

TRAFFIC AGREEMENTS.

PAGE

Company may enter into agreement with any other company for interchange of traffic, s. 57, s.-s. (1)	36
Company may enter into agreement for running trains over tracks of another company, s. 58, s.-s. (1)	38

"TRAIN."

Definition of expression in this Act, s. 2, s.-s. (2)	6
---	---

TRAINS.

Provisions as to equipment of all trains, s. 76	62.	63
Communication with engine driver, s. 76, s.-s. (1)	62
Brakes and couplings, s. 76, s.-s. (2)	62
Freight cars, equipment with ladders, etc., s. 76, s.-s. (4)	63
Draw bars, height of, s. 76, s.-s. (6)	63
Fire, safeguards against, s. 76, s.-s. (7)	63
Modern equipment, s. 76, s.-s. 8	64
Penalty for non-compliance, s. 76, s.-s. (9)	64
Bells, whistles and gongs, ss. 77, 78	64,	65
Conductors and motormen, protection of, s. 79	65
Modification of regulations by Board, s. 80	65
Stopping places, s. 81	65
Open cars, side steps, s. 82	65.	66
All regular trains shall be started and run at regular hours, fixed by public notice, and furnish sufficient accommodation, s. 114	86
No passenger train, carrying passengers, shall haul freight cars in rear of any passenger car, s. 118, s.-s. (1) ..	87
Every train when approaching draw or swing bridge, shall be brought to a full stop until signalled, s. 122, s.-s. (1)	89
Section includes street railways, s. 122, s.-s. (3)	89
Board may make exception when inter-locking system provided, s. 122, s.-s. (2)	89
Whistle and bell to be sounded when train approaches highway crossing at rail-level, s. 123	89
No train or motor shall pass over crossing when two main lines of railway cross until signalled, s. 124, s.-s. (1)	90
Exception may be made by Board when interlocking switch and signal system provided s. 124, s.-s. (3)	91
Not to apply where Dominion Railway Commission has jurisdiction, s. 124, s.-s. 4	91
Regulation as to train moving reversely over or along highways, s. 125	91
No train shall be allowed to stand on highway crossing longer than five minutes, s. 126, s.-s. (1)	91	