

INVEST IN A VICTORY BOND

There is No Matter of Greater Importance Before Nova Scotians at the Present Time.

There is no matter of greater importance before Nova Scotians at the present time than the individual and united support of the campaign for investing in Victory Bonds. There is no depreciation in the value of a dollar that helps to buy a bond. It is a living investment for the good of the investor, the Country and the soldiers overseas.

F. C. WHITMAN, Annapolis Royal, Oct. 28th, 1918.

MIDDLETON

John Marshall is ill. Chas. Ritchie is ill. Mrs. W. H. Conrad is ill. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Buckler are ill. Mr. and Mrs. Von Young are on the sick list.

Miss Young, of the Post Office staff, is quite ill. W. H. Pentz and family are moving to Nictaux Falls.

Cyril Joudrey, who was ill the first of the week, is better. Hibbert Parsons is able to be out again after an illness.

Dr. Kirkpatrick is gaining and Mrs. Kirkpatrick is much better. Dr. F. S. Messinger is gaining, but is finding recovery rather slow.

Miss Smith, of Lunenburg, has joined the Royal Bank staff as stenographer. The latest report says that Capt. G. H. Vroom is doing as well as can be expected.

Lt. Hugh Phinney, of the R. F. C., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Phinney. Mr. Jackson, Postal Clerk on the H. & S. W. Ry., is ill of influenza and Clerk Bates is taking his place.

Miss Alie Fenerty, who underwent a successful operation a few weeks ago at Halifax, is making a slow recovery. H. A. Jacques is spending part of his vacation with his mother, Mrs. G. O. Jacques, at Auburn. Mrs. Jacques and Pauline are also visiting at Auburn and Aylesford.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jefferson were deeply grieved to hear of her sudden death, which we understand was due to influenza. Much sympathy is due Mr. Jefferson and little child.

Pte. Robert Rafuse, who has just returned from France, being slightly wounded on April 12th, 1917, at Vimy Ridge, and then on Nov. 15th of the same year lost the use of his right arm, also a bad wound on left shoulder at Passchendaele, spent last week-end with his cousin, Mrs. C. A. Young.

PARADISE

Mrs. H. H. Saunders has visited friends in Clarence recently. Mrs. Piggott, of Halifax, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Chesley.

Rev. and Mrs. I. A. Corbett and little daughter Helen have been visiting relatives in Auburn. Rev. William Robinson and wife, who have bought the property owned by Mrs. Goodspeed, arrived in town last week.

Mrs. Goodspeed has sold her place in Paradise and has moved to Lawrenceton. We are sorry to lose her from our community.

PORT GEORGE

Mrs. Hobbs, who spent twelve months at this place, caring for her mother, has gone to Somerville, Mass., to spend the winter. Mrs. Ruth Elliott, who spent the summer months at her cottage here, has returned to Wakefield, Mass., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. (Dr.) Crosby.

Our churches and schools are closed on account of Spanish influenza. We have not had any deaths as yet, but a number of cases are reported. Mr. B. Mosher, of Gates Mt., who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, we are glad to report is better at time of writing.

BORN

SHAW—At the Windsor Hospital, Nov. 5th, to Mr. and Mrs. Judson F. Shaw, of Windsor Forks, a daughter. SCUDAMORE—At Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 29th, to the wife of Herbert F. Scudamore (nee Miss Letta Brown, of Bridgetown) a son.

MARRIED

WILSON-CHUTE—At New Brighton Station Island, N. Y., on Oct. 25th, by Rev. W. Cunningham, Sergeant Earl M. Wilson, of Fort Wadsworth, N. Y., and Hilda Marie Chute, of Bear River, N. S.

ANDREWS-BENT—At Bridgetown, on Wednesday Oct. 30th, by the Rev. E. Underwood, Oscar Andrews, of North Range, Digby Co., to Grace Adelaide, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Bent, of Young's Cove, Annapolis Co., N. S.

