At the eleventh hour a proposition came from Mr H. W. C. Meyer, of Wingham, in effect that he would be willing to take the charter off the hands of the provisional directors, but as he would give no further indication of his intentions in the matter, the charter was not surrendered. Arrangements have since been made to apply for a renewal of the charter, and already the solicitors have taken action on it. When Mr Meyer found he could make no head way in obtaining the Goderich charter, under existing cincumstances he took hold of a scheme from Wingham with Port Albert as the objective point on the Lake Shore, and a meeting was held at Dungannon, at which an effort was made to received about 700 of a majority.
