The Catholic Register.

"Truth is Catholic; proclaim it ever, and God will effect the rest."—BI EZ.

Vol. VII.-No. 3.

TORONTO. THURSDAY, JANUARY 19. 1899.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

IN THE VALLEY

OF OVOCA.

A HOLIDAY SKETCH

HI.

The men who annihilated the infamous "North Cork" at Odlart and Ennious "North Cork" at Odlart and Ennious "North Cork" at Odlart and Ennious "Rother Cork" are worthy of a glorious place among the heroes who have fought and died for the Old Lud". The thoughts of our lriver Billy Roche and have been running much in the same ine as my own, for as we left the little own I could hear him "humourin" i popular robel ballad, "The Boys of Woxford." As I had heard the song to tong bot and Nove Ross song by a "Woxford in," if the present general on I was able to just in with Billy in he chorus:

"What soft wat he art and hand "To barts to twan the pating cram "Act been are never land."

Our way my now the keep council the other side of the art of the package the little theat by weather the package the little theat by weather and the little heat by weather and the little heat by weather and the little adorn the road-side here and that the little adorn the road-side here and the little sold systems, everything. No arby, through fairy grove and meadows flows the risor. We crossed the romanic lity covered old brilge over the Avoubeg, alighted from the patietic gran and page side of the patietic lity covered old brilge over the Avoubeg middle the growth of the cross of the spot immertalized by Moore, where "the bright waters met." The pre-turesque old stone bridge over the Avoubeg which we had just crossed is about thirty yards above the junction of the currents. The Avoubeg mingles its shallow stream with the deeper Avonmere and the united waters run sparkling on, now eddying over the smooth, round sand-tone, now frotting then green banks, and laughing sotily as though joyful at the union, like friends long-parted. The Avounore, the more impetuous of the two, outers the "Meeting" from the right, after having also passed under an old arch of stone, rycovered and picturesque. All things soom to combine to make the secon here more and more beautiful and romantic. The gleaning waters, the green sward that runs up between them, the green ward that runs up between them, the green wa

- "There is not in this wide world, a valley so sweet
  "As that vale in whose bosom the bright waters meet."

valley so sweet

"As that valo in whose bosem the bright waters meet."

It was a scene never to be forgetten
de the sense of its serone and peaceful auty comes upon me now, as my emory results it, just as vividly as it
d that August day years ago.
On the grassy plot which last divides
o streams is a large tree whose hanggreathess almost touch the ground, seath this, Moore is said to have ritten the first lines of his song. The thenticity of this legend seems to be ken for granted by most tourists, for s bark of the great tree is hacked and t in the cruellest manner, by the penures of admirers eager to bring away assuvenir of the romantie spot. Sitting are by was dilind man. the ownershall
are by was dilind man.
the ownershall by the ownershall
are by was dilind man.
the ownershall by the ownershall
are by was dilind man.
the ownershall by the ownershall
are by was dilind man.
the ownershall by was a bid ownershall by tween his feet. As iron chain was fixed to the dog's neck and the biind an had ited the other end around his rule; to keep the little britten are bid
an internet by was a bid
an internet by was bed in unison! Again the bid to fairy voices answord back from ove and dell. The plaintive melody the flute barmonized with the quite antiper of the scene, and we felt it in the learts. We seem pressed his ontesteched palm with unnusul breath, was a first and the cheset of the scene, and were pressed his ontesteched pal

p his paid face, for couns were pressual his outstretched palm with unusual beraitity. We then asked him to give us an Irish g and soon the woods were ringing to lively tune, the name of which he told as was "The Miners of Wicklow." Also rethe discouraging effects of alien rule here are no miners with their happy smilles in Wicklow to-day. The great out the histories and windlasses stand unused in the hillsides, the shalts are clay-toly it parts of the streams are still trained with the rich ore, but where on the miners and their once happy smilles. Who can answer! Heply as coldsmiths says:
"Through torrid track with faltering stops they go Where wild Altama murmurs to their woo."

placid waters of Cork Harbor, and here in like manner Billy Roche seemed to take umbrage at this intrusion of Eog-lish power on the scene. "Fine looking men these peelers are Billy" I remark-de moving over to that individual. "Fine lookin' ch?" sported Billy disadufully, as if the dea had nover once occurred to lim before, "sure 'tis easy for 'em to be fine lookin' with brand now shuts on, an' shiny bolts, an' a split in their ball as straight an a ramond. Sure they had a sure that the else to do but wagedin the last as straight as a ramond. Sure they had the class to do but wagedin the ball of the ball of the last as straight as a ramond. Sure they had the class to do but wagedin the ball of the ball of the last as straight as a ramond. Sure they had the class the sure of the last as straight as a sure of the straight as a sure of the last as the last as the sure of the last as th

Billy fusished this long cration quite out of breath, glaring savagely at the two tall policenen who were delightfully unconscious of the storm they had acoused.

