SERIOUS DEPLETION IN FUNDS

HARD TIMES HARD ON THE POOR CONSUMPTIVE

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives Makes an Urgent Appeal for Money.

$35,000 Required to Cover Bank Overdraft and Provide for Maintenance of Poor Patients.

These head-lines tell the story of our needs.

They are heavy and urgent. Many times during the past twelve months the question has pressed itself upon the Trustees, "Can we continue the work further?"

Every month brought its quota of accounts for salaries and wages of staff, bills of butcher, milkman, eggs, groceries, heavy coal bills—a serious item—and other uncontrollable expenses so long as the doors were kept open.

FREE HOSPITAL FOR CONSUMPTIVES

These had to be paid somehow. Contributions—especially after the turn of the year when the financial depression was felt at its keenest—fell off to such an extent, that each month the burden became heavier.

During all this period there was only one thing to do, and that was to lean on our banker—swelling the bank overdraft.

The trial was the severest in the history of these Muskoka Homes, in which nearly 3,000 persons, stricken by the dread white plague, have been cared for.

Shack Life at Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

But never for a single hour did the doors of the Free Hospital fail to swing open, and give a welcome to suffering ones without money and without price.

The good news has gone forth of a rich harvest the wide Dominion over.

Friends, we come to you at this time, when the clouds of depression are being lifted, asking that you now—in the direness of our extremity—help to lift the burden being carried—not for any personal gain, but solely, alone, only on behalf of suffering sisters and brothers.

Our plea is on behalf of the sick ones.

What will you give?
Do not say nay.
Help generously.
Help all you can.
Help some.
Help now.

Contributions may be sent to W. J. GAGE, Esq., Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina Avenue, Toronto; or J. S. ROBERTSON, Sec.-Treasurer National Sanitarium Association, 847 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

A TALE OF THE TRAIL.

(J. W. Foley, in New York Times.)

This life's a middlin' crooked trail, an' after forty years of knockin' round I'm free to say th' right ain't always clear.

I've seen a lot of folks go wrong—git off the main highroad. An' fetch up in a swamp somewhere almost before they knowed.

I don't pretend to be no judge of right an' wrong in men; I ain't been perfect all my life, an' may not be again.

An' sometimes when I see a chap who seems plumb gone astray I think perhaps he started right but somehow lost his way.

I like to think the good in 'em by far outweighs the ill.

Th' trail of life is middlin' hard an' lots of it uphill.

There's places where there ain't no guides or signboards up, an' so it's partly guesswork an' part luck which way you chance to go.

I've seen th' trails fork some myself, an' when I had to choose

I wasn't sure when I struck out if it win or lose.

So when I see a man who looks as though he'd gone astray,

I like to think he started right an' only lost his way.

I've seen a lot of 'em start out with grit an' spunk to scale

Th' hills that purple over there, an' somehow lose th' trail;

I've seen 'em stop an' start again, not sure about th' road;

An' found 'em lost on some blind trail almost before they knowed.

I've seen 'em circlin', tired out, with every pathway blind.

With cliffs before 'em strainin' through th' dusk, when twilight's gittin' gray.

A-lookin' for th' main highroad—poor chaps who've lost their way.

It ain't so far from right to wrong—th' trail ain't hard to lose;

There's times I'd almost give my horse to know which one to choose;

There ain't no signboards on th' road 't' keep you on th' track;

Wrong's sometimes white as driven snow an' right looks awful black!

I don't set up to be no judge of right and wrong in men;

I've lost th' trail sometimes myself—I may git lost again.

An' if I see some chap who looks as though he'd gone astray

I want to shove my hand in his an' help him find th' way.

Dieby, N. S., January 2nd, 1909.