DIED

FITZRANDOLPH—At South Williamston, Oct. 30th, Archie G. FitzRandolph, aged 21 years. Interment took place the following day, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. F. H. Beals, assisted by Rev. Mr. Boyce.

Death of F. E. Roney.

The death occurred at his home, Granville Centre, of Frank Roney, only son of the late Henry Roney. For some months past he had been in falling health. Thinking that an operation would prove effective, he went to St. John Hospital for treatment, but his condition being far too serious to undergo an operation, he returned home and passed peacefully to his rest on Saturday, Nov. 2nd, in the 43rd year of his age.

His death was caused by Sarcoma of the liver. The deceased, who was a blacksmith by trade, was liked by all who knew him and will be greatly missed by the entire community. Much sympathy is extended to his sorrowing wife and three small children. He is also survived by his mother and four sisters, Mrs. Daniel Cronin, Port Wade; Misses Isa and Etta, Annapolis Royal and Miss Annie, Weymouth.

The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Penny, assisted by Rev. I. Brindley. Interment took place in the family lot at Wadeville Cemetery, Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

Death of Mrs. J. B. Jefferson.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Mary, wife of J. B. Jefferson, one of Lawrenceton's well known merchants, which took place at her home in that town last Wednesday evening, after a week's illness of influenza. The deceased was a very prominent resident of our sister town and had a host of friends, who greatly mourn her death. Besides her husband and daughter Florence, who are receiving the deepest sympathy of all, she is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Archibald, of the Halifax School for the Blind, three brothers, Chipman, of Lawrenceton; Earl, of Dorchester, Mass., and William, of McGill University, and one sister, Mrs. John Morrison, of the Halifax School for the Blind.

The funeral took place Thursday, with interment at Lawrenceton, the services being conducted by Revs. L. P. Wallace, F. H. Beals and S. J. Boyce.

Death of Pte. Wilfred Snow

A Port Wade correspondent writes: With sadness of heart we are called upon to record the death of Pte. Wilfred Snow, which took place at Canning, on Friday, Oct. 25th.

Wilfred was the youngest child of Capt. and Mrs. John Snow, of Port Wade. He was only 21 years of age and was a favorite with all who knew him. About a year ago he was called to train for his Country's service. With others he left Halifax a few weeks ago to work in the harvest field and was in Canning when he was taken with that dread disease, influenza, which developed into pneumonia and in spite of careful nursing put an end to this young life. His many friends will be glad to know that he died trusting in Jesus and in the wisdom and love of God. His body arrived home Monday and was buried at Port Wade, by Rev. H. Patterson in the presence of many sorrowing friends and loved ones.

Death of Milledge W. Henshaw.

After a short illness of influenza, Milledge W. Henshaw died at his home in Centrelea Sunday, aged 33 years. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Hattie Allen, of Bloomington, and one child. He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Henshaw, four brothers, Perry and George, in France; Ralph in Kingston, and Louis at home; also two sisters, Mrs. Berry, at Clementsport and Estella at home. The funeral took place Monday afternoon, with interment at Centrelea.

Death of Ingram Marshall.

Mr. Ingram Marshall, son of Melbourne Marshall, boot and shoe dealer, Middleton, died at his home in that town Saturday, following an attack of influenza, at the early age of 24 years. Besides his parents he is survived by a widow, daughter of Mr. W. C. Parker, of Lawrenceton, three small children and a large circle of friends. The funeral took place Monday with interment in Middleton, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Hutchins, pastor of the Middleton Baptist church.

The Death of a Prominent Baptist Clergyman.

Rev. S. B. Kempton, D. D., one of the most highly esteemed Baptist ministers of the Province died at Dartmouth on Tuesday, aged 84 years. He had been pastor at Canada for 27 years, and removed to Dartmouth in 1894. He was one of the oldest graduates of Acadia College and for years secretary of the Board of Governors. He leaves a widow and one son, Rev. Austin Kempton.

