Dear Mr. Burlingham,

It is kind of you to reply so cordially to my begging letter and in view of the fact that the reprint of the Heidelberg letters is so limited I hesitate to send you even the enclosed list. If later on there should be copies going begging there are plenty of people who I know would greatly appreciate them, on both sides of the Atlantic. If you feel that the list that I enclose is too long please reduce it from the bottom upwards as I have put them in some degree of order of importance, though I know that all will read, appreciate and talk about them.

It is good of you to suggest that we should meet when I am in New York. Nothing would give me greater pleasure and I shall look forward to the chance before long.

Yours sincerely,

Charles C. Burlingham, Esq.,
