POLICE WILL DRAG FOR BODY OF BOY

Feared Eleven-Year-Old Richard Malloch Lost His Life in the Bay.

RACES AND BASEBALL

Number of Attractions at Victoria Park—Denied Threat of Injunction.

By a Staff Reporter.

HAMILTON, Saturday, July 25.—It is feared that Richard Malloch, 11 years old, who resided at 25 Albert road, has been drowned. The lad left home Wednesday afternoon and has not been heard of since. Late Wednesday evening he was noticed in the vicinity of the bay front at the foot of Wellington and it is thought that he fell into the water and was drowned.

The police have made arrangements to drag for the body this morning.

Engaged in Rifle Practice.

The members of the Canadian Club Co., Hamilton Home Guards, were taken to the rifle ranges in automobiles yesterday afternoon and spent a couple of hours in rifle practice, drill and sports, after which supper was served.

Trade Conditions.

An interesting address on trade conditions in South America and the possibility of fostering Canadian trade in this direction was given by James Thane, general export freight agent at New York for the American Express Co., before a large number of manufacturers and shippers at a luncheon given in Robinson's Tea-room last evening, under the auspices of the board of trade and Manufacturers' Association.

False Pretence Charge.

Philip Salgila, 98 Barton street west, was taken into custody last evening by Detectives Goodman and Cameron on a charge of false pretences preferred by White and Co., wholesale fruiterers.

Leaves for Niagara.

Rev. Geo. H. Williams, pastor of Centenary Methodist Church, will leave for Niagara camp today, where he will act in the capacity of chaplain. Rev. Mr. Williams offered his services to the military authorities some time ago and was accepted. In the event of a unit being sent overseas from Niagara camp in the near future, Rev. Mr. Williams will accompany it.

Ladies Aid Garden Party.

A large crowd attended the garden party on the lawn at the residence of Rev. Dr. S. Banks Nelson, 49 Young street, held yesterday afternoon and evening by the ladies' aid of Knox Presbyterian Church.

The proceeds will be devoted to the purchasing of soldiers' comforts and to the Red Cross work.

Babies' Week Closes.

Babies' week closed yesterday afternoon when an entertainment of sports and amusements was provided at Dundurn Park. Thousands of parents and children attended the affair and enjoyed themselves for several hours.

Races and other events were held, while balloons were freed and fireworks set off. Suitable prizes were given to the winners of the various contests and small balloons and flags were presented to each child present.

Newspaperman Dead.

Tracey E. Noble, the well-known newspaper man of this city, suddenly died early yesterday morning following an illness of only a few minutes. Mr. Noble had been a member of the editorial staff for three years and was previously connected with the Times.

Threat is Denied.

J. J. Scott, president of the Hamilton Jockey Club, yesterday denied having threatened to take out an injunction to stop the work on the Kew-Elm subway unless the city paid $500 for a strip of land required for the club for the construction of the subway. The city officials were considerably worked up when they learned of the matter until they stated that it looked as if the matter until the club officials act further.

Association Football.

Rangers meet Assylum mountain this afternoon in their return Hamilton City League fixture. It is likely that they will repeat.

E.E.Y. and Westminsters, both being from league games, will put on an exhibition match, to be played at Chapin Park.

Only one game remains to be played in the junior section, when East Hamilton meets Huggison Street Baptists. This game earlier in the season, but has no direct bearing on the league standing, as Homesides have already been declared champions.

Races and Baseball.

This will be a big day at Victoria Park, for in addition to the two Senior City baseball games there will be a number of sprinting and running affairs that will be put on by members of the scheduled league teams. The first ball game of the season, between Erskines and Chesham, is in order to stay in the running. Erskines will have to win this game and team against the league leaders.

The second game will bring together the Beavers and Woodlands, and the former will also have to win, for the events will be run off between the two teams and are expected to attract large crowds, as many of the best athletes in the city are competing.

City Hospital Extension.

A special meeting of the City Hospital Board was held yesterday to draw up the expenditure to the city council for the extension of $1,125 on further additions to the new buildings being erected at the present time. In addition to this expenditure the board is asking the sum of $4600 for a new entrance.

