ACCORDING to a St. John despatch, Henry Higgins, chairman of the Petroleum Oil Trust, of London, Eng., who was in St. John, attending a meeting of the Baltimore Railway and Coal Company, says that there is a likelihood of an amalgamation of the oil and coal interests in Canada, involving fifty million dollars of British capital. He declares that there is a patriotic feeling in England just now in favor of developing Imperial resources with British capital, and that the amalgamation in question would have nothing to do with the Standard Oil Company.