Death of Mrs. Max M. VanBuskirk

At Moose Jaw, Sask., Oct. 29th, of pneumonia, Zilpha, beloved wife of Max M. VanBuskirk and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Foster, of North Kingston, N. S. The sympathy of a host of friends goes out to the bereaved ones, especially to the husband and little son Harold in the loss of one whose lovely, unselfish character endeared her to all who knew her. Max VanBuskirk is a nephew of Mrs. Hector MacLean and most of his boyhood was passed at her home near this town.

Spanish Flu

Claims many victims in Canada and should be guarded against.

Minard's Liniment

Is a great Preventative, being one of the oldest remedies used. Minard's Liniment has cured thousands of cases of Grippe, Bronchitis, Sore Throat, Asthma and similar diseases. It is an enemy to Germs. Thousands of bottles being used every day, for sale by all druggists and general dealers. MINARD'S LINIMENT CO., Ltd., Yarmouth, N. S.

Digby County Monitor

DIGBY—Capt. Fred Robinson returned from Halifax Wednesday.

Miss N. K. Smith passed through Digby Saturday enroute for Yarmouth. Miss Nettie McKinnon left Saturday for Boston, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. H. B. Burnham and daughter Olive, of Annapolis, were in town on Saturday. Miss Nettie McKinnon, was a passenger to Berwick, Wednesday, returning Thursday.

Mr. Max Webber and Mr. Fred McHugh were among the passengers to Halifax via Thursday's express.

Annapolis Spectator: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bishop returned from visiting relatives in Weymouth on Saturday. Captain Ahley T. Croft, of the 85th Battalion, N. S. Highlanders, son of Rev. W. I. Croft, has been awarded the Military Cross.

Mrs. C. Harlinson, who was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Trask, Yarmouth, returned to Digby on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Comeau, of Church Point, have purchased the residence and store of C. A. Guadet and intend running a large business at Concession.

The many friends of Dr. T. H. McDonald, of Meteghan, who has been seriously ill of pneumonia, will be pleased to hear that his condition is much improved.

Rev. and Mrs. W. I. Croft returned home Tuesday, after a month spent in Upper Canadian cities. Mr. Croft, who always attended the General Conference of the Methodist Church, which convened at Hamilton, Ont.

An interesting event took place at the home of Captain and Mrs. John Bain, Culloden, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 29th, when a number of friends of the late Mrs. Wilson, who died the fifty-fifth anniversary of their wedding.

Miss Lavinia E. Wilson, who has resided in Edmonton, Alta., for eight years, is visiting relatives and friends in Digby. She has been a recent guest of her sister, Mrs. H. T. Warne, Montague Row. Miss Wilson was assistant pastor of the First Baptist church of the city of Edmonton for four and a half years. She intends leaving America, as a Baptist Missionary.

Yarmouth Telegram: Among those leaving by the D. A. R. on Tuesday morning were Mrs. J. T. Holmes, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Higby, of Woodvale, while her husband is in France with the American Forces. She will spend a few days in Digby with her sister, Mrs. C. L. Post, before leaving for Waltham for the winter.

Her many friends will regret to learn of the death of Georgie, wife of Mr. William Winchester, which occurred Saturday morning, after only a few days' illness of pneumonia, aged 41 years. Besides her husband, she leaves four children and several step-children, also two brothers and three sisters. The funeral, which was largely attended, took place Sunday afternoon with interment in the Baptist cemetery, the service being conducted by Rev. C. W. Robbins, assisted by Rev. Wm. Driffield.