Mr. E. P. Hanson, Mill Owner and Lumberman of Tusket, N. S., says:

"For several winters past I have been carrying on a large lumber business in the New Brunswick woods. In making up our supplies we never forget a case of Empire Liniment, we simply cannot do without it. Our men use it constantly for colds, sprains, chaps, etc., and it never fails. In the stables our teamsters say that for colic, distempers, swellings or sprains it gives results quicker than any other remedy they have ever used. Mr. Hanson further states that he does not hesitate to say that Empire Liniment leads the Liniment world for effectiveness in making cures."

FARM NOTES.

Select the breed you like best and stick to it.

Hogs are fond of wood ashes. The ash contains bone making material and the charcoal regulates digestion.

It takes good winter quarters and careful feeding to make a profit of late fall pigs. They must not be stunted.

Are the cows in good trim for the work of the new year? Better bet than so, because that will decide the outcome of your season's work.

Extraordinary Development of Devonshire Girl

That there is one, Peter Pan the fewer in real life this Christmas is due to the striking success of a medical experiment which a well known London doctor has been trying with Mildred Hart, the 23-year-old Devonshire girl who "never grew up."

This girl, who last October was crooning baby talk to her doll and required the constant nursing and protection of her family, is now well on her way to become a normal, useful being. The doctor who has been directing the treatment, which has added so many years' mental and physical development in a few weeks, described the case.

"The young woman," when treatment began," said the doctor, "was to all intents and purposes a dull and backward child of five. Thirty-three inches in height, with lanky, dry hair, bulging forehead, broad, fat nose, and pale complexion, she sat all day, even in summer, shivering before an open fire. The limbs, hands, and feet were cold and harsh to the touch."

"The anterior fontanelle, or 'soft spot' of the head, which, in the baby, becomes closed in the first few months of life, could still be felt. She was uninterested and unobservant, and could speak only three or four words. Her teeth were the teeth of childhood; her appetite was very poor, and frequently she took no more than half a pint of liquid food a day."

"Treatment was begun two months ago, twelve, and a half grains of thyroid extract (the thyroid gland is in the lower part of the neck) being taken each night. Her condition now, after two months' treatment, is as follows: In height she has increased over two and a half inches; the skin, which was harsh and dry, is now moist, warm and natural. The nose has taken on a more normal shape, and the dull vacant expression has been largely lost. The hair, which was scanty and dry, is growing fast and has a more natural appearance. She has cut several fresh teeth, and her lack of appetite, which used to be such a source of worry, has been replaced by a constant hunger."

"The most wonderful change, however, is in her mental condition. She has acquired a most extraordinary loquacity. It seems as if she had been listening and storing up words from babyhood. She could not have learned her present vast vocabulary in the last few weeks; she evidently knew the words before, but was unable to reproduce them until the thyroid extract stimulated into activity and development the hitherto-latent powers of speech."

"The slight increase in weight which has taken place in the two months shows the bumper the system must have had for the hitherto missing thyroid secretion. If the ordinary individual takes extract of thyroid he rapidly loses weight, since the slightest excess of this peculiar substance causes a rapid breaking-down of the fatty tissues of the body. Here, however, the twelve and a half grains taken daily did not make an excess, but barely supplied the amount which nature had been craving for years."

To relieve the worst forms of Rheumatism, take a teaspoonful of the following mixture after each meal and at bedtime:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

These harmless ingredients can be obtained from any home drugstore, and are easily mixed by shaking them well in a bottle. Relief is generally felt from the first few doses.

This prescription forces the clogged up, inactive kidneys to filter and strain from the blood the poisonous waste matter and uric acid, which causes Rheumatism. It is not only the most painful and torturous disease, but dangerous to life, this simple recipe will no doubt be greatly valued by many sufferers here at home, who should at once prepare the mixture to get this relief.

It is said that a person who would take this prescription regularly, a dose or two daily, or even a few times a week, would never have serious Kidney or Urinary disorders or Rheumatism.

Cut this out and preserve it. Good Rheumatism prescriptions which really relieve are scarce, indeed, and when you need it, you want it badly.

