

STANDARD OF THE WORLD

the old lady, rising and putting nermand on her arm.

"Yes, yes; all in honor of my dear child," said the major, tenderly, but with his cunning eyes watching his dear child," said the major, tenderly, but with his cunning eyes watching his dear child's" face rather apprehensively. "She will make a very presentable countess, don't you think, Lady warner, eh?" and he smiled and thinking of? Why, it will take quite the old lady, rising and putting ner they have had me jumping into the American League several times before and I am still in the National, am in they have had me jumping into the American League several times before and I am still in the National, am in the rumor. When I arrived in Cincinnati the baseball reporters were all on hand for a confirmation or denial of the tale printed in a Cleveland paper. Someone is smoking," was my answer race in Readville last week, had the someone is smoking, was my answer race in Readville last week, had the smiled and the race in Readville last week, had the race in Readville last week. started, "come out into the light and let me look at you; you stand there where I can scarcely see your face. Come out here," and she pointed a thin forefinger. "What is the matter with you, nie Kate, whose light and springy step.

a laugh; but the laugh sounded thin and mirthless, and her eyes fell as the old lady scanned her curiously.

as if—aren't you well, Kate?" "Quite well," she answered, smiling.
"And—happy?" persisted the old lady sharply. "Everybody in England regards you as the luckiest girl in the world; you are young, quite beautiful get rid of the memory of that other enough, and engaged to an earl. Why should you be unhappy? You are not, as a comet crosses the heavens.

laugh, and its sound seemed to strike

"I am not ill; and what should be row path, it was not of this grand ball on my mind, Lady Warner?" said Kate she was thinking, but of the strange stared thoughtfully at the fire. She was looking down the vista of impress her that she could and trying to remember if there had at or drive his voice from her ears.

self had kept@her heart whole. "I should have known it, if there had i been anyone, yes, I should have known at the quarry, whence the roar of the frown, and said, hesitatingly:

shouldn't ask the question I am going she was thinking of was sailing to ask; but I suppose I've been the What a shock of mingled pair nearest approach to a mother you can delight it would have caused her is remember, and I'll ask it. Tell me the she had known that he was there, at Kate looked up with a little spasm of dread and fear in her face; but it passed instantly and left it cool and self-possessed again. 'What is it?" she asked.

"Just this," said the old lady, slow-and unflinchingly.

The old lady nodded her head twice. well—quite happy! But if it is of your side a fortnight since. It was not only then, keeping her eyes fixed on the of hair that made the difference; there than marry against her will! than marry against ner will: I say that, Kate; I, whom everybody thinks a mere bundle of worldiness, and I know what I am saying. I had a narknow what I am saying. I had a narknow what I am saying it was the row escape myself, Kate; it was the looking his men, swinging the pick ocmen, one a baronet, the other a mil-born air, Clifford was almost perfectly lionaire, and I could have had either. Thank heaven, I chose my soldier. He happy.

The color swept over the beautiful face, then left it pale again.
"It is too late!" she said, she said, and he voice sounded dry and strained.

pervading his whole being.
"Ah, my dear Lady Warner!" he exclaimed, bowing over her hand in his All day he spent in the quarry, and nappiness of finding you here. Well.

claimed, nodding and smiling. "I have on in just left Carr-Lyon. You can't imagine how interested and er-excited he is and flashing, and his voice clear and grounds in a slugging match yesterabout it—and very grateful to you, my dear lady—very. 'Tell Lady Warner to spare no expense!' were almost his last grown to respect him and like him-all harder and farther and won. words to me. Spare no expense I want but one. to make a big thing of it! Plenty of That was his forcible way of putting it; my young friend is so-er-energetic Philippine forests.

you know. I assure you, the way in which he has—er—conducted the alterations at Lydcote is worthy of—er—all . Money no object—absolutely Did Kate show you her handome present, eh?"
"Kate showed me her rubies, yes, major," said the old lady.

