A TRUSTY GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY

An illustrated book of nearly 800 pages, treating Physiology, Hygiene, Marriage, Medical Practice, etc. Describing all known diseases and ailments, and giving plain prescriptions for their cure, with proper directions for home treatment.

The RECIPES are endorsed by eminent physicians and the medical press. Remedies are always given in a pleasant form, and the reasons for their use. It describes the best Washes, Liniments, Salves, Plasters, Infusions, Pills, Injections, Sprays, Syrups, Tonics, etc. These are valuable to the physician and nurse, making it a manual for reference. 80 pages are devoted to PHYSIOLOGY, giving an accurate and extensive description of the wonderful and mysterious working of the machinery within ourselves, correcting many popular errors, and marking vividly the stumbling blocks where most people, innocently or carelessly, begin to lose health. CURRAN, one day, when the judge was shaking his head, said, addressing the jury: Gentlemen, don't be convinced by the learned judge shaking his head, for there's nothing in it.

DEAR SIR,—I have used Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for bronchitis and bad cough, with the best results, and can highly recommend it to all sufferers.—ROSCOR PUGSLEY, 250 Delaware Ave., Toronto.

ELI PERKINS once quieted a sceptic who was objecting to the story of Balaam's ass, by saying to him: If you will make an ass, I will make him speak. The sceptic probably remained quiet.

A SEA voyage is an expensive and extensive prescription, especially when equally good results as regards health, are to be had by simply taking Berdock Blood Bitters according to directions. It is a specific for dyspepsia, cleanses the blood, regulates the liver, bowels and kidneys and removes all impure matter from the system.

HERBERT SPENCER says Americans are so driven by business cares that they never stop to leisurely examine anything. Guess he never saw five or six hundred busy Americans standing around two hours watching three men raising an office safe to a fourth-storey window.

BERCIAN'S PILLS act like magic on a Weak Stomach.

DEAR SIR,—My children were taken ill with ulcerated sore throats bordering on diphtheria. I had nothing in the house but Hagyard's Yellow Oil which I used with great benefit. I am sure if it had not been for it the disease would have developed into diphtheria. It is a splendid medicine.—MRS. E. CAMERON, Moore's Falls, Ont.

THE Chinese in the United States make a brandy which they sell to the Indians for fifty cents a bottle, and make twenty. When they become as far civilized as the Americans they will be able to master the art of clearing forty cents or a fifty cent bottle of brandy. It looks as if the Indian was taking advantage of the heathen Chinese.

THE Czar of Russia probably has his own troubles as well as we common mortals. Where we have the advantage in such troubles as dyspepsia, biliousness, constipation, bad blood and the like is in being able to procure easily a perfect remedy in Burdock Blood Bitters, nature's grand restorative tonic and purifier.

WHEN Shotwell died the boys clubbed together to buy him a tombstone. They couldn't agree upon the inscription. Fogg suggested this: His gun never missed fire. Let us hope he may be like his gun. But this was considered somewhat personal and was rejected without a division.

ONE small bottle worth more than cart-loads of other preparations. So says Timothy Baker, of Lowell, Mass., of WISTAR'S BAL-SAM OF WILD CHERRY, after being cured by its use of a terrible cough, accompanied by spitting of blood and loss of sleep.

EDITH: A first-class summer resort is one at which the cottagers will not speak to the hotel guests. A second-class resort is one at which the hotel guests will not speak to the cottagers. A third-class resort is one at which everybody tries to have a good time.

DEAR SIR,—I am happy to say I have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil for burns, bruises, sprains and cuts, and find that there is nothing better. I recommend it to all my friends around here.—ALAN G. McLEOD, Souris, Man.

A PARISH clerk apologized to a Church dignitary who had been summoned to take a service at a small village church: I am sorry, sir, to have brought such a gentleman as you to this poor little place. A worse gentleman would have done if we had only known where to find him.

ADVICE FREE.—Keep the head cool, the feet warm, and the bowels regular, and no disease can attack you.
