

THE BRITISH COLONIST EVERY MORNING... THE WEEKLY COLONIST... NOTICE... AGENTS...

Arrival of the Brother Jonathan... EASTERN DATES TO 22d MARCH... Grant in Command of the Army of the Potomac...

Lee Expected to Dash on Washington or Army of Potomac... NEW RECIPROCAL TREATY... President calls on 200,000 Additional Men...

VER... The demand for the new... The demand for the new... The demand for the new...

(Boston, March 19.) Our forces attempted to flank the position of the enemy's column near Meigs Creek on Saturday. After sharp skirmishing they retreated to Strawberry Plains. The enemy are entirely without cavalry, and wholly destitute of wagons, and are stealing every morsel of food left in the hands of citizens...

The Examiner says: According to last accounts, Longstreet had fallen back to Bull's Gap, which is the key to the valley from Knoxville to Bristol. The rebels are expected to have a large force in the command of Southern Virginia. Kirby Smith takes the place of Lee...

The World's special dispatch from Washington, March 19, says—C. C. Barclay, of Philadelphia, arrived here today, bearing a report that the rebels are in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

Lee's army of 100,000 men is expected to dash on Washington or the Army of Potomac. The Richmond Examiner of the 10th says: Gen. Ross reports coming in conflict with a company of negro cavalry near Canton, Mississippi. He killed 400 of them. A letter received in Richmond reports a Yankee blockader sunk off Fort Holmes by the fire of that fort. It is now stated that Beauregard is in Florida...

General Banks has issued orders that the rebel Department of Arkansas is to be re-organized. The rebels are in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

General Banks has issued orders that the rebel Department of Arkansas is to be re-organized. The rebels are in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

General Banks has issued orders that the rebel Department of Arkansas is to be re-organized. The rebels are in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

Gen. Grant will be here in the morning. On Thursday his review of the army of the Potomac in the presence of the President is expected to be effected. It is thought that Hancock, Sedgwick and Meade will retain their present positions. Gen. Grant is exercising a superior control of the entire army. A joint resolution has been introduced in Congress...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...

FROM SOUTH AMERICA... The St. Louis we heard that the rebels were in possession of the entire fleet of ironclads in the mouth of the Red river. Thirty transports loaded with troops were also there. General Banks and staff would take the field on the 10th, and the army commences immediate operations...