Delicious Bread or Your Money Refunded

Every Barrel Cream of the West Flour Guaranteed for Bread

Yes, madam, I am the Cream of the West miller.
I know what Cream of the West is. It's a strong flour. It has extra bread-making qualities, and I'll guarantee great, big, bulging loaves of the lightest, whitest, most wholesome bread.

Cream of the West Flour

the hard wheat flour that is guaranteed for bread Tell your grocer you want to try Cream of the West. Buy a barrel subject to the guarantee. Tell him we expect him to refund your money if the flour fails to do as we claim. He won't lose a cent. We will reimburse him in full. Show him this paper with the guarantee. It is his authority to pay you back if you ask him.

Guarantee

WE hereby affirm and declare that Cream of the West Flour is a superior bread flour, and as such is subject to our absolute guarantee of money back if not satisfactory after a fair trial. Any dealer is hereby authorized to return price paid by customer on return of unused portion of barrel if flour is not as represented.

N. H. At Home.

The annual "At Home" under the auspices of the N.H. Highlanders took place in the British Hall, last night and proved a "uniform" success.
It was the largest patronized social event that was ever held there. The brilliant illuminations and decorations of the ball room done by members of the Brigade, as previously referred to, had an effective impression on all present and an important bearing on the enjoyment of the "At Home." After supper was partaken of, which was provided by the lady friends of the Brigade, dancing was indulged in and continued until 2 this a.m. The music was excellently furnished by the C. L. B. Band.

Will Clean City.

At the meeting of the City Council held yesterday afternoon it was decided to have the annual clean up for the city early next month. Last year the benefit from such a proceeding was apparent to all our people, and as most of our streets are at present in a bad state, the work this year should be done thoroughly and the city must greatly benefit by it.

THE CLYDE ARRIVES.—The s.s.
Clyde, Capt. Blandford, arrived at Port aux Basques at 1.30 p.m. yesterday. The ship met heavy ice near St. Pierre and had to run west of Miquelon to Cape La Hune to get clear of it. She harbored at Burgeo Thursday night out of a heavy snow storm.

PERSISTENT COUGH.

Wherever soothing syrups fail to cure that persistent cough which exhaust you,

MATHIEU'S SYRUP

of Tar and Cod Liver Oil and other medicinal extracts will rapidly and definitely rid you from it.

The merits of Mathieu's Syrup are highly recognized and endorsed.

Dear Sirs,—Yours of the 22nd inst. received re Mathieu's Syrup. I have been using the article in my home for the last seven or eight years, and know of nothing better to use when one is subject to cough or cold. In fact, we would not be without it for twice its value. I have very much pleasure in recommending this article, and in selling it over the island I have the same report from our customers.

Bonds for Engineer Byrne

AND CROWN WITNESSES.

In consequence of the Grand Jury's presentation of "No Bill" in the case of Joseph Byrne, engineer, who had the "bill" of indictment preferred against him for manslaughter, the Crown has taken bonds and admitted the accused to bail. Security has also been taken from the Crown witnesses to appear before the Supreme Court in October next when the indictment will be considered by another Grand Jury.

LANDED CREW.—The Sagona in coming here landed a considerable part of her crew at Westville and other places. As the catch was small there was no object in bringing the whole ship's company here.

The Sagona Here

She Hails for Two Thousand Six Hundred.

The S. S. Sagona, Capt. S. R. Winsor, arrived here at 7 p.m. yesterday from the icefields with about 2,600 seals, 600 of which are old. The ship left here the day after the steel fleet sailed, being late in arriving here from the other side. On leaving here the ship proceeded north at full speed and early on the 16th in strain of Cape Bonavista after she entered the ice the first few seals were taken, they being prime whitecoats, and for about 5 hours until nightfall the ship streamed through numerous harps but the captain believing he had not struck the main patch sailed away north and some of the crew say that if the ship had remained in the patch she struck on the 16th and sailed through she would have loaded quickly and been the first vessel in port. She went away to the Funks and picked up her small catch in company with the Florzel, Algerine, Eagle and other ships.
The ship left the ice Thursday morning about 80 miles E. N. E. of the Offet Wadhams. Thousands of old seals were seen last week but the weather was stormy and a big swell ran through the ice loosening it up so that nothing could be done with them. The 600 old seals secured were shot. Two steamers were sighted the past week. The ship lost a lot of pens of seals containing at least 2,000 or 3,000. She proved herself a splendid ice breaker and was not jammed over 5 minutes during the spring.

