The Day Before the Battle.

To-morrow will be a busy day in the North Riding. Both parties are busy mustering their full strength, and we expect to see a keen contest.

The Herald and Dr. Orton.

The Herald denies our statement that Dr. Orton has joined an Orange Lodge for electioneering purposes.

South Waterloo Election.

The Galt Reformer states that the nomination in South Waterloo will take place at Preston on Saturday 17th of August, and the polling on Saturday, 24th.

Essex Election.

Mr. O'Connor has been returned by a majority of over 500. Mr. Rankin, his opponent, came late into the field, which placed him at a great disadvantage.

South Ontario.

Up to the hour of going to press there were no returns from this Riding of the state of the poll.

ELECTION NEWS.

On Monday the 12th inst., the nominations for North and South Wentworth will take place by the respective Returning Officers.

If Mr. Anson G. P. Dodge had been defeated, he would have been called by the Mail "The Yankee Dodge," but being elected, he is called a truly liberal man.

Mr. McDougall has issued a farewell address to the electors of the North Riding of Lanark, in which he talks of retiring into private life.

Four elections take place in Ontario to-day: South Grey, Kent, South Ontario and Welland, all at present held by the Ministry.

In New Brunswick the first poll was held yesterday for the county of St. John, which returns two members Mr. Burpee and Mr. Palmer.
