

Miscellaneous.

THE craze on electric study is beginning to bear fruit. "Are you the conductor?" asked a lad on a tramcar. "I am," replied the courteous official, "and my name is Wood." "Oh, that can't be," said the boy, "for wood is a non-conductor."

H. AD and soft corns can stand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effective every time.

GEORGE IV., speaking to Archbishop Sulton respecting his large family, made this remark: "I believe your grace has better than a dozen?" "No, sire," replied the archbishop, "only eleven." "Well, replied the king, "isn't that better than a dozen?"

A LITTLE girl of seven exhibited much disquiet at hearing of a new exploring expedition. When asked why she should care about it, she said: "If they discover any more countries, they will add to the geography I have to study. There are countries enough in it now."

RESPECT OLD AGE.—An old favourite is the remedy known as Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Thirty years reliable for cholera morbus diarrhoea and summer complaint.

CELERY SOUP.—Boil a small cupful of rice in three pints of milk, until it will pass through a sieve. Grate the head and white part of three heads of celery on a bread grater. Add this to the milk after it has been strained, and put to it a quart of good strong veal broth. Let it boil until the celery is very tender. Season with salt, cayenne pepper and a small bit of butter.

PERSONS of sedentary habits, the greater part of whose time is passed at the desk, or in some way bent over daily tasks, cramp the stomach, weaken its muscles, and incur dyspepsia early. Their most reliable and safest medicinal resource is Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, the Great Blood Purifier, and which is specially adapted to Indigestion, biliousness, Constipation and Poverty or Impurity of the Blood.

An Old Soldier's EXPERIENCE.

"Calvert, Texas,

May 3, 1882.

MY wish to express my appreciation of the valuable qualities of

as a cough remedy.

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.

"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases. J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.
