

VIII.

The meetings shall be convened by circular to the members and intimation in the newspapers, and shall be presided over by the proper officials. Should these be absent the meeting shall elect a chairman pro tempore.

IX.

No resolution shall pass unless notice of the intention to propose it has been given at a previous meeting.

X.

No modification of the constitution shall be made until it has been discussed for at least two successive meetings, and has been finally adopted by a majority of two-thirds of the members present.