

all others are Physicians of no value,—they could not save you, and you would again become the prey of disease and death. Having experienced the Heavenly Physician's power to heal, perform healthy acts; engage in healthy exercises. Go forth to your daily work in God's service until the evening. See what the Lord would have you to do in your own souls, in your families, in the Church, in the world. "To do good, and to communicate, forget not." There are many around you wounded by sin—wounded by it, as you were, unto death. Can you stand by and see them perish? Surely if you have come to Jesus and been healed, you will bring others to Him that they may be healed. Did He refuse to come into personal contact with our wickedness and misery? Instead of sending a substitute to be our deliverer, He delivered us Himself. "He loved us and gave himself for us!" Communicants, remember this; and when you see those who have none to care for their souls,—and they are at your doors,—pass them not by on the other side, but have compassion on them and hasten to their relief. Love as you have been loved; give yourselves to the recovery of the wounded and dying as Christ gave Himself for you, when you were wounded and dying. It is not long that you will have to go about this blessed work,—this only work worth living for! The night cometh when no man can work. Some have gone from among us since last we kept this Feast. We, too, must soon leave our places in the Church below. But what of this if we have been about our Master's business, and walked in love as Christ also loved us and gave Himself for us? Death will then have no terrors for us; it will only sever us from a body in which we groan, being burdened; and whether our passage over its dark waters be rough or smooth, we shall be welcomed to the joy of the Lord on the farther shore.

Finally, submit to your Heavenly Physician's treatment. Submit to it not less when it is painful than when it is
