

NOMINATE GREER TO O. H. A. OFFICE

Alerts' Meeting Believes Londoner Has Excellent Chance.

Jack Greer has been nominated to the O. H. A. executive by the Alerts' Club, and it would not be surprising to see the Londoner elected at the annual elections of the hockey governing body.

Greer has done much for hockey in this part of the province, and it is believed will be well supported by the clubs in the vicinity of London and by the northerners as well outside the London radius.

London has not been represented on the O. H. A. executive for some years now, and Greer's election would be a timely one.

Considering the rink situation in London, the nominees could hardly be accused of being anything but neutral in his work on the O. H. A. executive. Jack Greer has been a member of the local intermediate groups for quite a few years in succession, and his work in this regard has brought him the respect of all those clubs with whom he has had to deal, and this fact should be another great boost for the Londoner.

WORTLEY GIRLS BEAT RYERSON

Ryerson School girls' basketball team went down to defeat at the hands of Wortley Road girls in a match played for the Free Press Cup which was donated for the championship team of the city public schools by the score of 17 to 13.

On Monday Wortley girls will meet Simcoe Street, and if they are defeated by the latter it will necessitate a play-off between the three schools. If Wortley Road wins on Monday they will capture the cup.

The game was one of the best brands of playing since the opening of the contest, and both teams showed marked ability. The winners displayed more combination, but the baskets scored by the Ryerson girls were all earned, while their opponents' shots were not clean.

Margaret Laing, captain and forward of the Ryerson team, scored nine baskets, and played a clean and snappy game, while Anna Milne, forward and captain of Wortley Road, played a good game, and Marjorie Walsh of Wortley Road was a strong checker.

Wortley—Forwards, Margaret Laing, Mary Sawyer, centre, Phyllis Blunt, Margaret Curtis, checks, Jean Bolton, Helen Prince.

Ryerson—Forwards, Anna Milne, Elizabeth Hurd, centre, Helen Leach, Lilian Lyons, checks, Marjorie Walsh, Marie Graham.
