Chronio Nasai Catarrh which they cannot cure.

SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH.—Dull servy headache, obstruction of the nasa masures, discharges failing from the head ato the threat, sometimer protuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, ournicht, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery, and inflamed; there is ringing in the cars, desfroes, hacking or coughing to clear the threat, expecteration of offensive uniter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a masai twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of diziness, with mental depression, a backing cought and general dobility. Only a few of the above-named symptoms are likely to be present in any one case. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood by physicians. By its mild, soothing, and healing properties, Br. Sago's Catarrh, itemedy cures the worst cases of Catarrh, "cold in the head," Coryza, and Catarrha; Headache.

"Entold Agony from Catarrh."

Prof. W. HAUSNER, the famous memerist, of lihaca, N. Y., writes: "Some ten years ago I suffered untold agony from chronic nassl catarrh. My family physician gave me up as uncurable, and said I must die. My case was unch a bad one, that every day, towards sunset, my voice would become so hears I could barely speak above a whisper. In the morning my coughing and clearing of my threat would almost strangle me. By the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh itemedy, in three months, I was a well man, and the cure has been permanent."
