

CHAPTER VI.

The Magnet Steamer—Voyage across Lake Ontario—Vast Extent—First View of Toronto—Handsome Appearance—Length of Streets—Scenery in the Neighbourhood—Reminded of Home—Unsettled Weather—Railways in Progress—Toll-gates—Moving a House—The Humber—Drive along the Lake Shore—Pleasant Dinner-party—Start for the Far West—The Lake Simcoe Railway—Voyage across Lake Simcoe—Beauty of Scenery—Purity of Water—Abundance of Fish—Sheriff of Simcoe County—Islands in the Lake—First Introduction to Indians—Lake Couchiching—The Killarney of Canada P.114

CHAPTER VII.

Village of Orillia—Primitive Vehicles—Night Journey across the Country—Evening in a Log-hut—Dreadful Road—Amusing Companions—Mr. Briggs—Coldwater—Abandoned School-house—Reach Lake Huron 139

CHAPTER VIII.

Steamer Kaloolah—The Georgian Bay—Commencement of Voyage—History of George, a Red Indian—His white Wife—Autobiography of the Sheriff—Anecdote of M. Le Batte—Tomb Island—Gale of Wind and heavy Sea—The Christian Islands—Visit Indian Village—Canoe Voyage—Ruins of Jesuits' Forts—Briggs and the Indians—Indian Dances—Incongruous Costumes—Indian Squaws and their Papposes 149

CHAPTER IX.

Collingwood—A new Settlement—Visit the Shore—Owen's Sound—Sydenham—Rough Passage—The Great Manitoulin—Manitouwaning—Indian Missionary Station—Residence of Superintendent of Indians—George's Settlement—Strange Scene—La Cloche Mountains—Continuance of Stormy Weather—Take Shelter in Goro Harbour—The Romance of Kaloolah 174