A very sad death took place at Concession, Digby County, Thursday, when Mrs. Innocent Comeau passed away after an illness of only a few days of influenza and pneumonia. The deceased was a most estimable lady and one of that community's most respected residents, being heartily liked by all who knew her. Mrs. Comeau's sudden passing is most tragic, by the fact that besides her husband, she leaves a family of fourteen children, the youngest of whom is an infant of two days. The sincerest sympathy of many relatives and friends throughout the Municipality of Clare goes out to the bereaved husband and family through these dark and trying days.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at St. Patrick's Church Rev. Father Grace, officiating, when Mr. Oliver Ross, son of Mr. William Ross, of Culloden, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mrs. Bibiana, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Vantassel, of Mt. Pleasant. The bride wore a tailored suit of navy blue, with hat to match. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Burket O'Neill, and the groom was attended by Mr. Martin Vantassel, brother of the bride. After the ceremony they returned by auto to the home of the bride's parents where in the evening a wedding supper and reception was held, and a large number of guests were assembled. A very pleasant evening was spent by all. The wedding presents were numerous and handsome.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday morning Oct. 30th, when Miss Bessie Moore Snow, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Ansel Snow, was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Kenneth Hayden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hayden, Rev. W. I. Croft, pastor of the Methodist church, officiated. The bride was gowned in a suit of navy blue, and was unattended. The groom is on the staff of Dakin Bros., hardware merchants, Digby, and the bride has been for some time an efficient and most courteous operator in the service of the N. S. Telephone Company. After the ceremony, the happy couple, accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Maggie Snow and Miss Eunice Milbury, motored to Wolfville, on a short honeymoon trip.

Death of J. Beverly Cornwell. The death of J. Beverly Cornwell took place at his home in Brighton, Digby Co., last Wednesday evening, after several months' illness, aged 86 years. He was well known in Digby where for some time he was a very obliging member of the staff of A. A. Shortliffe's grocery. He was a Past Grand of St. George lodge of Oddfellows and very popular with all the members.

He leaves besides his widow, and six children, a mother, Mrs. Caroline Cornwell, of Digby, and one sister, Mrs. Denton Neily, of Medford, Mass., besides a large circle of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held from his late home Sunday afternoon with interment in the Methodist cemetery in Digby the services being conducted by the Oddfellows, assisted by Rev. W. I. Croft and Rev. C. W. Robbins.

Private Electric Plants for Digby and Weymouth.

The Digby Courier says: Mr. G. D. Denton, representing John Starr, Son & Co., Ltd., of Halifax, was in town Tuesday. His company is now handling the Delco Lighting System, which is giving such good results through the Province. Mr. Denton informed us that the Maritime Fish Corporation has placed an order for one of these lighting systems, to be used for their plant here. This has also been sold to Herbert Jones of Weymouth.

MARINE NEWS

Schr. Valdear, Capt. Coates, is discharging a cargo of soft coal at Digby for W. E. VanBlaarcom.

Yarmouth Times: Capt. A. L. McKinnon of S. S. Keith Cann, who has been "under the weather," is able to be out once more.

Considerable lumber is being shipped by Robin Jones & Whitman from Annapolis to Digby to go thence by vessel to Bunsby Ayres.

Canadian Fisherman: There is a shortage of dried fish on the Atlantic coast this season. The Newfoundland catch is short 500,000 quintals, compared with last year.

Messrs. Hugh Cann & Son, Ltd., Yarmouth, have chartered their tug Mary H. Cann, Capt. E. F. Peters, for three months to the National Fish Co., of Sydney, C. B.

Schr. Neva, Capt. Anthony, at Bear River, with hard coal from New York, has been chartered by W. E. VanBlaarcom to bring a cargo of hard coal from New York to Digby.

Mr. Byron Roney and Mr. Evan Dunn have installed a 5 h. p. gasoline engine in the log boat of the new tern schooner J. E. Backman, which is lying at the government pier, Digby. The engine is manufactured by the Acadia Gas Engine Co.

Fish arrivals at Digby: D. Sproule & Co.'s mixed fish from boatmen, 29,556 lbs.; shipped 551 boxes haddies, 85 boxes fillets, 4 barrels dulse. H. B. Hayden, 6,277 lbs. haddock, 12,977 lbs. hake, shipped 2,100 lbs. fresh haddock, 1,695 lbs. finnan haddies, 505 lbs. fillets.

