LONDON AND ENVIRONS

She broke her heart-So it is said; Jack get a part. And so did Ned.

Yesterday was pay day for the C. P. R. employes.

-The holiday rates on all the railroads were taken advantage of by hundreds in the city. -Miss Maggie Brown, Leamington, who has been visiting friends in South London

-Dr. Harry H. Forsythe, of Philadelphia, is in the city on a visit to friends here, also Mr. Joseph Fowler, of Toronto University. -The Oddfellows of this city will celebrate the 75th anniversary of their order on April 22 by attending divine service at St. James' Church, South London,

-Bailiff English was in the city yesterday en route to the Central Prison, Toronto. He had in charge three prisoners from Sarnia and four from Sandwich.

-Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christian, wellknown vocalists of London, Eng., are in town, Miss Christian (Annie Cohen) will sing Sunday morning at St. James' Presbyterian Church. -Samuel Allander was brought before Judge Edward Elliott this morning and elected trial by jury on the charge of embezzling money from James Treneman. The case will come up at the assizes. -Chas. E. Wright has been committed to jail for ten days for failing to put in an appearance at the last sitting of the Division Court. Judgment was recently given against him for $48 46 to John S.

Stephenson. -J. A. Milne represented the Forest City Bicycle Club (15 votes) at the C. W. A. convention in Toronto Friday; F. R. Scandrett and Dr. Balfour the London Bicycle Club (66 votes), and A. Talbot the Meteors (13 votes). -To-night the Liberals of No. 4 ward meet in the Oddfellows' Block. On Monday evening the Liberals of No. 5 ward meet in the town hall, East London. The nomination of delegates to the coming convention will be made at each meeting. -About three months ago a deaf and dumb son of Mrs. Pinkham, of Poplar Hill, suddenly disappeared. The family were at a loss to account for his actions, and nothing further was heard of him until the other day, when a letter was received from the son, stating that he was in Kansas City, Mo. -The police docket this morning was small. Ed. Dalton, who damaged another man's rig when drunk, was fined $5 or twenty days. Mrs. Thos. Bailey complained that her husband was drunk and disorderly, to the annoyance of her boarders. She wished him to pack up his things and leave her. Bailey was fined $3 or ten

-Col. J. R. Wheate, ex-proprietor of the German Remedy Institute, and who is wanted for the alleged swindling of Dr. E. Gray, is still at large. He was recently located in Burleigh Falls, Peterboro county. A detective was sent to arrest him, but on arrival there it was found Wheate had fled. The fugitive was afterwards traced to Port Hope, thence to Niagara Falls, where he crossed the river into Uncle Sam's domains. He is now believed to be in Boston. Pixley Will Push It.

A New York dispatch says: Starr L. Pixley to-day denied the report that Robt. Fulford had handsomely provided for the mother of the late Annie Pixley. Mr. Pixley says Fulford has made an offer to pay Mrs. Pixley $10 a week and would not sign any papers binding himself to do that. Mr. Fulford promises to pay this sum, so Mr. Pixley says, on condition that Mrs. Pixley would publish a complete retraction of the charges and insinuations against him in connection with the death of his wife. Mr. Pixley states that the suit for an accounting brought against Fulford at Philadelphia will shortly come up for trial, and that it is the intention of the family to push the suit to an end.

solid appearance that no fear was felt of a cave-in. Mr. Jackson heard an ominous crack and started for the upper end and safety. The collapse came, however, before he could get free and pinned him from the hips down in the debris. Several workman were on hand and the unfortunate man was dug out and conveyed to his home at the corner of Rectory and Dundas streets. Dr. Pingel was summoned and found the man in intense suffering. A she could not make a critical examination until the pain had been allayed and the swelling reduced the full extent of injury is not known.

D. D. G. M. Broderick visited Malabide Lodge, A., F. and A. M., at their regular communication on Wednesday night. Refreshments were served at the close and a very pleasant time spent.

The St. George's Chapter, No. 4, at their last meeting unanimously voted to reduce their fees for exaltation to $10, in sympathy with the recent amendment to the constitution by the Grand Chapter. This is a good move and will doubtless have the bound up. There is a certain old colonel, effect of greatly increasing the membership, and it is probable that the sister chapters will follow their example. The question of remaining in the blue room also railroad mission, and a group of southern came up for discussion, and after being thoroughly ventilated it was carried by a large majority that the best interests of the chapter would be served by remaining there as well as keeping faith with the lodges. This will no doubt be hailed with restigation by the lodges, helping them. satisfaction by the lodges, helping them, as it will, in paying their rent. There seems a strong probability that the chapter will have to pay a pro rata with the lodges as the same lodges have passed to admit them at $50 per annum.