The estimate is made by Nova Scotia newspapers that the agricultural and fishery, manufacturing and mineral industries of the province last year produced wealth to the amount of $103,000,000. That is a fairly large figure, meaning fully $1,000 a family. If it is right, Nova Scotians should be well up among the people of Canada, who are proving rich, says the Montreal Gazette.

WATER GAUGE BURST

C. P. R. Fireman Badly Scalded

To C. P. R. fireman, Geo. H. Duffus, who lives in Robertson Street, Fort William, while on his engine near Westford happened a nasty accident. The water gauge of the locomotive burst and scalded the whole of the left side of his face and head terribly.

"It so happened," said Duffus to our representative, "that I had a box of Zam-Buk in my pocket, which I used for a sore on my lip, and when I had recovered from the first shock of the accident, I produced the balm and had it applied freely to the scalded parts. At the time I applied it I was suffering acute agony, but within a wonderfully short time Zam-Buk gave me ease. I was able to continue my journey, and upon reaching home I obtained more Zam-Buk and continued the treatment. It acted wonderfully well, and in a few days had the wound nicely healing. I don't know anything so fine as a healer of burns, scalds, cuts and similar injuries which workers are so liable to; and in my opinion a box of Zam-Buk should be kept handy in every worker's home."

There is something different and superior about Zam-Buk. Time and again workers in all branches of trade have proved its vast superiority over the advertised ointments and salves of the day. No doubt the fact that Zam-Buk is made entirely from herbal essences and extracts, while ordinary ointments contain more or less animal fats and oils, goes a long way to explain Zam-Buk's superiority. However this may be, the fact remains that in four continents to which it has been introduced within ten years it has become the leading household balm!

For burns, cuts, scalds, bruises, eczema, piles, ulcers, ring-worm, itch, salt-rheum, bad leg, festering sores, shapped places, colic-sores, frost-bites and all skin injuries and diseases, Zam-Buk is beyond doubt a most marvellous cure.

Druggists and stores sell at 50 cents a box and the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, will mail a box, most free, upon receipt of price, to any of our readers who may have difficulty in obtaining a supply of the genuine Zam-Buk from their local stores.

AT DEATH'S DOOR

Doctors had to give her Morphine to ease the pain

Five boxes of "Fruit-a-lives" Cured Her

ENTERPRISE, ONT., Oct. 1, 1908.

For seven years I suffered with what physicians called a "Water Tumor". I would get so bad at times that I could hardly endure the pain. I could neither sit, stand nor lie down. It cost me a great deal of money, but my cure seemed hopeless, and my friends hourly expected my death. It was during one of these very bad spells that a family friend brought a box of "Fruit-a-lives" to the house. After much persuasion I commenced to take them, but I was so bad that it was only when I had taken nearly two boxes that I commenced to experience relief. I kept up the treatment, however, and after taking five boxes I was cured, and when I appeared on the street my friends said, "The dead has come to life." And this seemed literally true because I certainly was at death's door. But now I can work almost as well as ever I could, and go camping and berry-picking with the girls. I will be glad if you will publish this testimonial, if it will further the interests of "Fruit-a-lives." They should be in every household. Yours very truly, Mrs. JAMES FENWICK.

Through the whole country around Enterprise, Ont., people are talking about this wonderful cure. By their marvellous action on the Kidneys, "Fruit-a-lives" cured Mrs. Fenwick when the doctors said she could not be operated on and was doomed to die. "Fruit-a-lives" cured Mrs. Fenwick when all else failed. Try them for your trouble, 25c. and 50c. a box, at dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price. Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

RESULT OF MONCTON'S SCOTT ACT CRUSADE.

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 14.—In seventeen successful searches made by the Moncton police during the Scott Act campaign of 1908, $3,500 worth of liquor was seized and later destroyed according to the annual report of Chief of Police Rideout.

There were 107 Scott Act convictions during the year, twenty-five were taken to jail for one month and nine for three months, besides fines imposed, the year being a most unprofitable one in Scott Act matters.

