Prof. Day—"A common method employed to make beef tender is to run the animal around the yard immediately before slaughtering."

(Voice from rear)—"I wish we had Tom Longboat for college chef."

Prof. Jarvis—"How is it, French, that your insect collection is composed of specimens from Eastern Canada, and you spent the summer in the West?"

French (evidently embarrassed)—"Well, er-you see, I caught most of them in migration season, sir."

You could enjoy yourself for a nice meal and a cup of real American Coffee.