"Splendid!—aren't they? Ah, my dear lady, I thing my little girl has hild-I think she a fit match for a prince!

"So do I," said Lady Warner, drily.
"Yes—ahem!—yes, I," he went on, glancing at Kate, who had not spoken since he entered, "I've just been up to Lydcote, making some preparations.

Lydcote, making some preparations.

We are going to have colored lights all ball magnates are making some mysdown the drive and about the grounds terious moves these days, but whether thousands of 'one there's to be a high there is anything days to be a high there. working people-enormous thing, you know. Oh, no expense is to be spared, I assure you. Lord Carr-Lyon wishes everybody in the neighborhood to—er—leverybody i participate, so to speak, in his happiand he glanced at Kate again.

"So it seems," said Lady Warner. of interes
"Well then, major, I suppose, as I may not.
was saying to Kate, we had better ask Upon hi was saying to Kate, we had better ask the quarrymen to the dinner."
"I should say so, certainly. Ask everybody," replied the major, effusive-lady. "Then I'll ask the quarrymen."

"Do, do!" he said, nodding. "It will be a grand affair—workmen's dinner in the morning, and a ball for the gentry land that Pittsburg and Cincinnati intend jumping into the American League. When the attention of President Drayfuss was called to this story

It almost seemed as if Kate, the bonchild? You look and speak as if you and bright, laughing voice were so well ing were in a dream! Stand there and let known in Sandford, had suddenly been is were in a dream! Stand there and let he look at you!"

With a smile Kate turned her face was ringing with the tidings of her look at you.

In a look and speak as it you and bright, laughing voice were so well his trip to Frisburg, and it there heat plan in operation here, baseball it isn't worrying him.

Jimmy McAleer said that he stopped the quartet which faced the starter for the look at you.

Jimmy McAleer said that he stopped the quartet which faced the starter for the look at you.

Id lady scanned her curiously.

"Humph, you look pale and distrait, s if—aren't you well, Kate?"

"Quite well," she answered, smiling.

done her duty, that she had sacrinced herself for her father, and that the sacrifice would bring its own reward—in time, but she could not get rid of done her duty, that she had sacrificed caliber material as yet. the weight.

It was not because she hated Lord Carr-Lyon, but because she could not ber seeing you look like this before, week she had been fighting against the child!"

wind buffeting her almost off the nar-The old lady let her hand drop and young man, with the dark and mysterious past, who had managed so to years since she had known Kate, his image from the retina of her mind, none; there had been plenty who had it was not until she heard a loud roar, been in love with Kate, but Kate her- as of distant thunder, that she was reminded of the hour. She stopped and looked over the rail blasting had risen, then, with a sigh, But she looked up with a troubled turned and retraced her steps, looking across to the sea as she went, and "Kate, if you had a mother I wondering in which direction the mar What a shock of mingled pain an i most at her feet!

