Blue Puttee
Annual Re-union

After eleven years—the remnants of the First Five Hundred, historically known as "The Blue Puttees"—assembled to celebrate the anniversary of the sailing of the "Florizel" on Oct. 4th, 1914—at Donovan's last night.

If good cheer, happy smiling faces, and good fellowship, can be taken to signify cordiality, then indeed those responsible for last night's re-union can look back with pleasure and gratification upon the huge social success achieved.

The chair was occupied by Lieut.- Col. L. Paterson, O.B.E., who, in his usual able manner, and with his general personality, managed the programme to the great pleasure of all. The tables were tastefully decorated and the menu served was all that could be desired and handled by the capable staff in the usual Donovan's style.

The menu cards were specially prepared by the Evening Telegram, being printed in blue, the front cover tastefully designed and embossed, and reflects great credit on our local printers.

The following messages were read:

From Mr. B. Butler, Corner Brook:—

"Please convey my best wishes to Blue Puttees. Regret unavoidable absence. Please grant leave."

From George T. Carty, A. Company, St.
George's:—

"Dear John, sorry I cannot be with you to-night. Regards to the boys. Hope all have a good time."

From ex-Corpl. M. Vail, St. Mary's:—

"Success to re-union to-night.
Sorry cannot be with you."

Upon the Roll being called by Capt.
G. G. Byrne, M.C., the following 52 answered as present:—

P. Mansfield 61, J. Robinson 480, W.
Kearney 55, J. W. March, W. Taylor, 111, R. Tilly 21, M. Godden 615, J.
Nicholls 338, R. Sheppard 473, A.
Smith 379, W. Roberts 368, A. Mullett 457, W. F. Rendell, Lt.-Col. Paterson, F. Bennett, 268, S. Frost 68, N. Mc-Lellan 50, J. Mahon 114, W. Loveys 359, R. B. Heyder 34, E. Robertson 497, T. Smythe 523, J. Ryan 35, F.
Marshall 608, G. Harant 341, A. Bishop 67, A. J. Stacey 466, H. Maddock 140, C. Ayre, C. Garland 182, J. Dooley 474, W. Taylor 452, E. Bradbury 103, H. McNeil 31, H. Stone 361, R.
Voisey 152, T. Hammond 360, S. Dew-ling 120, P. Brien 80, J. Moore 29, W.
Allen 263, T. Morrissey 341, G. Harvey 333, S. Bixby 241, H. Bishop 29, H. Wilson 305, J. Andrews 315, H. Wheeler 475, W. Gilliat 300.

Lieut.-Col. W. F. Rendell, C.B.E., on behalf of the Committee, moved a hearty vote of thanks to Lieut. R. B.
Harper, for his generous and selfless and of the menu cards and receipted advertising bills. The rousing cheer and the singing of "He's a Jolly good fellow," signified the gratitude and esteem of the boys.

The menu was as follows:—

Grape Fruit—Pleasantville.

Skillet—A La Florizel.

Fish—Prime Devonport Naped.

Roast—Market Lambington.

Vegetables—Pond Farm Potatoes.

Port George Green Peas, Nairn Tunics.

Sweets—Cannon Gate Plum Pudding with Lethal Walk Sauce.

Fruit—Apples, a gift at 50c. per doz., Oranges, Cromptart, Bananas.

Ardersier, Nuts, "We had some."

Tea—Lark Hill.

Coffee—Bustard.

Toast List.

The King—Prop., Lieut.-Col. Paterson, O.B.E.; resp. National Anthem.

Absent Comrades—Capt. H. McNeil, O.B.E.; Silent Toast.

Songs were sung by Sergt. Morrissey, Major March, M.C., C. de G., Lieut.
Harper, P. Mansfield and R. Sheppard.

Serje. E. Fox presided at the piano and the old regimental songs were sung very heartily. The chairman made reference to Comrade A. Goopie, who is very ill. The meeting expressed their sympathy for their old friend.

The gathering terminated at midnight with the singing of the National Anthem and the party returned to town, voting the 1925 re-union the best yet.

The toast of Captain H. McNeil, O.
B.E., to "Absent Comrades" is reproduced.

"To-night's orders have detailed me to toast 'Absent Comrades' and as I cannot even pretend to be an after dinner speaker I am sure you will look upon my short coming on my part.

To-night's gathering, representing the re-union of the First Contingent of the Newfoundland Regiment with 52 members answering the roll call, which originally—eleven years ago—consisted of 540 all ranks, compels each and every one of us to pause for a moment and think of our 'Absent Comrades'; 488 absent. Some of them we shall meet again possibly to-morrow or next day and others are waiting to meet us 'when the roll is called up yonder'.