Schr. Effort, which was picked up in the Bay Fundy Friday, by steamer Bear River, Capt. Woodworth, has been towed to Bear River for repairs. Her crew was taken off by a tern schooner and landed in Windsor. The Effort was built in Granville in 1901 and was in 1914 owned by James E. O'Neil, of Parrsboro.

Wm. Selig, Stonehurst, reports that on Saturday, when eight miles east of Green Island, he came across what he thinks is a canvas buoy. He describes it as very big, apparently filled with air. It has 52 fathoms of half inch steel wire attached. Mr. Selig took the object in tow and landed it at Stonehurst, where he says, "you can see it for yourself." "Bill" says the contraption looks as if it at one time belonged to his namesake, William Hohenzollern.

An exchange says: Captain J. A. Sabeau, who is in command of a tern schooner at present in port, is making his first visit to Halifax in twenty-five years. The last time he was here he was on the two masted schooner Oriole. During those years he has done much fishing off the coast, but has never visited this port. About four months ago he lost his schooner the Maggie Ellis in the Bay of Fundy. Captain Sabeau is a native of Port Lorne, Annapolis County.

Send Your Xmas Boxes EARLY!

A FEW SUGGESTIONS FOR THE Overseas Xmas Boxes. We furnish the Empty Boxes at 20c. OXO in tins, VIGORAL in jars, CHOCOLATTA in pkgs., COCOA in pkgs., CONDENSED COFFEE, MAPLE BUTTER in tins, PLAYERS CIGARETTES, PLUG AN CUT TOBACCO, TABLE RAISINS in pkgs., DATES in pkgs., SPEARMINT GUM, PEANUT BUTTER in jars.

Also a full line of Chocolate, Cream and Nut Bars, and Fancy Biscuit. Any person buying the above goods to the amount of $2.00, Cash, will be given an Overseas Box FREE. B. N. MESSINGER, HIGH CLASS GROCERIES, Queen St., Bridgetown. Phone 78, License No. 8-5487.

QUEEN HEATERS. Will save you time, trouble and money. The only stove with draft which will save you 25% to 50% fuel. Absolutely air tight. No dust or ashes can get out. Trouble to operate. Can keep going all night and will give you more heat with less fuel than any other stove. Made from the RUSSIAN SHEET IRON, in all sizes and styles. from $3.50 to $18.

MAGEE & CHARLTON Hardware, Stoves, Ranges and Kitchen Furnishings, etc. QUEEN STREET, BRIDGETOWN

TODD'S SEASONABLE GOODS To Arrive this Week A CAR OF Flour & Feed GROCERY

Labrador Herring! Large, Fat, July Herring in Pails, $2.25 GUARANTEED GOOD Call, Write or Phone Your Order AT ONCE A. J. BURNS Goods Delivered License No. 8-15669 Phone 56-11

Use the left over meat. Even the smallest portions can be made into appetizing dishes when combined with a small quantity of BOVRIL

STORAGE BATTERIES WINTER STORAGE NOW IS THE TIME to arrange for the storing of your Batteries for the winter, this is VERY IMPORTANT. By having the Battery properly cared for during the winter months means prolonged service. We store both WET AND DRY. WET means to be kept charged all the time. DRY means to take the Battery to pieces, cure the plates, re-insulate the Battery completely, and recharging before returning. MR. FRED E. BATH, of Bridgetown, is our representative. See him about it. Halifax Vulcanizing Works OFFICIAL WILLARD SERVICE STATION 40-42 Grafton Street HALIFAX, N. S.

Remember that Every added Subscription Helps to make This paper better For everybody

VOL. XLVII

KA

German gle an

The Bri the follow Chronicle

Paris des Emperior Willing to a despatch

Mayor N lowing des

Official n the Kaiser add public notice an in your town to which is appear all blessings flow

The Bri the follow morning, November

Armistice