

J. S. HAMILTON, President,
Pelee Island Wine & Vineyards Co., Ltd.

J. S. Hamilton & Co., Canadian Wine Manufacturers and Vine-growers' Agents, Brantford, Canada, are the leading house in Canada in their line. An idea of the extent of the firm's business can be got from the above engraving of the Pelee Island Wine Co.'s new show card now being got up by the Sun Litho Co. On the left appears the Vin Villa Vineyards established on Pelee Island a quarter of a century ago. Next comes the firm's extensive premises at Brantford, then a map showing the location of Pelee Island and Brantford; and in the right hand corner appears the new three-storey wine house of the Pelee Island Wine & Vineyards Co., Ltd. In the centre of the card is given an exact view of the Company's great cellars on Pelee Island. Captain J. S. Hamilton, the head of the firm, is also President of the Pelee Island Wine Co., and J. S. H. & Co., besides controlling the wine company's entire product, are also sole agents for the Vin Villa Vineyards of Pelee Island, the West View Vineyards of Pelee Island, the South View Vineyards of Pelee Island, the Fairfield Plain Vineyards and the St. Malo Vineyards, Tilsonburg.

The firm's cellarage capacity is now a quarter of a million gallons. The extent of J. S. H. & Co.'s cellarage and business enables them to thoroughly mature their wines before being put on the market. No wine is sold less than two years old, and we were shown large casks containing hundreds of gallons of wines of 1885 and older vintages. The firm produce a fine hock known as Dry Catawba, and their Sweet Catawba is an excellent wine. A fine Communion Wine, "St. Augustine," is in use in hundreds of congregations throughout Canada, an excellent unfermented grape juice to meet the wants of the Methodist and Baptist denominations is also produced. Brands of port and sherry are also in stock, and, taking the fine quality of the wines and their comparative cheapness, it is no wonder people say: "The Pelee Island Wine Company's wines are crowding foreign wines out." Messrs. J. S. H. & Co. made a fine exhibit of their Pelee Island wines at the Jamaica Exhibition, and were awarded a gold medal. Captain Hamilton afterwards visited the Leeward and Windward Islands of the West Indies, and appointed agents for his company in all the larger islands. Messrs. J. S. H. & Co. are making regular shipments to Great Britain. In addition to their Canadian wine business, this firm keeps stocks of the following firms' brands, and also takes orders for direct importation:—J. H. Henkes, Delftshaven, Holland gin; A. Matignon & Co., Cognac, fine grape brandy; Henry Thomson & Co., Newry, Irish whiskey; R. W. Harris, Seville Estate, Jamaica, fine old Jamaica rum. The firm also represents in Canada the well-known brewery firm of Wm. Younger & Co. of Edinburgh, Scotland, and distribute large quantities of the celebrated Monk brand of ale and stout all over the Dominion.
