annual public meeting of the Methodis general board of missions, held at Meropolitan Church last night. Rev. Dr.

Following last night's report that the German headquarters' staff had moved back 25 miles, indicating a possible retreat of the German right wing, a message of The Daily Telegraph from Rotterdam declares a terrific battle is going on from the coast to Arras, and that for the past two days, big guns have roared continually in Flanders. Further to the south another great battle is reported.

According to this message the fate of the Germans in Belgium and perhaps in northern France, hangs on these fights. Their whole line is declared to be endangered by the successes of the allies between Ypres and Arras. The correspondent declares that in Belgium, hundreds of trains are being held in readiness in case of retreat of the army.

Huge reinforcements are said to have been flung into the German battle line in their renewed efforts to drive back the allies and relieve the pressure on their lines near Lens, where the gravest danger is said to confront them.