The setting sun was now poising over the haughty crest of Lugoaquilla and his last rich beams, touched with fre the repulse of the meeting waters. There was something almost hexample in the scene around, so preaetful and 1 capy it apported Molting one of our rary was a well-known and talented story, from the Marble Utio of had ke may, and see we all stood there on the bank, at near as we could get to where the many and as we all stood there on the tright was transpersed in the shrinker of the bright was transpersed in the shrinker of the country of the many of the strains rose and full to turning and when the softened tones duel away the passing waters seemed to take up and when the softened tones duel away the passing waters seemed to take up the burden of the song and bear is on with them adown the vals laughing and sobbing. The time and place so appropriate made that song a thing never to be forgotten and we lift the beaution vale; our ears haunted with the molody of the closing lines:

Sweet vale of Ovoca, how calm could I rest.

SLIAV-NA-MON. Death of Mr. Maurice Londregan.

Death of Mr Maurice Londregau.

Peterbronovou, Jan. 12.—The death of Mr. Maurice Londregau occurred at his residence lot 20, 8th concession, of Otombeo on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 7th. after an illness lasting only from the provious day. A short time since he was kicked on one of his legs by a horse, but re-overed so as to be able to move about. On Friday he was seized with an attack of heart disease and died on Saturday afternoon. The deceased was sixty-seven years of ago. a-d was probably the oldest Canadian born resident of the township. He was held in very high esteem by his neighbors and all who knew him. The very large number that followed his remains to the Catholic cemetery in Peterberough, Monday morning, was an ovidence of the high place he held in the esteem of the community. May his soul rost in peace.

A Genial Visitor.

A Genial Visitor.

Mr. Stephen Waish of Arthur village was a visitor in The Resursek office last week Mr. Walsh is a very gopular figure in his own district and has a wide circle of friends throughout the province. He is a warm admirer of The Resursek recognizing it as an indispensable voice in the journalism of the Dominion Neither party favoritism mor sonsitiveness influences the public estem in which the paper is growing Mr. Walsh, who has been an active Liberal partyman for many years tells us the paper is admired for its intelligent expression of Catholis traching and opinion, its steady and wasterful interest in Irish news and Iraband's natural cause and its outspoken advocacy of C. Ishich interests in the social and public life of Catadas.

Peath of James Henry, LLR.

Death of Janues Heary, LL.B.

On Dec. 31-t. Mr. Myles Heary, Poterborough, received a telegram announcing the death of his brother, Mr. James Heary, Lt. B., formerly of the firm of Damble & Heary, Peterborough. Mr. Henry was 38 years of ago and was born and lived in Peterborough till about ton years ago, when he removed to Chicago. Ho was educated in Peterborough, afterwards in St. Michael's College, Toronto-His brother, Redmond, who lives in Chicago, took charge of the funeral, and the deceased was buried with American military honours. The burial took place at Mount Olivet Courtery, about 16 miles from the contre of Chicago, but within the limits. The Rev. Father Cox, chaplain of the regiment, was prosent at the grave.

Father Grogan, C.SS R., Preaches a Mission.

A general mission to last four weeks is being held in St Anno's parish, Montreal. Four missions will occupy a week. The Rev. Father Grogan, cf St. Patrick's Church, Toronto, and a native of Quebec, is preaching throughout all the missions.

"It is a Great Public Benefit."—
These significant word, were need in relation to Dr. Thomas Ectheriate Oit, by a gentlooman win, head thoroughly tested its morits in his own case—having been outed by it of lamous as of the force, of three or toury arrivatantop. I nover falls to runnyn soreness av woll as lavoness, and it an incomparable pulmode and corrective.

A NOTABLE DECISION.

There was a decision rendered by the Supreme Court of the state of Michigan some time last month, which is worth taking notice of. It is not remarkable for any great originality of thought or for any great originality of thought or special soundness of judgment displayed. But the matter to be adjudicated lifts it above the ordinary, and will, I think, make it often quoted.