> CHAPTER XIII. The sun, the clear and bright sun which sometimes tries to make us believe that November is an autumn Kate's lips quivered in the fire-light. The little human hive was all alive "It is of my own free will, Lady have been difficult to recognize in this game." young and stalwart man, clad in his rough but well-fitting suit of grey Woodstock 5 - she serge, the weary, lagging figure that paused—"I thought you did not look— had sat so disconsolately by the roadshe paused again, the loss of his beard and the thick locks said in a low voice, "A woman was something more than that. Work had better throw herself into the sea is a finer and more effective tonic than I say any contained in a chemist's shop, and very narrowest. There were the two casionally, and breathing the pure, sea-was a poor captain in the line; and though he is a general now, he is still in the world. But he had seen her, Almost! If he had never seen Kate though he is a general now, he is still in the world. But he had seen ner, poor; but I have never regretted my choice, Kate, never hankered after the baronet or the man with the money. Kate"—and she looked up suddenly, stock still and, forgetful of everything with a sharp and yet anxious glance—around him, recalling her face, with its large lustrous, "sadly shining" eyes, 6 to 5; Memories, 6 to 5; Fillmore, 16 and her voice, with its subtle music. At night, when he sat in his cottage smoking his solitary pipe, he went over every word she had spoken, and got Imp, 10 to 1; Fortunate, 3½ to 1; Gay have given my word, and—and I could not call it back. I do not wish to— leady laboration which he carried in a small pocket of his waistcoat. He fought against the shall marry Lord Carr-Lyon, Lady absorption which possessed him, just as she did, but in vain. At all times and Before the old lady could speak again seasons her spirit visited him and held door opened and the major bust- him in thrall. When these fits happenthe door opened and the major small min in thran. When these has nappened in. His face was flushed, his small ened in the day time he would seize eyes shining; there was an atmosphere pick and fall to work like a frenzied Bedouin. Merry Lark, second choice, from his chair and pace the floor, florid manner, "delighted to see you it was very seldom that he ltft it at from a length to three lengths faster delighted! I thought I should have the night, and then he carefully avoided than his field. been discussing the all-important topic direction, striding along like a man a smile at Kate, and stood rub-his hands. walking for a wager, and heedless of three parts of a length. All eight everything in the sky and on the earth starters stood up until next to the last "Yes, we have been talking about Lord Carr-Lyon's ball, major," said beneath; always thinking of her, the fence, where Decimo fell and caused one woman who had touched his heart Charawind and Temerity to refuse. and made life sweetly bitter to him. "That's right!-that's right!" he ex- | But no one guessed what was going on in the mind of the young manager figure was erect, his eye bright sharp. Although he had only been a

There are 747 varieties of wood in been very lucky; though—'pon my word, I must say it, though she's my own Dreyfuss Says Pirates Will Ottawa Cricketers Outplay Toronto and Montreal Take Not Jump to the American League.

-thousands of 'em; there's to be a big marquee put up for the servants and cover is yet to be developed. Barney Dreyfuss Monday evening hours and met Garry Herrmann, presi-Most liberal-minded young man, my conferred upon is a secret, that may

ly. "But Kate shall decide; Lord Carr-Lyon is desirous of studying Kate's wishes to the fullest."

"Very nice and proper," said the old "Very nice and proper," said the old "inficance transpired, so they said, and "inficance transpired, so they said, and "inficance transpired," so they said, and "inficance transpired to the said transpired transpired to the said transpired trans

"And all in honor of our Kate," said dent Dreyfuss was called to this story

With a smile Kate turned her face the light.

"I am quite awake!" she said, with laugh; but the laugh sounded thin laugh sounded thin laugh sounded thin laugh sounded thin laugh sounded the laugh sounded thin laugh sounded the laugh sounded the laugh sounded the laugh sounded t he had not met any American League broke and finished last one of the same thin, hollow against and engaged to an earl. Why hould you be unhappy? You are not, as a comet crosses the heavens. All day long—and almost all night—of that with the St. Maryys bowlers on the with the St. Marys bowlers on the with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the St. Marys state the belief that the Galt with the St. Marys state the belief that the St. Marys state the state that the Galt with the St. Marys state the state that the Galt with the St. Marys state the State state the state that the St. Marys state the State state the state that the St. Marys state the State state the state state the state state the state state state the state state state state state state state state the state stat small, white hands; it was as cold as was something shameful and sinful ing for a club organized at the end of 12:18 pare, madu Reswick, which shameful and sinful ing for a club organized at the end of 12:18 pare, madu Reswick, which shameful and vet she could not forget him. June this year, as the Mitchell bowlers $50 to $25 on the field before the start,

MITCHELL AT ST.