CHARGED WITH POCKET PICKING.

W. Lawlaw, who gave 17 McCaul street as his address, was arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of pocket picking. The complainant being Max Elkin, 62 William street.

About three weeks ago there was a robbery committed on the same corner, and the detective department would like to get into communication with the witness of that incident.

Prominent Doctor Dead

DR. THOMAS WYLIE

who passed away at his residence, 655 Spadina avenue, yesterday.

SAVED HIS OWN LIFE LET FRIEND DROWN

John Bajis Left to Die in Island Lagoon by Companion.

John Bajis, 614 College street, was drowned yesterday afternoon in the lagoon at Centre Island, and a companion who was with him in the canoe saved himself by swimming ashore.

It is stated that Bajis and his friend were moving recklessly about in the canoe, and that the accident occurred when they attempted to change seats, capsizing themselves into the water.

Bajis went down immediately, but his friend managed to reach the shore, where he mounted a wheel, believed to belong to the former, and departed rapidly away. He has not been seen since.

The body was recovered within two minutes of the accident and resuscitation methods employed, but life was extinct.

The body was removed to the city morgue, where an inquest will be held.

MAN DROWNED FROM TUG IN EASTERN GAP

Got Entangled in Cable and Was Thrown Into Water.

Considerable doubt surrounds the identity of a man who was swept off a tug belonging to the Canadian Stewart Company yesterday afternoon in the eastern gap. A time check marked 143 was found on him and it is believed that his name is Scott.

The tug and the mate went to drop an anchor, and in doing so, both got entangled in a cable which threw them both into the water. The mate was saved but Scott never appeared.

The life saving crew was summoned to the scene of the accident, and worked for half an hour, the latter recovering the body in 30 feet of water.

The body was taken to the city morgue, where an inquest will be held.

LEFT THREE WEEKS OLD BABY IN PERAMBULATOR

Lady Who Left Empty Carriage on Street, Found It Occupied After Shopping.

Mrs. Napier, 655 Yonge street, took her two children into a departmental store last evening, leaving her baby in a perambulator on the sidewalk. She returned to the carriage she found it occupied by a dressed female infant about three weeks old. She took it to the detective office and from there to the infants' home, where it was refused admission on account of the epidemic of measles there. Finally the child got refuge at St. Vincent's Home.

READY FOR THE HOLIDAYS.

Yesterday came as a reminder that this is really summer time. After the cold spells for which Toronto has to thank the great inland sea that bears the name of Hudson Bay, the general sunshine brought a measure of relief and also a reminder that the holiday season is only just beginning.

Anticipation of the needs of young men Hickey's, 97 Yonge street, is now supplying special summer suits in beautiful all-wool homespuns, just the thing for fashionable resorts or the pleasurable life anywhere. They can be supplied in men's and young men's models at $12.50, and to ensure a perfect fit can be finished while you wait.

CHOIR HELD OUTING.

The annual outing of the choir of St. Anne's Anglican Church was held on Thursday, June 24, and sports were held in Victoria Park, and 134 of the choir and their guests sat down to dinner.

At the conclusion of the banquet presentations were made to the organist and choirmaster, Edward W. Miller and to his wife, and also to Mrs. Wm. Marsh and Miss Amy Ide, the two choir members who have been longest associated with the choir.

SMASHED POLICEMAN IN FACE WITH HIS HEAD

Constable Vernon Required Medical Attention After Meeting William Feltmate.

After assaulting John Egan, 163 Jarvis street, in a bar at the corner of Sherbourne and Queen streets last evening, William Feltmate, 107 1-2 Bleecker street, administered a severe beating to Police Constable Vernon (328), whom Egan called to arrest him. When Vernon approached Feltmate suddenly gripped the officer by both arms and drove his head with full force into the constable's face, smashing his nose and dislodging five teeth. Officer Vernon required medical attention. Officer 385 finally effected Feltmate's arrest on charges of assaulting Egan and the constable.

William Feltmate is one of the party of young men arrested last summer for rowdiness in the lake. Feltmate, with two others, he was fined $75 and costs in police court.
