The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

It was unnatural, unphilosophical, unpractical, and anti-Christian—in short, all the epithets in the dictionary that begin with "un" and "anti" were hurled at it.

So Mary Lyons, the founder of Mt. Holyoke, one of the first two women's colleges in this country describes the opposition to higher education for women, which she had to meet.

Her description forcibly reminds me of some of the thrades one hears against woman suffrage.

And to-day—70 years later—the higher education of women is a commonplace, accepted and approved by the most conservative.

In 1870 occurred the first strike in economic history. The strikers were bookbinders—they were working fourteen hours a day and struck for thirteen. Their action was stigmatized as ridiculous and unheard of and sure to come to no good.

And to-day the ten-hour day is a commonplace, and the eight-hour day has even been obtained in some professions.

Fifty years ago in the meetings of the National Educational Association women were graciously allowed to write papers, but a man must read them, as it would not be proper for a woman to appear upon the platform.

Last year a woman—Ella Flagg Young—was elected president of this whole association.

Eighteen or twenty years ago, when electric lights were first run through the town in which I then lived, one of the foremost men of the community, a very fine doctor, prophesied in all seriousness that trolley cars would never become common because horses would never be able to get used to them.

To-day—well if either is disappearing from the landscape it certainly is not the trolley car. And—as for equine ability to get along with electric lights, why it is only in the remotest country districts that horses have any objection even to the electric trolley. Of automobiles, to say nothing of comparatively staid trolley cars.

A few days ago I heard an anti-suffragist announce with great aplomb that equal suffrage would never be established because, forsooth, it never had been.

No, this is not simply an argument for women's suffrage.

It is not meant for an argument at all, merely a suggestion. A "thought stimulant," a reminder for that kind of person who is in the habit of thinking that woman suffrage or any other great change or reform will not come to pass merely because "it never has been."

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a faint finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make the little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the paper covered book, or 50 stamps for the cloth bound. Address: World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Fads and Fashions.

Cabochons in wooden, crystal and china beads worked on straw are smart and often give just the required note of color.

Collars of the Trouville type are cut in square outline in front and are embellished with hand embroidery in white or colors.

Coats are short but there is no definite length. One can have a bolero, an Eton, a jacket to the hips or one six inches below.

From the hat to the boots, including all types of dresses and their accessories, the fact that stripes are paramount is indisputable.

Beard work is now occurring in attractive striped patterns, and embroidery shows alternating patches of color arranged to give stripes.

Very new are the flat rosette effects shaped like flower petals overlapping each other. In this style are shown suede and kid rosettes.

The unparalleled variety in silks is bewildering, so many are the weaves, old friends and new, temptingly displayed on shop counters.

It is said that this is to be a great lace season, not only trimming, but the whole frocks and coats of lace promising to have a great vogue.

Chuny lace is smart on volles, either cotton or wool the fabric matching the tint of the lace and all worn over a colored silk or satin slip.

The bow at the back has come to us again in renewed beauty and gratifying variety. Of silk, ribbon, chiffon, velvet or white linen the bow is formed.

Striped effects are now noticeable in straw. Indeed, the stripes are perhaps the most persistent of the features that characterize our fashions this season.

Dots, stripes, checks are rampant, and as a rule in contrasting color to the material. These decorations are effectively combined with borders of plain color.

The shapes favored for spring and summer motoring include the low-riding toques and turbans, tricornes, pokos, caps, helmets, bonnets and various hood effects.

The most desirable feather ornaments are in stiff brush or military aigrettes, cockade and round rosettes showing several colors harmoniously blended.

Frocks for the street are shown with bright colors forming the bottom of the skirt. The same color note is repeated in the collar and cuffs on the little jacket.

Thin boys wear soft white straw hats with supple brim rolled up in front and the moderate Mexican crown, finished with a scarf and bow of soft taffeta ribbon.

Lowest in a Century.

Enormous Decrease of Birthrate in France.

Paris, May 18.—The Journal Officiel published an article by Dr. Jacques Bertillon, chief statistician of Paris, calling attention of the disastrous results of the birth and death statistics in France for 1910. The complete figures are as follows: Marriages—309,289. Divorces—13,049. Births—774,358. Deaths—703,777.