First Game. Mitchell. St. Marys. fol. Dougherty, sk.11 Moir, skip... Roberts, skip.....10 ..12 Box, skip... and trying to remember it there had at any time been any other young man, the thought of whom would be passed on, heedless that the dusk was the bound think of deepening and the wind rising a wind rising a wind rising a wind rising a wind rising Mitchell—Total, both games, 124. St. Marys—Total, both games, 123. Majority for Mitchell, 1 shot.

BERT SHEERE HAD WARM TIME AT WOODSTOCK

St. Thomas actually defeated the leaders of the Western Baseball League yesterday at Woodstock, winning in 2:14 pace, purse $1,000: the tenth inning, 6 to 5. Bert Sheere, of London, umpired the game, and got Inter-Ocean, br. g. (A. Thomas).... month, shone full upon the rugged hol- the worst of it. The Saints either win Doris B. this engagement one of your low of the quarry. Now and again the or lose on account of the umpire, so own seeking—of your own free will, Kate?"

There was a pause for a second, and There was a pause for a second was a pause for met the sharp eyes steadily and in the center, overlooking the sheere. This all goes to show that in Boy (whole, stood Clifford Raven. It would some places baseball is "a gentleman's Joe N., pitcher, took a couple of punches at Thorne Killingsworth and Daniels.

ACCIDENT TO "VOLO." Helena, Mont., Aug. 10.-Tom Butler, the bicycle rider, known as "Volo." who jumps the gap during a circus performance, failed to do the trick here last night, and fell to the ground. He was unconscious for half an hour. The physicians say they fear he is internally injured and will die. His wife loops the loop in an automobile, and she followed with her turn immediately after the accident to her husband.

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS.

At Fort Erie-Oak Grove, 7 to 10; Fullbert, 21/2 to 1; Rusk, 3 to 1; Jungle Lizzette, 3½ to 1. At Latonia-The Laurel, 39 to 1: Hot. 3 to 5; Sea Mate, 7 to 2; Florizel, 4 to 1; Zienap, 4 to 5; Mansard, 4 to 5.

BEDOUIN AN EASY WINNER Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 10.-The Huron handicap today was easily won by of exuberant triumph and satisfaction giant; and at night he would start up ran a consistent race and took second money easily by three lengths. As soon as Bedouin struck his stride he went out in front and was always by the Erie Medical Co., 94 Mohawk

Three favorites won. Conover took the steeplechase three parts of a length. All eight

BRANTFORD A WINNER. Brantford beat Ingersoll on their own day. Both pitchers were hit to the fortnight in the quarry, the men had limit. Brantford nine batted medici The nd Graham. Umpire, Sharkey.

BOTH CANADIAN

Marylebone Club in Game

Ottawa, Aug. 10. — The Marylebone cricket club, representing the cream of all England, commenced battle with the Ottawa cricket club today and received a gentle surprise, retiring for 71 runs.

Batteries—Currie and Sullivan; Milligan and McAllister. Umpire, Hassett. Attendance, 500. not feeling well, for they simply could not stand the bowling of McGiverin and Bristow, who bowled the entire indent of the Cincinnati club. What they ning, and put on a phenomenal game, only one four-run bat being made.

at Capital.

THE ENGLISHMEN

come to light later on, and it may be of interest in a baseball way, and it and certainly had the visitors going. first-class cricket fields.

Kate went out of the room with Lady Warner, and when she had gone took her own hat and went on to the cliffs.
A week had passed since she had consented to be Lord Carr-Lyon's wife, but reckoning by the change in her it might have been twelve months.

It almost seemed to be the cliffs.

In the tale printed in a Cleveland paper.
The McKinney mare which took to the McKinney mare which took the measure of Tiverton in their match trace in Readville last week, had the trace in the free-for-all trot, the feature event of the Grand Circuit, at Kenilevent of the Grand Circuit, at Kenilevent of the Galilee Rex stallion took down first money in the trace in Readville last week, had the trace in Readville last week Baseball appeared to be the last two first heats in 2:05½ and 2:06, the thing that Frank Robison was bothering about The gorial Frank robison was bothering about. The genial Frank is enjoy- but after the result of the race had ing his trip to Pittsburg, and if there been settled according to the three-

In the second heat third to Tiverton was the best she could do.