In Michigan, as every place clea the world over, there is difference of opinion as to whether and how far religious instruction should be introduced into the schools. To effect a sort of compromise between the centending parties a committee of three-consistent of a promise between the contending parties a committee of three-consisting of a Catholic a Protestant and a Jow —was instructed to make or the scheduler from the both, as would be mortpless up or at all creats least displeasing all round, and have them printed as a reading book for the schools. A taxpayer objected to this arrangement on the ground that it violated the constitution of the state, which makes it a dawful to compel anyone "to pay bithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any number of the gospel, or teacher of religion."

after the usual exp. rieuces found its way before the supreme tribunal; the advocates of the readings manetaining that the charter of the old Northwest Territory, of which Michigan is a part, overrade the constitution which it autoated. The court, however, disregarded this issue altogether and decided on quite other grounds. It declared that the book—that is the bible readings—had no religious significance or purpose whatever. It was merely a reading book, and as such might be read, as long as is what I would invite attention to in the state of the state affire the truth of he optical always contended for by Oatholish of the state affire the truth of the optical always contended for by Oatholish of the state affire the truth of the optical always contended for by Oatholish of the state affire and the state and t ing?

Is it that the bible societies are not a religious body at all, but a huge Trust on the part of publishers who find it more profitshele to them trade to adopt a religious name. The whole business londs plausibility to this suspicion.

Uneasiness in Belleville.

Hamilton Herald—The only trouble of any kind that we have noticed in connection with the organization of the three new councils, Bellowile, Charbam and St. Catharines, which have, returned by the vote of all the electors, boards of aldermeureduced in number has arisent in Bellowille, Charbam and St. Catharines, which have, returned by the vote of all the electors, boards of aldermeureduced in number has arisent of the wealth of the connection of the two important committees of the new Bell ville council are Roman Catharines and Sulville council are Roman Catharines and Sulville council are Roman Catharines and Sulville council are Roman Catharines, and the that technique and solid periodene, and that that technique are considered in the connections of a cosp racy to overturn the Protest ant rollegen. But it can hardly he regreted that they control made for they have discussed to the Catharines and capital texts to the Bellowine they are which made to the Catharine of the Cathar

Oblituary,

Mc. Michael Dyle, for the last flty yoars a resident of Toronto, died at his house on Dake street on Thursday, Jan. 12th. He was born in the county of Korry, Ireland, in 1821, and came to Canada in 1847—living in this city continuously from that date till his death. Mr. Dyle was extenuously engaged in the fish trade, which he largely controlled, and in which he was very successful. Like all his countrymen ne had a warm heart; and when anything of a Catholic or national character needdeasistance he gave genorously. His funeral (which took place on Sunday) was munerously attended, the Reversal Catholical and the street of the country of the country of the publication of the country of the

Washinaron, D. C., January 14.—
Hon. Nelson A. Dingley, of Maine, leader de Republican side of the floor of the Hone of Ho

Athens' Church Debt.
Reduced from $2,000 to $1,242.
All those who will send me $1 (or more) I promise them that they will have part id all my Masses, offices, prayers, and all the other good works that may be done by me, until my death.

REV. J. J. COLLINS.

eath.
REV. J. J. COLLINS,
Trevelyan P.O., Leeds County, Ont.
Post Office Orders payable at Athens,

Brauch 94, C.M.B A, Ottawa, has installed its officers. They are as follows:—president, Ralph Stattery; Ist vice-president, Hugh O Noill; rec-sec, M. J. O Farrell; ass. rec. sec., Denis Behau; flu. sec., Alex. Hunter; treas, James Muddy; marshall, Jas. Kearne, guard, John Reardon, trustees, James Giresco, John Casey, M. Daley, S. Teakey.

As ho sent Moves of old to deliver Ierael, so in the Now Law God sent Patrick to deliver Ireland from the thrail and horrors of pagasism: " out from the Mouse of Bondage," and as by tne glow of the fire-pillar, He lod the tribes through the seat sea and parching de sortes, so searchly less manifestly He stronger and the seat sea of the seat sea of afflicion and tight the observed of trial and persocution. If He has crowned them with the unfading and inoffable glory of Faith triumphant and He has crowned them with the unfading and inoffable glory of Faith triumphant and He has seattered them to the four winds that they may conquer to Him the Kingdoms of the world.

