apt to occur in persons of a gouty character.

For Impoverished Blood, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, and in all cases where an effective and certain stimulant is required, the Elixir will be found invaluable.

In Fevers of a Malarial Type, and the various evil results following exposure to the cold or wet weather, it will prove a valuable restorative, as the combination of Cinchona Calaya and Serravallo's are universally recognized as specifics for the above-named disorders.

Sold by all Dealers in Family Medicines. Price, $1 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.