In the last heat McDonald got her stepping through the stretch, and she MARY'S BROKE EVENT everhauled and beat Tiverton half a length in a whipping finish. Those who saw Sadie Mac, Miss

The last race of the day was a big upset. It was the 2:15 trot and Thorne straight heats easily. Directum Lass, the favorite, was on her bad behavior. Jim Fenton, second choice, also had a lot of trouble in keeping his feet. Another smashing crowd enjoyed the sport. The meeting will be concluded 2:14 pace, purse $1,000:

Queen of Suades, blk, m. (Snow). r. g. (Brawley)..... edford Boy. Roland Reed, blk. eed, blk. g. (Day)...... ds Time—2:08, 2:08, 2:09¼. Free-for-all trot, purse $2,000: Tiverton, b. s., by Galilee Rex (Howell)

Marie, b. m., (A. P. Mc-Doris B., b. m. (Snow).... Bertha W., br. m. (Lambert)....

Time-2:11½, 2:10½, 2:08¾. 2:15 trot, purse $1,000: horne Boy, wh. g., by Strong Boy (Patterson) Belladi, b. m. (Rutherford) Directum Lass, b. m. (A. P. Mc-Time_2:10½, 2:12½, 2:13. 6 ds

THE OAR.

DURNAN IN TRAINING. Toronto, Aug. 10.—Trainer Jimmy Rice arrived today from Ottawa and took charge of Eddie Durnan, whom he will train for his race on the bay with Tom Sullivan. Durnan is in prime condition, and Rice expects to have him as fit as a fiddle on race day. Sullivan got his two boats from England today. One was built by Clasper and the other by Sims. The Clasper boat will be used if the water is rough. The shells are 25 feet long, and built of Spanish cedar. Sullivan is now rowing from Center Island, taking two spins daily. LACROSSE.

COLLINGWOOD WON DISTRICT. Collingwood, Ont., Aug. 10. - The final C. L. A. game of this district was played here yesterday between Collingwood and Thornbury-Clarksburg, and resulted in favor of Collingwood by 6 sovereign. goals to 1. This gives the district to game to be played next Wednesday in PERSONAL-Men should know that the only perfect and safe Vacuum Appliance is manufactured and controlled street, Buffalo, N.Y., who administer in connection with it interior and exterior remedies having a world-wide reputation for weak men. Write today for sealed circulars and proofs. yv

Life is long, art is fleeting, but the safety of freedom demands constant Robbers Go Through Whole Hous, autom NO ONE NEED FEAR cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly, and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a here when twelve persons in one house rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming were chloroformed and robbed of

EARLEY WINS ANOTHER.

Earley pitched well yesterday at Petrolea against Sarnia, and won.

Krapp pitched well for Sarnia, but Earley was the better. The score:

Sarnia

R. H. E. Sarnia

R. H. E. Sarnia

R. H. E. Sarnia

Batteres — Krapp and McCarty; Pills and speedily get himself in health,

TEAMS WINNERS

Games From Bisons and Rochester.

At Providence-EASTERN STANDING. Jersey City 58 30
Baltimore 55 31
Providence 52 31

IN THE AMERICAN.

At Philadelphia - Philadelphia-Cleveland games (two) postponed; rain. At Washington-Washington-St. Louis game (two) postponed; rain AMERICAN STANDING. Won. Lost. Detroit

St. Louis IN THE NATIONAL. At Cincinnati-

and Ritter. Umpire, Bausewine. Attend-

NATIONAL STANDING. hicago Brooklyn

THE "PINK PRINCESS"

Future German Empress Runs Over a Boy With Auto.