Emphasising this providence of God, the preacher glanced over the successive cycles of Irish history. The golden age of peace and religion, when Erli was the leavest of the Danish invasions and the glorious victory of the cross on the bloody field of Clontarf. The Norman invasion, the Rformation and the culminating horrors of the "Penal Days." No nation of the world ever passed through such a fearful ordeal, but in the end Ireland conquered; and on the lat of January, 1872, the forces of Hereey acknowledged their defeat, when the Profestant church was disestablished in Irevand.

Where did the Irish people get this gread fatth, this subtime persoverance this divine forthed or The Routenant! What a beautiful picture this would be the goad of the order of the une Saviour in the great according of the une Saviour in the great according the world or the sea of the une Saviour in the great according the world or the sea of the une Saviour in the great according to the une Saviour in the great according the world or the sea of the une Saviour in the great according the world or the sea of the une Saviour in the great according to the une Saviour in the great according to the une Saviour in the great according to the sea of the saviour in the great according to the sea of the saviour in the great world or the saviour in the great world or the saviour in the g

The Triumph of Ircland's Faith.

SERMON BY REY. J. B. DOLLARD.

On Sunday, Jan 15, the city divisions of the A. O. H., paraded in a body to St. Paol's Church, to attend the evening devotions. The fine church was crowded to its fullest extent. At the invitation of the Rector Rey. J. L. Hand, the sermon of the ovening was delivered by Rey. Father Dolland of St. Marys.

Present in the sanctuary were: Rev. J. L. Hand, Rev. F. O'Sullivan, Peterborouch; Rev. Father Dolland of St. Marys.

Present in the sanctuary were in the listory of the Irish race in it's suitoring and triumphs. God sent His leader Moses who delivered because the history of the Irish race in it's suitoring and triumphs. God sent His leader Moses who delivered because the beautiful paraded in the favored breath from both the beautiful paraded in the favored scale from bond by, leading froy, said through them all the nations of the cavit should be blossed. But the glory hi gate to Israel was not the glory of ourth. In His oyes exeth s clory is vanity and arbingnoss. He seemighty empires spring up and dominate the world. The through the tour kings blace with jowels and gold. The palaces of thee with should be blossed. But the glory hi gate to Israel was not the glory in great ones are haughty and magnificent. Their strong walled cities of the proposal paraded in the favore of the proposal paraded in a blood to be sufficient and the favore of the proposal paraded in the favore of the proposal paraded in a blood to be sufficient and the favore of the proposal paraded in the favore of the favore of the proposal paraded in the favore of the favore of the proposal paraded in the favore of the favore of the proposal paraded in the favore of th Vicar General Kelly at Smith's Fail.

The Rideau Record, of Jan. 12, publishes at account of the sympathetic address which Very R. 7. Then as Kelly, the 1st long triend to the sympathetic address which Very R. 7. Then as Kelly, the 1st long triend to the consequence of the sympathetic address which the state of the

Galiles and the Church.

Gallios and the Church.

The following narrow and ill-informed article, which appeared in The Globe last week, hastwe are glad to say called forth thereply from Mr. Thomas Mulvey, barrister, which we publish in this issue but which The Globe has declined to publish, contrary to its custom: "Gallieo, who died 237 years ago, is sometimes regarded as one of the early martyrs of science, but he was not of the early martyrs of science, but he was not fit he stuff of which martyrs are made. He was not, hike his great countryman. Glordano Brano, prepared to die for his opinions. He was summoned before the loquisition to answer for his scientific opinions. He was summoned before the loquisition to answer for his scientific opinions, which were declared to be increases. He was condemned by his dages to abjure on his knees his scientific opinions, which were declared to be interested. He was not the the opinion of the declared to be a sea at the property of the state of the commonplace of the first and laws of nature. He died in his first and laws of nature. He died in his first and laws of nature. He died in his first and laws of nature. He died in his first and laws of nature. He died in his first weak of the commonplace truths were sightly years after his recausation. Callibo's great courtbusions to science have been somewhat dinmed by his yielding to the enemies of free inquiry and suppressors of truth."

At the request of Archbishop Bruchen the Ismily entertainments or soirces de famille, given at the Monument National on Sunday evenings have been discontinued, His Grace having been desirous that there should be a more rigid observance of the Sabbath.