Sales Were Slow-The Meat and the Dust-Flower Dealers Do Well-Spring Vegetables Appear-Eggs Were Cheap -Berry Plants and Ornamental Shrubs.

There were more articles for sale on the market this morning than buyers had use for, and as is generally the case when the supply exceeds the demand the market was somewhat flat. The day was disagreeable and the March wind filled the marketers' eyes with dust, broke the fragile lily and tender flowers and made the meat market far from inviting. A meat man was complaining that there was no shelter for meat vendors, and showed a reporter some tender pieces of ing taken a post-mortem frolic in the dust and dirt of the square. Some meat dealers and upholstered before the rush. were wise in their generation and covered their goods over with canvas. There was no change in price and a waiting sale.

The flower dealers had a hard time of it lilies sold at 25 cents and Easter lilies at 10 cents a flower. Azaleas sold well despite the 75 cents cost. Other plants were unchanged.

Spring vegetables are beginning to make their appearance. Said a dealer in this class, "I have seen Easter markets when we had not nearly enough stuff to supply the trade, but to-day there seems to be enough and much to spare. Now there's celery, 5 cents a bunch-cheap as rags. Nice tender rhubarb, 10 cents a bunch; green onions, three bunches for 10 cents; radishes, 5 cents a bunch; lettuce, three for 10 or two for 5. Now, I'll leave it to yourposted on the clothing trade, the reporter reserved judgment.

Turkey went a cropper, falling as low as 7 cents a pound. Fowls sold from 30 to 50 cents a pair.

For a wonder, eggs were cheap at 10 to 15 cents a dozen. Butter sold at 23 and 25 cents a pound. Very little grain was on as the roads are bad. Oats sold at $1 and $1 02, wheat 90 to 98 cents. The shrub tree and berry plant dealers had a large number of articles on but did not make large sales. Norway spruce sold from 10 cents to $1 according to size, Scotch fir, 15 to 50 cents; Austrian pine, 50 cents, junipers, 75 cents to $2; dwarf pear, 35 to 40 cents; standard pears, 50 to 75 cents; plums and English cherries, 50 cents; currant bushes from 75 cents to

MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC.

Field's Minstrels a Fine Organization-The Grand Open Every Night Next Weck

"ALABAMA" ON MONDAY NIGHT. "Alabama" is described as the most American of all American plays. "Its people, its places, its events," observed a reviewer, "are all essentially American." It has the war for its theme, but there are no soldiers, no accoutrements of the barrack, no martial music, no sensationalism, no sectionalism. It pictures life in the southern State after which it is called, fifteen or twenty years after the war. There is an aged planter, decrepit, broken-hearted almost, because the war estranged him from his only son, a lad who had been educated at West Point; but chivalrous to the point of provoking a challenge to a duel from a man who had cast a slur upon the name of his niece. There is his granddaughter, an "Alabama Blossom," in whom the old planter's life is the "Silver King" and "Jim the Penman" are well known to theater-goers. FIELD'S MINSTRELS.

Al. G. Field's minstrels gave two performances yesterday. The matinee audience was only fair in size, but at night the house was packed. The gods seemed to be standing on each other's necks and the "S. R. O." sign was in order for every section but the dress circle. The performance was as good, if not better, than the average minstrel show. The first part offered a departure from the usual run of bald ballads and puns, but the second part included some capital specialties, chief among which are the Alvarez musical four, the acrobats, and the axe juggling of Cradoc. Mr. Field has a clever company and all are hard workers.

IDA VAN CORTLAND NEXT WEEK. Commencing on Tuesday night Ida Van Cortland and her company begin a five nights' engagement at the Grand. It is some six weeks since her former appearance in London, when she played a week's stand to well-pleased audiences. Several new additions have been made to the company. and the plays to be presented will be different from the previous engagement. The following is Ida Van Cortland's reportoire for next week: Tuesday night, "Mighty Dollar"; Wednesday night, "Michael Strogoff"; Thursday night, "Fanchon"; Friday night, "East Lynne"; Saturday night, "Danites"; Wednesday matince, "Peck's Bad Boy"; Saturday matinee, "Blacksmith's Daughter."