Prince and his bride are leading a blissful life at Potsdam. During the recent battle of flowers Queen mother found in her son's the thousands of visitors who lined the trunks. pretty roads of the "Russian colony" dashed up in a beautiful hunting visitor phaeton, drawn by five magnificent probably be his last official one, and passports, the same kind as are given brown horses. The Crown Princess had no one could feel more happy on that to the women of the street. with her two large baskets filled with account than the President hundreds of punches of roses and earnations, which she gracefully scattered among the eager crowds. As usual the Crown Princess wore a pink muslin dress and a rose-colored toque. So invariably does she wear these colors that she has been christened the "Pink Princess," and pink has become the fashionable hue in feminine circles throughout Germany. The formerly modest Duchess Cecilie has not been slow to assume the magnificent ideas expected from a lady of her now exalted rank. The Marble Palace is "much too small to be the residence of a crown princess!"

was heard to remark recently to her "Why do you not hurry on husband. he work that is being done to Schloss Eabelsburg Those workmen are the slowest fellows in the world!" The Crown Prince and Princess frequently take carriage drives in the beautiful country around Potsdam. Sometimes they are seen out motoring, and it is said that the Crown Princess has a weakness for "exceeding the speed limit." The other day the imperial sweethearts ran over a peasant of constant wonder to me. lad, who regarded it as a piece of fortune, since the Princess gave him a

The Crown Princess herself has not Collingwood and puts the team in the sunered from the school has shown her usual semi-finals with Seaforth. Home and wave, but she has shown her usual consideration for suffered from the recent terrible heat called a promenade on horseback, he those less fortunate than herself. The other day, when walking on the terrace, she noticed a guardsman in the Crown Prince's own regiment fal- was sore for a week, but when he ter and fall to the ground, struck down wanted me to go riding in an autoby the heat. Instantly she ran out moble with him I resigned." and ordered his comrades to carry him into the palace, where she personally bathed his forehead with cologne.

CHLOROFORM 12 PERSONS

Meriden, Conn., Aug. 11.-A particularly bold burglary was perpetrated gotten to pay since he was here last money and valuable, worth between Valenti Hugo, proprietor of a board- his visit to France at all this time The giraffe is the only animal uning house on Springdale avenue, re- All night the poor Shah sat on a balable to swim. This is on account of its ported to the police that there was converged in next to nothing, sighlong neck.

SIGNALS OF DANGER Transport from His wife and ability a

A Great Chance for the Old Boys

Summer Clothing Must Go.

Take an Oak Hall Suit home with you. Next week we take stock. This week we want to see the last of our summer lines. Prices are reduced so that they've got to go. Men's Summer and Unlined Boys' Unlined Suits greatly reduced.

OAK HAII

zines and bought many carloads of the most variegated articles. Phonographs y the hundreds and automobiles in half dozen lots have been sent to his Curtain Lecture From the Royal York has injected new life and energy Mamma for Parisian Escapades.

Paris, Aug. 10. - When President Loubet some weeks from now goes to in the movement is shown. In no coun-Madrid to return the visit of King Al- try in Europe is the number of prosfonso, it will not be without fear and titute women as large as in Russia, trepidation. Queen Maria Christina, and especially in the Polish province. the mother of Alfonso, is said to have prepared a strong curtain lecture for m, because too much freedom was in that country it is not considered a Berlin. Aug. 11.—The German Crown allowed the young king in Paris, with disgrace for a woman to belong to that the result that he came back to Madrid madly infatuated with a French variety actress, whose portrait the

If one may believe the stories told remarked on the happy appearance of President of the French Republic ne- to reside outside of the Jewish zones here, the Queen is angry because the who with delight looks forward to the allowed to live in university day when he will once more become a and unless, they have been authorized plain citizen and retire to the quiet of to live in these towns and cities they

The date of his departure for Spain has not yet been fixed, but the programme mapped out by the Spanish Government has been submitted to him and approved with a sigh. He will be received at the depot by King Alfonso and carried off to the palace in a royal carriage. The first day he will have to be present at a great military review, followed by a banquet and a gala performance she at the royal opera. The next day reception will be given by the mayor in the Hotel de Ville, then there wil be a hunting party, a Rio Frio and "Rather than be the tutor of a prince again, I would earn my living as street sweeper," Major Levasseur, who has been the mentor of the Crown Prince of Servia, is quoted to have said the other day.