The births are the lowest for a century. In 1859 the births numbered 1,018,000. They dwindled to 384,000 in 1862, and numbered 899,000 in 1887. The number of deaths in 1910 was exceptionally low, yet the excess of births over deaths was only 70,581 compared with 884,061 in Germany. Dr. Bertillon concludes by declaring that there is no reason physiologically or economically which prevents France from increasing as other nations, and no motive for her to resign herself shamefully to suicide.

Funeral of Bro. Byrne.

The funeral of the late Rev. Bro. J. C. Byrne took place at 10 a.m. to-day. Requiem High Mass was chanted in the R. C. Cathedral at 10 a.m., the celebrant being Rt. Rev. Monsignor Roche, assisted by Revs. Fr. Sheehan and O'Callaghan as deacon and sub-deacon respectively, with Rev. Dr. Greene as Master of Ceremonies. His Grace Archbishop Howley occupied the Throne, attended by Rev. Chancellor St. John and Rev. J. Kelly. There were several other clergymen assisting in the sanctuary. The funeral procession was a very large one and was attended by all the Christian Brothers of St. Bonaventure's College, Holy Cross, Mount Cashel and St. Patrick's Hall, with hundreds of the pupils from the respective schools. Mr. J. T. Martin acted as undertaker and the remains were enclosed in a handsome casket. Rev. Dr. O'Callaghan pronounced the final absolution at the graveside, in the new park in the burial ground for deceased members of the community in the grounds of Mount St. Francis.

Doctor's Close Call.

Doctor Plewes, of Hant's Harbor, had a narrow escape from being drowned at the R. N. C. pier at Charlottetown last Monday night. He had his two year old boy in his arms when he fell over the wharf. He told the child to hold on to his neck. The doctor was a long time in the water before the crew of the Ethie heard his cries. They came to his rescue and pulled him out. He was almost exhausted and would not be able to keep up half a minute longer. Dr. Plewes was accompanied by his wife and family a part of the way on their journey to Canada. The accident was attributable to there being no light on the wharf. The doctor was chilled to the bone when rescued. The child was all right when taken out. Dr. Plewes returned to Hant's Harbor next day.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia

In all its forms can be cured.

It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything, I have no heart to exert myself and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly with the slightest exertion. I feel just as tired when rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sense of suffocation and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden. Now, it seems to shame and a pity for persons to be suffering like that when it is in their power to get cured by taking a Bottle of Dr. Stafford's Prescription A. A sure cure for persons afflicted with stomach troubles. It can be obtained at

AGONY ON OPERATING TABLE

Did Not Remove Stone in Bladder
GIN PILLS Passed It.

"During August last, I went to Montreal to consult a specialist as I had been suffering terribly with Stone in The Bladder. He decided on an operation and was assisted by another doctor. They said the calculus was larger than a bean and too hard to crush and they could not take it out.

I returned home suffering greatly and did not know what to do but was recommended by a friend to try GIN PILLS. I bought a box and found relief from the pain at once. I took a second and a third box of GIN PILLS, after which I went back to the specialist. He told me the calculus was reduced in size, still he could not relieve me of it although he tried for two and a half hours.

I returned home again and continued to take GIN PILLS as they reduced the pain very much, but I did not expect that they would relieve me of the stone but to my great joy, I passed the stone on October 3rd, and am now a well man and very happy.

I am sending the stone in to you so that you can see for yourself what a great work GIN PILLS did for me. GIN PILLS are the best medicine in the world and because they did so much for me, I will recommend them all the rest of my life."

What glorious news to those who are almost going insane from the pain of Stone in The Bladder! Here is ease and comfort! Here is relief! Here is a certain means of getting rid of the stone without being cut to pieces by the knives of a surgeon. GIN PILLS dissolve Stone or Gravel in Kidneys or Bladder because GIN PILLS are the greatest solvent for uric acid the world has ever known.

If your trouble is like Mr. Lessard's, follow his example and take GIN PILLS. Money refunded if they fail to give relief, 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. Sample box free if you write us, mentioning this paper.
