

Dennistoun.

JAMES DENNISTOUN, of Dennistoun, Co. Renfrew, Sco., representative of the ancient family of Danzielstoun or Dennistoun of that ilk, d. 1st June 1834,* m. 1801 Mary-Ramsay, dau. of George Oswald and had issue, viz.:

1.—James, b. 1803, d. 1855, J.P. and D.L., m. 1835 Isabella-Katherine, dau. of Hon. James-Woolfe Murray, but d.s.p.

2.—George, b. 1806, d. 1849, merchant in Glasgow, m. 1847 Margaret-Helen, dau. of Henry Wallis, and had issue, James-

Wallis, of Dennistoun, late Lieut. R.N., who m. Caroline-Joanna, dau. of Henry-Gore Booth, son of Sir Robert-Newcomen Booth, Bart., and has issue.

3.—Robert, of whom below.

4.—Richard, d. young.

5.—Alexander, m. Margaret, dau. of Peter Redpath of Montreal, but d.s.p.

1.—Margaret, d.

2.—Isabella, d., m. to Rev. John Wilson, D.D.

3.—Mary, d.

4.—Elizabeth, d.

5.—Camilla, d.

6.—Janet, d., m. to William-Gillespie Mitchell.

Robert, above named, b. 13 Jany. 1815, d. 31 May 1895; came to Canada in 1834 and settled at Peterborough; Barrister-at-law, Q.C., and a Bencher of the Law Society; County Judge of Peterborough

*A pedigree of this family, showing the descent of James Dennistoun, is contained in Burke's Colonial Gentry, vol. 2.