Jas. Ryan's Bad Record-What His W.fe Said-Fighting Boy Fined $5.

Even if he had to do the washing in is own home and sometimes scrub the floor, James Ryan found out in the police court this morning that this was not sufficient provocation for black eye.

Mrs. Ryan gave evidence that when she was in her kitchen last Saturday night, her husband struck her in the ace, causing her eye to blacken. They had never been happy and she had no desire to share his serrows and his P bys any longer. "Wasn't I washing my own shirt on that evening?" asked Ryan hotly from that he had been chasing such a garment up and down the washboard for Cooocoocoocoocoocoocooco space of five minutes before the row ccurred. Ryan denied that he had struck his vife, but admitted that he had pushed her away from him and told her to go bed. The Sunday following he had been compelled to scrub the floor (for the sake of the reputation of house), and his wife did nothing but & lie in bed all day," he said. He believed she was clean crazy. Mrs. Ryan became excited at this point, and from her chair in the court 2 coom exclaimed: "He's the worst liar in the soothing vapor of that ever lived, and he knows every

ONLY A VICTORY CAN END IT

War Correspondents Denounce Operations at Front Through Medium of St. Petersburg Papers.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7, 11:30 p.m.-The renewed peace talk resulting from the seeming concurrence of recent events in Washington, finds no echo in official and diplomatic circles here, where Emperor Nicholas' oft-repeated declaration that the war must be carried to a satisfac-It is supposed that the explosion was tory conclusion, remains the keynote of caused by some water freezing in the the situation. The newspapers no longer proclaim the necessity of continuing the war at all costs. Articles appearing in the Russ and the Novoe Vremya, over the signatures of well-known war correspondents who have just returned from Manchuria, criticise the conduct of operations that in un-measured terms, which these papers

Washington, D. C., Feb. 7 .- In view of the revival of reports from Euro-pean capitals to the effect that there has been a renewal of efforts on the part of the powers to find some basis for intervention in the interests of peace in the far east, inquiry has been made here in official circles to ascertain the position of the States Government respecting such a movement. The state department has made no overtures recently to either of the interested powers, nor does it know officially of any such movement in Europe. The position of the United States Government has not changed in any respect, and it would welcome a settlement of the present disastrous conflict either by means of direct negotiations between the belligerent powers or through the medium of an international conference. But no matter which course is followed in arranging the terms of peace, the one upon which the United States Government will insist is that both Russia and Japan shall, in the settlement, live up to the terms of the undertaking to which both of them have subscribed; that the integrity of China shall be respected, and the equal right of all ### powers in China recognized, including distinctly "the open door."

NEW MERCHANT TAILOR Mr. John Bates Opens a Store at 264 1-2 Dundas Street.

London has for some time had plenty f room for another first-class merchant tailor in town, and the appearance of Mr. John Bates, a skillful cutter, from Toronto, who has opened an establishment at 2641/2 Dundas street, will be welcomed by citizens who like to wear strlish clothes. Mr. Bates is a young Englishman, and spent many rears at his business in Birmingham. Coming to this country, he was for some time with a large and well-known Toronto firm, and his work proved to be of a distinctly high class. Mr. Bates' store on Dundas street is well situated, and of good appearance. His stock is new and up-to-date. BE THERE A WILL, WISDOM POINTS THE WAY.—The sick man pines for relief, but he dislikes sending for the doctor, which means bottles of drugs never consumed. He has not the resolution to load his stomach with compounds which smell villainously and taste worse. But if he have the will to deal himself with his altment, wisdom will direct his attention to Parmelec's Vegetable Pills, which as a specific for indigestion and disorders of the digestive organs, have no equal.
