wing, poor thing, on Tuesday, but I trust that the weather has warmed up sufficiently again to permit your usual glance at the morning newspaper. Here is the information you seek : (1) Shopping bags priced in the neighborhood of $2.00 include a smart little design in real seal, a long, narrow shape, with frame of German silver, moire lining and small change purse inside. This is $1.95, a similar bag in pin seal with frame in gunmetal finish being available at the same price. A more conventional style in walrus grain with a frame in silver finish is also $1.95.

(2) The only marabout mount procurable at the present moment is about ten inches high and priced at 59 cents. It possesses the advantage of being washable.

(3) A centreplece in natural color linen, 18 inches in diameter, is 12½ cents; one 27 inches being 29 cents. The amount of embroidery silk required would, of course, depend upon the amount of work in the design selected. Silks are 5 cents per skein.

er skein.

(4) The nainsook in ordinary lace-trimmed lingerie is not suitable for embroidering. Moreover, the majority of pieces are inserted with lace in such a way that would put further ornamenting out of the question. What are sold for your purpose are the semi-made garments, a night gown stamped ready for embroidering, with the material for working being featured, complete, at 98 cents, and a princess slip at $1.25. The adding of Valenciennes lace would be an easy matter for you.

(5) China jardinieres are to be had from 75 cents upward. If you will let us know the size and color you want, something nice will be found for you at the price you wish te spend.

Enquirer.—"Yes" to each of your queries. The dictionary stand can be supplied at $5.00, the lower portion of metal and the support for the book of wood. The general appearance is very like the stands an orchestra uses for the music books—more substantial, of course. Neckbands for men's shirts are 5 cents each. But remember to state when ordering whether you want them to open in the front or the back.

"Elizabeth."—Only lately I've been reading your adventures in Rugen. But, do you know, I think I like you better within the peaceful precincts of your own German garden. Does that lamp for your desk mean that we're to hear more of your exploits? We shall have great pleasure in hurrying it on to you. Would you prefer candles arranged for electricity which can be slipped into any candlesticks—they are $2.00 each—or an artistic little wicker lamp with shade of Futurist silk, complete, at $5.00?

As for the corduroy cushions. If they are merely soiled and not stained, you can clean them by simply rubbing the pile—not wetting it through—with soap and water, wiping it off with clear water. For the purpose a regular carpet soap would be best—such as "H and H' at 15 cents a cake."