Splendid Passage

The tern schr. Mildred, Capt. Whit-shire, arrived in Port yesterday afternoon from Cadiz, the passage occupying 21 days. The first 12 days at sea the captain said he never experienced the weather more summer like.
After reaching the Grand Banks the vessel struck the ice and came along the edge of it for 180 miles, making good progress all the time. She brought a cargo of salt for Job Bros.
& Co. The Mildred did not sight any of the vessels now overdue.

Health of City.

Fourteen cases of scarlet fever were reported during the week; eleven houses disinfected and released. There are now in hospital 34 cases of scarlet, 2 of diphtheria and 1 of smallpox; under treatment at home, 12 of scarlet and one of diphtheria.

TUGS TO HER AID.—Owing to the urgency in the harbour yesterday afternoon the S. S. Adventure, which was moving over from the Southside to berth at She's wharf, fearing mishap, had to get the tugs John Green and Daisy to assist her to the pier.

A Powerful Demonstration.

Special to Evening Telegram.

NICE, April 12.
Franco-British festivals signifying, according to the French press, another powerful demonstration of the vitality of the friendship between the two countries, began to-day, when an imposing monument was dedicated to Queen Victoria. The British and French fleets were anchored in the bay, while 10,000 British and French marines and soldiers marched through the streets of the city. They were reviewed by the French Premier, Raymond Poincare, Sir Francis Bertie, the Ambassador to France, Theophile Delcasse, French Minister of Marine, and Alexander Miller, French Minister of War. The King of Sweden and a large number of princes and princesses were present. To-morrow a statue of the late King Edward is to be unveiled at Cannes.

Imperial Contributions.

Special to Evening Telegram.

LONDON, April 12.
It is calculated that for the first few years the Imperial contributions to the Irish Exchequer will amount to between $5,000,000 and $10,000,000, which should gradually diminish.

All You Need is a Cascaret To-Night

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undig-ested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head and cheerfulness for months.
Children love to take Cascarets because they taste good—never gripe or sicken.

The Emperor Nero.

BY H. L. RANN.

The emperor
Nero was an illustrous character who waxed and waned about the time that the hearse was being backed up for the remains of the Roman empire.
Nero did most of his waxing at the expense of Rome, whom he introduced to the evergreen shore in large and melancholy rēlays. He was also the inventor of several new styles of sudden death. It got so around Rome that a man could hardly go down town to try to pick up six bars of soap for a quarter without being pounced upon by one of Nero's emissaries in a green tunic and murderous smile and draped tastefully over an iron fence erected for that purpose.

On this account nearly everybody in Rome ordered their groceries by telephone. Nero was a very disagreeable man to live with; as he had the unpleasant habit of poisoning his relatives without saying anything to them about it. By this means he killed a great many people who resented his action and showed by their manner that they were completely surprised.

Nero had a large reservoir of native wit and played a number of side-splitting jokes on the common people. Being in a particularly jocular and playful mood one evening, he went out and started a successful bonfire in the Coliseum by pouring coal oil over the janitor, after which he returned home, denuded a neat hard cider house and perpetrated some popular music on the fiddle. History relates that Nero was about as poor a fiddler as ever came out of Rome, but nobody ever mentioned it to him and got out of the palace without the aid of the undertaker. After a while, the Roman people got tired of being killed before they had time to attend to any of the funeral arrangements, and sent word to Nero that they were going to hire an emperor who would stay on the water wagon long enough to sign the minutes of the preceding meeting.

Thereupon Nero retired to a clump of box elders and, taking careful aim at his left ventricle, stabbed himself with so much accuracy that everybody was highly pleased. This was one of the brightest things Nero ever did, and as a result his funeral made a tremendous popular hit.

Big Gathering.

At Gower Street Church to-morrow.
Sunday afternoon, about 1,800 scholars and workers of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches will gather together to join in praise and prayer and to listen to addresses to be delivered by Mrs. F.
R. Matthews and the Rev. J. S. Sath-erland. Mr. E. V. Wylie will conduct the praise and prayer service, and Mr.
H. E. Cowan will act as Chairman.
The church has been divided into sections so that each Sunday School will be assigned to a particular section of its own, ushers being placed in the vestibule to direct the scholars to their respective places.

WITH THE ADVENTISTS.—A Gospel Temperance Service will be held at the Adventist Church, Cookstown Road, to-morrow night. A programme of recitations and songs appropriate to the cause of temperance has been prepared. Elder C. H.
Keele and Mr. R. A. Holey will give addresses. A profitable time is assured to all who attend. Seats free.
