

Ottawas: at Mackinaw, 49; at Detroit, 49, 82; raise good crops, 85; hostile, 363.
 Ottawawa, (Lake Huron), 57.
 Ouendâts, (see Hurons).

Outagamies, attack Detroit, 81; defeated, 84.
 Owen, John, State Treasurer, saves the State credit, 565.

P

PACKHORSES, used for transportation, 390.
 Pajot, Commander at Detroit, 93.
 Panis or Pawnees, slaves, 113; at Detroit, ib. note; woman conceals Henry at Mackinaw during massacre, 121.
 Paris, Treaty of, 113.
 Parkman, Francis, 4, 120.
 Passing bell, discontinued in cholera year, 438.
 Patriot War, 511.
 Pattinson, Richard, obtains Indian grants, 196; partner in scheme for acquiring Michigan, 199.
 Péan, Hugues, hereditary Town-Major of Quebec, Commander at Detroit, 91; rapacity and punishment, 92.
 Pelée, Pointe: Dollier and Galinée wrecked there, 23.
 Perry, Commodore Oliver Hazard, prepares fleet at Erie, 365; defeats British fleet on Lake Erie, 367; acts as aid to Harrison in Battle of the Thames, 372.
 Phelyppeaux family, 94.
 Pierce, John D., Superintendent of Public Instruction, 481, 513.
 Pioneers, usually honest, 15.
 Political difficulties introduced, 419-432.
 Pollard, Reverend Richard, befriends prisoners, 349.
 Ponies, numerous in the woods, hardy and useful, 389.
 Pontchartrain, Count, at Quebec, 67; friendly to Cadillac, 70; places named for him, 95.
 Pontchartrain, Fort, built by Cadillac at Detroit, 54, 59; enlarged, 107.

Pontiac, Chief of the Ottawas: meets Rogers at Cuyahoga River, 115; his plots and massacres, Chap. VII. passim; his sagacity, 257; makes grants of land, 120, 140.
 Population: of Detroit, in 1760, 112; in 1796, 213; of Territory, 234.
 Portage of Keweenaw Point: Mesnard lost there, 12.
 Portage of Sault Ste. Marie: expense of transportation, 506, 529.
 Porter, Captain, takes possession of Detroit, 197.
 Porter, Augustus S., Senator, 514.
 Porter, George B., Territorial Governor, 429; dies of cholera, 446.
 Porter, Peter B., General, 324.
 Posts, western, retained by Great Britain wrongfully, 189.
 Potawatamies: aid Dubuisson, 82; raise large crops, 85; cede their villages to Chêne and Navarre, 150, 151; attack fort on St. Joseph, 120; hostile to United States, 363.
 Polier, Father, missionary among the Hurons, 99, 103.
 Powell, William Dummer, first Judge in Western District, 161.
 Pownall, Governor, on French settlements, 17, 108.
 Praline, 391.
 Printing press: none in Canada, 6; first introduced in Michigan, 255.
 Prisoners: massacred at Frenchtown, 345; ransomed at Detroit, 349; run the gauntlet at Fort Meigs, 358.
 Proctor, Henry, Colonel and General: assumes command at Malden, 287; at Detroit, 331; organizes govern-