

THE SENATE OF CANADA.

BILL E<sup>6</sup>.

An Act for the relief of Nellie May DeBlaquire.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Nellie May DeBlaquire, presently residing at the city of Toronto, in the province of Ontario, stenographer, wife of William Dineen DeBlaquire, of the said city, electrician, has by her petition alleged, in effect, that they were lawfully married on the fifteenth day of June, A.D. 1910, at the said city, she then being Nellie May Carlaw, spinster; that the legal domicile of the said William Dineen DeBlaquire was then and is now in Canada; that since the said marriage he has on divers occasions committed adultery; that she has not connived at nor condoned the said adultery; that there has been no collusion, directly or indirectly, between him and her in the proceedings for divorce; and whereas by her petition she has prayed for the passing of an Act dissolving her said marriage, authorizing her to marry again, and affording her such other relief as is deemed meet; and whereas the said allegations have been proved and it is expedient that the prayer of her petition be granted: Therefore His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, enacts as follows:—

Marriage dissolved.

1. The said marriage between Nellie May Carlaw and William Dineen DeBlaquire, her husband, is hereby dissolved, and shall be henceforth null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Right to marry again.

2. The said Nellie May Carlaw may at any time hereafter marry any man whom she might lawfully marry if the said marriage with the said William Dineen DeBlaquire had not been solemnized.
