CAPTURE OF BARSKILL

LONDON, Nov. 17.
The capture by the British of the town of Barskill, on the eastern end of the Macedonian front, is announced officially. Barskill is one and a half miles S.E. of Barakli Juma, which the British captured recently in renewing the offensive along the Struma front.
This part of the Macedonian campaign is being fought in north-eastern Greece over ground which the Bulgarians occupied several months ago, taking over Greek forts and establishing themselves well to the east of the Allies' right flank. After several attempts the British forced a passage of the Struma and have now occupied a number of towns, pushing eastward about four miles beyond the river at some points.

ENEMY WIN BACK GROUND.

LONDON, Nov. 17.
During the night there was heavy hostile shelling against Beaumont and Beaumont Hamel. Yesterday afternoon a strong enemy counter attack forced us to relinquish part of the ground east of Butte de Warlincourt won on Tuesday.

WILL STOP GERMAN SUPPLIES.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.
According to a Danish despatch the British Consul at Aarhus, Denmark, recently notified the municipality that unless it cancelled the leases of the canning factories who were exporting products to Germany, British supplies of coal for the city would be stopped.
The Danish Foreign Minister has been asked for a report on the case.

WIRELESS PRESS REPORT.

LONDON, Nov. 17.
The Wireless Press to-day gave out the following under date, Berne.—Before the main committee of the Reichstag on November 9th, Chancellor von Bethman Holweg stated that Germany's promise to create a new kingdom in Poland was only conditional, being dependent on the success of the plan to raise a Polish army which Stiff, Enlarged Joints Limber Up! Every Trace of Rheumatism Goes

Even Chronic Bedridden Cases are Quickly Cured.

Rub On Magic "Nerviline."

Nothing on earth can beat good old "Nerviline" when it comes to curing rheumatism.
The blessed relief you get from Nerviline comes mighty quick, and you don't have to wait a month for some sign of improvement.

You see Nerviline is a direct application; it is rubbed right into the sore joint, thoroughly rubbed over the twitching muscles that, perhaps for years has kept you on the jump. In this way you get to the real source of the trouble. After you have used Nerviline just once you'll say it's amazing, a marvel, a perfect wonder of bill small; trial size, 25c.; all dealers.

Just think of it, five times stronger and more penetrating than any other known liniment. Soothing, healing, full of pain-destroying power, and yet it will never burn, blister or destroy the tender skin of even a child.

You've never yet tried anything half so good as Nerviline for any sort of pain. It does cure rheumatism, but that's not all. Just test it out for lame back or lumbago. Gee, what a right fine cure it is for a bad cold, for chest tightness even for neuralgia headache it is simply the finest ever.

For the home, for the hundred and one little ailments that constantly arise, whether earache, toothache, stiff neck, or some other muscular pain—Nerviline will always make you glad you've used it, and because it will cure you, keep handy on the shelf a 50c. family size bottle; it keeps the doctor's efficiency.

The War Week by Week.

By OBSERVER.

After a period of comparative tranquillity, fighting of great intensity has burst out on several fronts and has been marked by important results. The most notable features of a busy week are the British successes on the Ancre over a new section and the carrying well forward of the advance upon Monastir. Elsewhere activity is maintained but without anything decisive being reported from either side.

In the guarded but uneasy comments of the Berlin press the seriousness of the front British gains in the West is reflected. They have been made on a portion of the front which had earned for itself the reputation of being impregnable. Beaumont Hamel, Division and Beaumont, with all the intervening ground, presented a veritable network of the most carefully fortified. For several reasons their capture is an encouragement to us, not the least of which is the proof it affords of the immense advance now attained by the Allies in every element of the fighting. Germany may well argue to herself, and intelligent Germany probably does, that the attack which can take such places as these can take any. Tactically the gains extend the front of the British advance upon Bapaume in a most valuable manner and also pinch in still more the German salient, which may at any time become untenable. Thus it will be noted, the line of the offensive extends more and more, giving the defenders an increasingly harder task, which is precisely the policy best adapted to the present conditions.

