

Done on earth as 'tis in heaven
Be thy will O Father, given :
We entreat thee, humbly pray !
Let no unjust thought assail us,
Let sincerity avail us :
O ! incline us to obey !

When we gladly do thy bidding,
Striving for an honest living :
Give of daily bread, our need !
May we, pleased with thy dividing,
Grateful be for thy providing,
Give nor wealth nor painful need !

Self so weak, entangled, failing,
Teach us mildness, others ailing
Without blame to bear, nor grudge !
Pray forgive our debts lamented—
Just as we forgive repented
Debtors ;—wise and loving judge !