The report also shows a decrease in drunkenness, there being 228 arrests for inebriation during the year against 326 in the latter nine months of 1907.

Serious offences against the law were almost unknown in Moncton during the year, despite the large amount of foreign labor in and about the community. There were 434 arrests for various causes during the year, seven being females.

While we are nagging our people to buy from home merchants instead of sending abroad, says a contemporary we have our weather eye on the merchant who sends abroad for office supplies when he can get them at home just as good and as cheap.

THE COMING WAR.

It is earnestly hoped that war in the Near East will be prevented. Austria eagerly aims at the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina but Serbia and Turkey declare that this will be a cause for war. England, Russia and Italy want peace now more than ever. In the face of so great a calamity it would ill become Christian nations to begin shedding Christian blood. If Austria insists on war it may prove a very dangerous business; the beginning of a great and dreadful conflagration.

FEVER SORES.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's Salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by

The Ceiling For Looks--And All Else

You wouldn't put anything BUT A Pedlar Art Steel Ceiling in any building of yours if you really knew how far ahead of every other kind of ceiling mine really are. Just as a matter of economy—for a Pedlar Ceiling costs no more to start with than the very best decorated plaster; and yet it will be a perfect ceiling long after the best plaster has become a dangerous network of cracks. Economy is the first thing to think of in ceiling any room, of course; for it can't be a low-priced ceiling if you have to repair it every year or two. My Art Steel Ceiling will last as long as the building.

Why shouldn't it last? It's STEEL. It can't crack, no matter how unevenly the building settles. Its surface can't flake off. Moisture can't possibly get through it. The heaviest jarring overhead cannot loosen it. It is THE permanent ceiling. Which one of those facts is true of a plaster ceiling?

And, as for the looks of a plaster ceiling compared with the beauty of a Pedlar Art Steel Ceiling—comparison simply isn't possible. For my ceilings, designed by notable artists—some Two Thousand Designs—are absolutely correct from an artistic viewpoint. The patterns are doubly stamped by huge and very powerful special Pedlar machinery, into sheet steel, in a way that embosses the design in clear, sharp, high relief, with every detail wrought out to perfection. Some metal ceilings are blunt from the most delicate pastel shades to color-schemes fairly Byzantine in their strength and strikingness. And, of course, my ceilings are fireproof,—which is one reason why anybody who carries insurance will save their whole cost in a few years time, simply through reduced premiums.

I wish you could see some literature I would like to send you—free, of course—upon this ceiling question. Between the illustrations and the text I guess I could show you that Pedlar Art Steel Ceilings are the kind of ceilings you really want to get the next time you build or repair any structure worth ceiling at all. Tell me your address (write to our nearest place) and I will see you get the information you ought to have about the ceiling you ought to buy.

PEDLAR ART STEEL CEILINGS

For Churches, Residences, Civic Edifices, Schools, Libraries, Hotels, Club Houses, Office Buildings, Factories, Shops, Stores and vague in design,—stamped badly. Mine are not.

There is a Pedlar Art Steel Ceiling for every style of architecture or fashion of furnishing,—Gothic, French Renaissance, Louis XIV., Greek, Colonial, or whatever; and in each architectural period you can have a choice of patterns that is wider than the whole range of some makers' output. With paint and judgment, my Art Steel Ceilings lend themselves to color effects as dainty or as brilliant as one might wish, show you that Pedlar Art Steel Ceilings are the kind of ceilings you really want to get the next time you build or repair any structure worth ceiling at all. Tell me your address (write to our nearest place) and I will see you get the information you ought to have about the ceiling you ought to buy.

Pedlar products include every kind of sheet metal building materials—too many items to even mention here. You can have a catalog—information—estimate—price—advice—just for the asking. We'd like specially to interest you in our Art Steel Ceilings and Side Walls—they are a revelation to many people. More than 2,000 designs. May we send you booklet and pictures of some of them?
