RUNDLE'S SERIOUS CHANGE

AGAINST ROBERT J. FLEMING, THE MAYOR.

The Contractor Claims That the Mayor Fined in Two Notes Bearing His Name For $200 More Than He Was Authorized to And Kept the Proceeds—Rundle Calls His Creditors Together.

Arlack H. Rundle, a builder well known in real estate circles, whose palatial residence "Devon Lodge," in Biscarra-estate, Evesdale, is built after the style of the old baronial halls, and who cleared cool $10,000 on his contract for plastering the new Parliament buildings in the Park, has called a meeting of his creditors for Tuesday afternoon at the office of MacLaren, Macdonald, Merritt & Shumway.

Rundle claims that he is perfectly solvent and that his creditors are amply secured. The cause of his embarrassment, so his solicitor informs creditors, is the maturing of two notes for $2000 and $2000 bearing his signature and the endorsement of Robert J. Fleming, presently Mayor of Toronto and a candidate for the civic chair for 1918.

Rundle and the Mayor are connected in the ownership of some East End property, on account of which they had various business dealings. To these of his creditors who Mr. Rundle has seen he has made a statement of the case as follows: He gave Mayor Fleming two blank notes on the understanding that they were filled out for amounts not to exceed $100 or $150 each and used to pay joint debts. These notes were marked, one in the Tradewell Bank for $2000 and one in the Union for $2000, and Mr. Rundle is held responsible for them, although he claims to have received every benefit from the proceeds.

Mr. Rundle's solicitors, so the firm state, have made every effort to have the difficulty straightened out. They have given Mayor Fleming an opportunity to settle the matter, but he has refused to do so. Mr. Rundle has been advised to sue Mayor Fleming, but he has refused to do so. Mr. Rundle has been advised to sue Mayor Fleming, but he has refused to do so.

Some weeks ago this matter was talked of, and at that time Mayor Fleming gave an explanation of it. He said he had had no money misappropriated from him, and he expressed amazement that anyone should say that such was the case. Nevertheless Mr. Rundle did not believe Mr. Fleming's explanation, and he has since been advised to sue Mayor Fleming, but he has refused to do so.

TWO HUNGARIANS FIGHT FOR LOVE.

The Girl Acted as Referee and Agreed to Go With the Winner—The Fight Between the Two Hungarians.

MOUNT CARMEL, Pa., Dec. 22.—A fight took place here last night between John Rostenki and Michael Linowich, both men are Hungarians. John left Hungary with Mary Donkey, to whom he was married on reaching New York.

Linowich was in love with the girl and followed them to this country for the purpose of being revenged. About 50 railroad workmen witnessed the fray. Mary was selected as referee, and, it is alleged, agreed to take the victor for her husband. The fight lasted 40 minutes, when, completely exhausted and bleeding profusely, Linowich was unable to stand up any longer.

A foul was called on account of Rostenki's chewing his opponent's ear, and a riot broke out. The girl sided with her husband's friends and she was knocked senseless. Weapons of all kinds were used, and 10 or 12 were killed with clubs, while several bullets found their way among the crowd.

Nearly all of the 50 were badly cut and bruised and six of them are in a precarious condition. Rostenki was taken to the hospital, left to go to Shenandoah, accompanied by Mary.

MY FINGERS NEARLY FROZEN

MME. DE LESSEPS' GOSPEL LETTER TO A FRIEND.

Putting Up Stoves in Her Country Home—Lipses Pass Out Through the Windows—Back to Front—Answering the Letters of Sympathy From All Quarters—Such Kindness is Touching.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Writing from her country home to a friend in Paris Mme. de Lesseps says: "I have just received your letter of the 19th inst. and I am glad to hear that you are all well. I am well, but my fingers are nearly frozen. I have just received your letter of the 19th inst. and I am glad to hear that you are all well. I am well, but my fingers are nearly frozen."

ANOTHER TELLER SHORT.

$1200 Mysteriously Disappears From the Home Loan and Savings Company—The Teller Has Been Suspended—When Teller William Cooke of the Home Loan and Savings Company, Church-street, counted up his cash the other night he discovered that he was $1200 short in his accounts. Whether the money was paid away by mistake or was stolen by some sneak thief is not known, but Mr. Cooke is the sufferer, as another man has been placed in his position.

DR. RYERSON THE CHOICE

HE WILL BEAR THE STANDARD FOR WEST TORONTO.

The Conservative Convention Last Night—Tributes to the Late Mr. Bigelow—Enthusiastic Resolutions to Re-Capture the Seat—The Candidate's Platform—Six Other Members' Policy Imposed.

Dr. George Sterling Ryerson, the well-known oculist, was the unanimous choice of the Conservative convention called for last evening at Temperance Hall to select a candidate for the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. G. Bigelow, M.L.A. Mr. Ryerson's name was equally well received with that of the doctor, but he declined to stand, the latter was determined by a feeling of unpopularity and a determination to resign to the seat which had been vacated by the late Mr. Bigelow.

Dr. Ryerson is a fighter, and a good impression in his opening speech last night. He took issue with Sir Oliver Mowat's policy in regard to timber, mining and some of his municipal legislation. He intends organizing at once for his campaign, and will address the electors at great length in the course of three or four weeks.

THE WAR SCORE RAISED BY MYLES.

United States Secretary Foster Wins at the Geneva Treaty of 1817.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—The report of the launching of British warships on the lakes and their exposed heavy armament excites no alarm here. Secretary of State Foster, when asked if the United States would increase its force on the lakes, said: "Speaking only for the State Department, I should say the United States will not build any revenue cutters on the lakes unless it needs them. That is a question for the Treasury Department to determine. When additional ships are necessary in the current business of the country they will be constructed, and not before."

The treaty of 1817, as construed by the United States, was equally well received with that of the doctor, but he declined to stand, the latter was determined by a feeling of unpopularity and a determination to resign to the seat which had been vacated by the late Mr. Bigelow.

A HAMILTON MERCHANT TAKES HIS OWN LIFE.

Suffered From Rheumatic Fever—Had Sold Out His Business—His Clerk Found Him at the Rear of the Store Suspended by a Strap and Cut Him Down—Death Had Come.

HAMILTON, Dec. 22.—One of the saddest events of the year took place this morning in the suicide of Mr. William McAlay, wholesale woolen goods merchant, No. 100 King-street east, and the city has lost one of its most highly respected business men.

For a long time Mr. McAlay had been in poor health. A year and a half ago he had a very severe attack of rheumatic fever. For months it affected him, and he has never since been the same. After returning he was troubled with constant and intense pain in his left hand, just at the top of the thumb, and this growing worse and worse as the days passed. He had been having intestinal trouble, and he had been having intestinal trouble, and he had been having intestinal trouble.