"That I return to France alive from that God-forsaken country is a source "The young prince is a strong be liever in the strenuous life and did not leave me a moment's peace. while we were out for what the prince led me at a mad pace across the country, from which I returned with bandaged head and a broken arm. "Another time he disarmed me a fencing, having tired me out so that I

The young prince will become of age this month and has sworn to celebrate the event in a manner to make his future subjects gasp for breath. He has already told his father that e is going to have a racing stable and is going to try to break all records for automobiling. That he has no money to buy either race horses or obiles does not seem to cause him the least concern. He had hardly succeeded in getting his baggage, which had been seized because of debts which he had forwhen the hot spell set in, which made his apartments in the Elysee Palace

Hotel feel like a Turkish bath. The Shah of Persia has not enjoyed palace in Teheran, and his only regret has been that he could not also buy the chic sales girls who waited and smiled on him and whom he would have liked to add to his harem. The Berthe Claiche case in New into the humanitarian societies of Europe, which for years have been fightng the trading in "white slaves," and the foundation of an international society has been indorsed by the press of nearly all the countries of Europe.

As might be expected, Russia is among the countries where no interest The Russian laws encourage prostitution in every possible manner, and class. So many thousand women are annually forced into the ranks of prostitution that the people feel it would be unjust to condemn these women as a

3 ds the Crown Prince and Princess, who glected to act as dry nurse to his royal unless she agrees to become a prostitute. All young girls who enter the Without such a passport they are not > dare not enter the universities. At certain intervals all female students are forced to submit to an examination by the police surgeons, and if to found virgins they are immediately expelled from the university. The Czar has repeatedly wipe out this disgrace, but has always been opposed by M. Pobiedonostseff, who is strongly opposed to women studying and who sees in this the most effective means to keep them from matriculating at the institutes of learn-

BUSY BEES HIVE IN SHOP

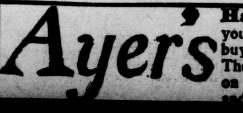

Loosed for an Airing - They Made for the Candy Department.

London, Aug. 10 .- A London store where ne can buy anything from a suspender button to an elephant has added a department where anything living or dead which a naturalist collects, from frog spawn to an observatory hive of 40,000 bees, may be bought. The first hive of bees which arrived at Whiteley's almost caused a panic. On the evening of their arrival the bees were let out for an airing, it being thought they would fly to Kensington Gardens in quest of honey. But these busy l proved themselves economists. They But these busy bees vaded the store and took possession of the flower, candy and grocery departments, and helped themselves to the sugar and other sweets about. It was hours before the last bee returned home. Now the bees are kept in the hive until the store closes. Then they are released from the coof and wander in search of sweetness wherever they will until after dark. Already these hives, and the formicar-ims, or nests of living ants, are in great demand. A herd of the ant's cows—the common green fly—and about half a dozen of their domestic pets—the little white roodlouse, which is not as his Inffmannaeggii-are introduced into ea ut roads, boring tunnels, constructing owsheds, and milking their cows. playing ith their pets, attending in heir queen, storing away their eggs and food, feeding and washing their voung, and hurving their dead in the cemetery ach colony has built in one corner of its

The greatest demand so far in the new lenartment has been for Japanese waltz-ing mice, which come out of their nests and indulge in periodical mad whirls until hey look like nothing but balls of black There are lizards, from and newts alive

Hair Vigor. Better wear your own hair; not the kind you buy! But you are losing yours? Then be quick! Fasten tightly on your own head what is left,