The usual counter-attacks have followed against the captured positions with the usual failure. The greatest fury, however, of the enemy has been expended against the French south of the Somme. It will be remembered that a few days ago the French, without any preliminary bombardment, advanced and seized Pressoir and other places near Chaules. The feat was a brilliant one and its importance can be gauged by the magnitude of the efforts the Germans have made to an-nihil it. No less than a division and a half of picked troops were flung against the French lines, and, however, held and hurled them back. The action indicates the growing fear of the Germans in respect of the whole front, where the advance of the French threatens to cut the railway to Per-onne. We shall not be surprised if the major efforts of the French are directed for a time to this area.

With nothing further of importance on the Carso or the Russian front, we find matters working up to a climax in Rumania and striking vices of the fight, the numbers engaged, the loss in killed, wounded and in volume of artillery fire. In the Somme sector 6,000 British, French and German guns have been in action the same day. Within one period of twenty-four hours there have been at least 150,000 casualties, counting those on both sides. So far, in this engagement, 1,100,000 men have been killed. Next summer the British are prepared to lose 1,000,000 men, if necessary. They will then have twice the present gun-power. When will the war be over? I only know that next year will be bloodier than this.

The week before I left France I talked with General Joffre and Sir Douglas Haig and with such Army Corps leaders as Sir Henry Rawlinson on the Somme, and Generals Nivelle and Maunth, who planned and executed the brilliant attacks which recovered Fort Douaumont and Vaux at Verdun. Their idea was the same that I have found everywhere—a fight to the finish.

COLLISION ENQUIRY.

NEW LONDON, CONN., Nov. 17.
The collision which caused the merchant submarine Deutschland to abandon her return voyage to Germany almost at the outset early to-day, when the convoy tug T. A. Scott Jr. was sunk with her crew of five, was the subject of Federal investigation.
To-night the United States inspectors of steam vessels, headed by Captain Wiley, heard through witnesses the conditions under which the submarine slipping out of the harbor during darkness so that she might submerge in neutral waters before daylight, ran down the tug which was acting as protector of Cape Rock, just outside this port. This testimony, which came from Capt. Koenig, from J.
Krapohl, his chief officer, and from Hans Kleese, chief engineer, was given in a secret, but became known through statements outside the chamber. The collision was an accident.
The survivors who would discuss the matter agreed it was due to a combination of swift currents, which carried the tug off its course to the submarine in darkness, which was to be the submarine's medium of safety. Before the inspectors will fix the blame for the loss of the Scott and her crew they will hear the testimony of Capt.
Frederick Hiltch, the official of the Eastern Shipping Co., who was the only survivor on the tug.

SENTENCE OF DEATH.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 17.
A despatch from Beirut, Syria, says that the war tribunal has passed sentence of death on Hussein Kamal Pasha, Sultan of Egypt, on the ground that he has placed under foreign rule constituent parts of the Turkish Empire. The death sentence has been confirmed, the despatch says, by an Imperial decree, Abbas Hilmi, who was Khedive of Egypt when the war began, espoused the cause of Turkey and was deposed in December, 1914, and the British Government proclaimed the appointment of his uncle, Hussein Kalam as Sultan.

According to the Evening Sun much interest is being shown in the dinner of the Canadian Club to Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, on Nov.
20, at which ex-President Taft is to be one of the speakers, it being the first time they will have occupied the same platform since Premier Borden's party gained power in Canada in opposition to the Reciprocity Act which Taft when President, endeavored to have adopted in both countries. Taft is expected to outline his plan of the league to enforce peace, and as Sir Robert will be a large figure in the councils of the Empire after the war, this dinner will have much significance.

Infectious Disease.

Six cases of infectious disease were reported to the Health Authorities within the past week, namely: 2 cases of diphtheria, 2 of typhoid and 2 of scarlet fever; and four houses were disinfected and released from quarantine. There are now in the Fever Hospital 18 cases of diphtheria and 7 of typhoid; under treatment at home: 4 of scarlet and 7 of typhoid.

There are charming little bonnets
