TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

ON THE TRAIL OF THE VIKING.

HALIFAX, N.S. Oct. 10.

William Washburn Nutting a New York editor and three companions, are believed to be twenty five days overdue on a voyage from Reykjavik, Iceland to Baddeck, N.S., in a forty foot sloop the Lief Erickson in which they set out from Norway early in the summer. "We will drop in to you for dinner about the middle of September" Nutting wrote on a post card at Reykjavik, to F. W. "Casey" baldwin partner of the late Alexander Graham Bell, who lives on the Bell estate, near Biddeck, Cape Breton.
The message said "The Lief Erickson would shove off from Reykjavik, August 1st. Nothing further has been heard from the party so far as Mr. Baldwin knows, and the craft is now sixty days out. Mr. Baldwin is not worried, as he believes the craft would weather any storm it might have encountered in that time. It was described by Mr. Nutting as slow but seaworthy, and fitted out better than any of its inches had ever been fitted out before. The Lief Erickson carries beside Mr. Nutting, Arthur Shildebrand, a writer and author of "Blue Water" and John Towdahl, a maritime painter also. A Norwegian amateur sailor. They set out early in the summer to follow the trail of the Vikings who sailed from Norway to North America one-thousand years ago. Mr. Nutting and Baldwin made a memorable voyage from Baddeck, N.S. to Cowes, England and back, in 1920 in the yacht Typhoon.

MACDONALD MAKES STRONG ELEC- TION SPEECHES.

LONDON, Oct. 10.
Political events, following the Government's defeat last night, have moved with quite unusual expedition. The Prime Minister early to-day obtained the Royal Assent to the dissolution of Parliament which was prorogued with the usual formalities to-night, and immediately dissolved. By the King's proclamation the Privy Council for these formalities is meeting at the usual hour of seven o'clock in the evening. The King, as always, omitted no courtesy in meeting the Labor Premier's wishes, despite the fact that the unaccustomed haste to get the formalities provided for by the constitution, is somewhat of a novelty. Premier MacDonald had two reasons for advancing the date of the elections as much as possible, first a desire to avoid inconvenience to the business community and public interests generally, and second, the necessity of holding the General Election on some date, which would not conflict with the English Municipal Elections, scheduled for November 1.
Mr. MacDonald and his parties, conceive themselves, as on a wave of popularity, and therefore considered it advisable to hasten the elections to the utmost. To achieve this end they even sacrificed the pet laborite idea of holding the elections on Saturday, when the workers have more leisure to record their votes. The date has been fixed for Wednesday, October 29th. This choice was only possible, through the House of Lords adopting the Irish Bill unamended. Lord Carson in the Upper House, to-day, proposed an amendment requiring that the bill should only become operative when ratified by the Ulster. Parliament, but he consented to withdraw the amendment on the representation that it would delay the bill, and cause conflict with the House of Commons.

BRIBERY CASE HAS NO EFFECT ON BIG BALL SERIES BET- TING.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The sensation caused by uncovering of attempted bribery by members of the New York National League Club, caused no change in betting on the world's series, leading Wall Street commissioners said to-day.

Plenty of money was available on the chances of both the Giants and the Senators, enthusiastic fans offering odds on each team.
Bets at six to five that Washington would win the first game were posted in the same room with bets at 11 to 10 that New York would win.
Generally the betting on the first game was in favor of Washington, some fans offering 7 to 5 on the Senators.

A freak bet bet of $150 at even money that Captain Friesch of the Giants would play in the first game and last second was reported by Darnell and Company.

More than $50,000 was wagered on the first game and the series yesterday, and betting commissioners expected at least double that amount to be posted to-day.

Lord Salisbury in the course of the debate, frankly confessed that such conflict between the Lords and Commons would prove a very bad election cry. So far as the elections are concerned, there, Ireland is out of the picture. There is in fact no great question to place before the electors.
All the parties admit, that the Campbell case is not a question for an appeal to the country, hence the Conservative and Liberals will thrust forward, the question of a guaranteed loan to Russia. The Prime Minister is in a fighting mood. Twice this week in the Labor Party conference, he made strong election speeches. At the second meeting to-day he poured scorn and ridicule upon the new Tory Liberal Coalition, which he described as being formed to turn the People's Government out. Never in all his life he continued have I seen a more downhearted, and more melancholy, and conscience stricken bridal procession, walking into the Commons lobbies, than that which cemented this union last night. Never had he seen a case so shattered as was the Campbell case against the Government, as was witnessed yesterday.

RUM RUNNER HAS A MARITIME ALIAS.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.

The extent of the rum running activities of the British steam trawler Fred B. seized off Atlantic Highlands N. J. last Friday, was bare before the United States Commissioner John N. Boyle, to-day, when members of the crew came up for hearing in the libel proceedings under which the government seeks, forfeiture and sale of the ship, by a United States Marshall. The log of the trawler, identified by Chief Officer N. W. Landry, showed that in two days, July 3 and 4 last, 319 cases of liquor were sold.
Then with frequent notations little business was done. To-day it was shown that it took another month to dispose of the remaining 676 cases on board, before the trawler sailed for Halifax on August 5th. The account and the agreement of the crew disclosed the owner of the trawler as Charles Stewart of Montreal. The two women arrested when the vessel was seized, identified themselves as Mrs. Chris McLean, 33, who shipped from Halifax as a cook, and Mrs. G.
A. Gillis, also 33 an assistant cook of Sydney N.S. Mrs. McLean testified that she had made five trips on the vessel and each time the cargo consisted of boxes, with the contents of which, she said, "she was not familiar." The clearance papers of the vessel disclosed, that it was allowed to sail from Halifax to St. Pierre, or any port in Canada, the United States, or the West Indies. The log of the vessel M. also seized on the trawler, convicted the Prohibition Authorities that the name Fred B. was a maritime alias, for the vessel to deceive port authorities. The hearing will be continued to-morrow.
