A. H. HARRIS, District Scribe.

Mr. W. C. Parker of Lawrence town, recruiting officer for Annapolis County, gave a short talk at the Primrose Theatre last Thursday evening on recruiting with profitable results. Lieut. Lloyd Longley of Paradise will be at the Nettle tomorrow (Thursday) evening, and give a short patriotic address.

Henry B. Hicks, Secretary of the Board of Trade has just received word that the Nova Scotia Underwear Company of Windsor, are on the market for 250,000 pounds of Nova Scotia wool. This will indicate some possibility of the advantage to be given by an increase in the number of sheep raised. Farmers, get busy.

The monthly united service of Intercession on behalf of the war will be held in St. James' Church next Sunday evening at the close of the usual service. As many of our readers are aware, urgent appeals are being sent out for recruits. The need is greater, in fact, was never greater, and those who are convinced of this need and sending the call, say "the time is now." An opportunity will be given any who desire to enlist to do so on Sunday evening.

A pleasant evening was spent by the members of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge No. 41, L.O.O.F., when the Degree Staff donned their robes and initiated Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Morse, and Miss Hazel Burbage into the mysteries of the Degree. Although this was the first time the new officers have taken their places the work was done in a very creditable manner. After speeches from the new members, lodge was closed and dainty refreshments were served.
