

ARTICLE 9

No provision of the present agreement shall be interpreted as prejudicing the views and future claims of either party concerning internal waters, territorial waters or jurisdiction with respect to fisheries or the resources of the continental shelf, or the bilateral or multilateral agreements to which either government is a party.

ARTICLE 10

1. The contracting parties shall establish a Commission to consider all disputes concerning the application of this agreement.

2. The Commission shall consist of one national expert nominated by each of the parties for ten years. In addition, the two Governments shall designate by mutual agreement, a third expert who shall not be a national of either party.

3. If, in connection with any dispute referred to the Commission by either of the contracting parties, the Commission has not within one month reached a decision acceptable to the contracting parties, reference shall be made to the third expert. The Commission shall then sit as an arbitral tribunal under the chairmanship of the third expert.

4. Decisions of the Commission sitting as an arbitral tribunal shall be taken by a majority, and shall be binding on the contracting parties.
