

Monetary Times

Trade Review and Insurance Chronicle of Canada

VOLUME 58
No. 2

TORONTO, JANUARY 12, 1917

ESTABLISHED
1867

The Week's Topics

The need for the prohibition of imported luxuries. War costs and economy. The good work of La Bonne Entente, Page 9. The United States federal reserve board, its warning and its Warburg. The relation of business necessities and the government's needs, Page 10

Government Securities

The Canadian government will shortly issue war savings certificates to attract small savings for war purposes. How the scheme has worked in Great Britain. The Dominion government has sold $3,250,000 of 5 per cent. debenture stock since October, Page 36 and Page 24

Fire Insurance

A review of fire underwriting conditions in Canada last year, Page 51. A record of deaths by fire, Page 22. Additional information regarding the insurance carried on recent fires, Page 39. The weekly fire register, Page 35

Industrial Research

Cheap fertilizers are needed by the farmers. Value of wood waste. Utilization of waste at the pit head. Can sulphur be eliminated from magnetic iron ores? Our metalliferous ores. By A. T. DRUMMOND, LL.D. Page 5

Bonds

Ontario votes $1,000,000 to assist returned soldiers, Page 14. Securities under British government's scheme B are subject to additional income tax, Page 18. The Monetary Times' record of municipal financing, Page 16

Life Companies' Investments

Analysis of the investments of Canadian life insurance companies. Magnitude of the funds. Factors in real estate investments. The first of a series of interesting articles by R. W. BARTON, A.I.A. Page 22

Transportation

Smaller mileage of railway lines built in Canada last year. List of equipment added by Canadian companies, Page 44. Canadian Northern's annual return shows improved earnings. Traffic offsets smaller grain receipts, Page 42

Trade and Commerce

Canada is likely to get $500,000,000 of munitions orders this year, Page 24. There are opportunities for greater manufacturing activities in this country, Page 14. Dominion government inquiry into the paper situation, Page 41

WEEKLY STATISTICAL RECORD—Pages 52, 54, 56, 58, 60.

DIVIDENDS AND NOTICES—Page 50.

ANNUAL REPORTS—Pages 26-39.

EDITORIALS—Pages 9, 10.

Annual Subscription $3.00 - - Single copy 10 cents