Comrades. Not a man of us here to-night cannot recall to mind some absent comrade—a brother—a cousin —a pal—who was one of 'our comrades'—the old 'Blue Puttees'—the nucleus of the Battalion that earned for itself the title 'Royal'—the praise of the words, 'better than our best' and more decorations than our first line transport could haul—although we did not get them.

Amongst our Absent Comrades tonight we also place all our Comrades of C. D. E. F. G. H. and W. and Y.

Companies that comprised our own Regiment, say the 80th Brigade, the 25th Division and in the latter stages of the Campaign the 9th Division.

How many Comrades did we make overseas who can be termed 'Absent' to-night but who, by their hospitality and various acts of good fellowship extended to us during our period away from home earned for themselves our gratitude and remembrance especially on an occasion such as this?

Call them back to your minds—"You millionaire soldiers"—Friends in Market Lavington—Devizes, Salisbury, Fort George, Inverness, Nairn, Edinburgh, Leith, London, and afterwards in Ayre and Winchester.

Will any of us even forget the cordial hospitality and welcome extended to us after the hardships of Salisbury Plains on that morning in December 1914 when we arrived at Port George—the Depot of the Seaforth Highlanders and the many friends we made there amongst the old "dog-outs" who were always willing to help us out in every way they could.

And as soldiers we needed help as we were certainly green—green enough to buy apples at fifty cents a dozen which were intended to be a gift for us and sent aboard the Florizel by some patriotic friends at home.

Each one of us can call to mind some friends in Nairn and Inverness who are deserving of our remembrance as we know they will never forget us.

How many friends have we left behind in Great Britain, Egypt, France and Belgium who introduced themselves by asking what NFPL meant —next question invariably was—You are "Light Dragons"?—Oh Newfoundland—yes—that is out in Western Canada? or "near New Zealand?"

The explanation given as to who we were, what we were, and where we came from invariably sufficed to break the ice and in many cases resulted in the forging of links of friendship which are still holding firm, some of them today being strengthened by "silken bonds of matrimony."

This is really a small world and we may any day meet again some of those "Absent Comrades."

However, there are many of our pals absent to-night whom we shall not meet again in this world. On every battle-front on which the Royal Newfoundland Regiment saw action some "Blue Puttees" lie sleeping.

Others who came safely through the Campaign have since passed on and still others have died long after hostilities ceased from the effects of illness and wounds contracted during those strenuous days.

"Let some we loved, the loveliest and best.

"That time and fate of all their vintage past.

"Have drunk their cup a round or two before.

"And one by one crept silently to rest."

Comrades:—It is our duty to see that the principles for which these "Absent Comrades" fought and died are maintained in our country. We must not let their sacrifice be treated as a "fine days' wonder" and we must always remember that in passing they flung the torch to us to hold aloft and to carry on.

Two years ago at a Sergeant's Mess Dinner I made the statement that our War Memorials in this country were not receiving the respect to which they are entitled and I am sorry to say that I can make the same statement to-day without fear of contradiction. Our people as a whole will pass by our National War Memorial on the "Beach" without even a thought as to what it represents.

I will ask you all gentlemen—Blue Puttees—to keep the memory of our "Absent Comrades" green by seeing that all your friends and comrades raise their hats when passing the War Memorials in this country.

I am sure we are all grateful to know that at last some action is about to be taken to beautify the surroundings of our National Memorial and I am confident that the people of our country are only too willing to look upon that spot as sacred and are

"Dulcy" a Unique and Most Successful Comedy

"Dulcy" is just a whirlwind of seemingly hopeless predicaments for all who come in contact with the perfectly well meaning, perfectly irrepossible, and at the same time perfectly irresistible wife of a business man.
Owing to her anxiety to make everyone happy she manages in one weekend to ruin her husband, to arrange the elopement of a charming girl with a scenario of dubious youth and equally dubious reputation, to involve the young wife of an aged and crusty husband in an intrigue with a lunatic, and of course, when everything turns out, perfectly all right she is the only person who is not in the least surprised because after all it was just what she had been planning.

"Dulcy" is the name of the play because Dulcy is the play. The others are just her friends and relations who are all tangled up by her surprises, driven to desperation by her secrets, and bewitched by her bubbling vivac-ity and loveliness.

It is questionable whether the Casino ever witnessed a comedy quite like the performance given last night by the Harkins Players. It cannot be described as a screaming farce or by any term of that kind, for in fact, it is a comedy of the tragic, but even those scenes strongly appealed to the humour of the crowded audience, not one of whom but appreciated fully the clever wit of the dramatist and the skill of the artists in interpreting it.

Of Miss Violet Deane as Dulcy, the wife of Gordon Smith, (Joseph Selman), it must be said that great as have been her successes in previous performances, she exceeded herself last night. She was never silent for a minute, and the more she talked the more hopelessly did she tangle things up. She was full of secrets which she confided to everyone, full of surprises, better described as shocks, that everyone dreaded
